Summer Nights

The Herald, like most newspapers, s experiencing a shortage of newsprint, the commodity upon which your newspaper is printed.

All three of our major newsprint suppliers have informed us we must take a 15 per cent reduction in our tonnage contract agreements.

Our suppliers have told us the shortage will exist through the end of the year and perhaps early into the new

"While we were touring the barn, my neighbor Omer Holt drove up and walked right into Russians," Hicks said. "Boy, his eyes got so big when ne met them.

"One of my neighbors said he had butterflies in his stomach waiting for the Russians to come, but they were just so riendly and nice they made us eel right to home.'

Hicks, who said he's been running his dairy farm at a deficit for four years now, has become spokesman for a group of Canaan-area dairymer trying to get better milk prices at the farm level.

"I don't think the Russians will be able to help us, but their visit here shows someone is interested. Maybe it will put some national attention on our problems," he said. The Soviet newsmen, he said, were interested in farm problems and asked a lot of questions about dairying. "But I could tell they were city folks because they looked at one of my heifers (a calf) and asked me how long it would be before I could milk her." Hicks admitted the attention he wanted and is getting hurts his farming. "I'll be glad when things quiet down around here so I can get back on a normal routine again," he said. "There's still feed carts to fill and cows to milk. And there's always manure to shovel."

Mayor Gets into Act

F. McCoy, RF was the name and position in the Vernon Orioles' final Twilight Baseball League game of the season earlier this week.

It was the real McCoy, none other than Vernon Mayor Frank McCoy who doubles as non-playing manager and coach of the Orioles. When only eight players showed up for the finale, McCoy donned a Vernon uniform and played several innings until Steve Krajewski arrived. His Honor managed to get in one at bat but wound up with a .000 average, being called out on strikes before retiring to the bench. Twi-League President Jack Rose reports that not one game was forfeited this season. McCoy helped preserve this record.

Matt Kept Baseball Alive

Orchids are tossed out again in the direction of Matt Moriarty for keeping adult baseball alive in Manchester-Thanks to his interest, the American Legion entry in Zone Eight had another successful season and the team bearing his name in the fast Hartford Twilight League came out a winner again. Although no new field has been designed to replace Mt. Nebo, an early thought would be to keep in mind a suitable name for said field, Matt Moriarty Field. It would be a grave injustice if the man who has contributed more to baseball in Manchester than anyone in the past 40 years was overlooked ... #### CHICAGO (AP) - Hank Aaron's magic number is down to 12, but the Atlanta Braves slugger doesn't think there's enough time left this season to reach Babe Ruth's lifetime home run record of 714.

"I don't think it's possible, I'm just not going to play that many more games, said Aaron after slamming No. 702 Thursday. It was a three-run blast in a nine-run Atlanta eighth inning and helped hand the Chicago Cubs a 10-2 defeat, their 11th straight setback.

"I'd like to hit five or six more, and I think that's possible," said the 39-year-old Aaron, who doesn't figure to play in all of the Braves' remaining 38 games. Aaron's blast was his first homer this month and his 29th of the season. His 701st came on July 31. "I was beginning to be superstitiou about that 'No. 13 behind' business," said Aaron. "I was at that 13 a long time." Somebody reminded Aaron that No. 13 still is the number he needs to pass Ruth's 714 total. Hank grinned and said, "That's a different story.

Aaron said distractions are mounting as he closes in on Ruth's record and that was why he didn't take batting practice before the game.

"It's getting hard to concentrate with all the pre-game interruptions for autographs, interviews and picture taking," he said. "I just got to sit by myself sometimes and get collected.

"In this case (No. 702), it was more a matter of concentrating on getting my timing back. For the last couple of weeks I wasn't swinging good, I was anticipating pitches that weren't there."

Vote Falls One Short Interleague Play In Baseball Loses

MILWAUKEE (AP) - Major League baseball fell one vote short - the tie-breaking vote Commissioner Bowie Kuhn chose not to cast - Thursday of adopting interleague play in 1974.

Kuhn, who favors limited interleague play, cited but declined to explain a challenge by the National League of his legal powers to cast the vote. However, he said he was "not precluding the possibility of casting it in the future," if the legal question is resolved

The impasse occurred as expected when American League owners and officials unanimously favored interleague play and the National League voted unanimously against it during the closing session of the majors' annual summer meetings. Kuhn announced creation of a "special blue ribbon steering committee" of five members, including two owners in each league and himself, which he said will have broad authority to make recommendations on all baseball matters. The committee will report at the majors' winter louston. Its members were not immediately named.

Bud Selig, president of the American League's Milwaukee Brewers, was bitterly disappointed but not surprised when interleague play failed to pass "I didn't fall away in a dead faint," said Selig, member of a

our-man committee which has been studying the issue since "But the committee wouldn't have spent all these hours and travel if we didn't sincerly feel we had a chance." he said. Charles Bronfman, board chairman of the National League's Montreal Expos, said opposition to interleague play was not ooted in the National's attendance advantage timate in interleague play in the World Series. I don't think interleague play would help the series."

BOSTON (AP)-Manager Dick Williams of the Oakland Athletics smiled, a gracious smile of thanks. Then he offered wishes of self-serving good luck to the Boston Red Sox, his old team.

"The Red Sox are due to break out, and I hope they start Friday night, "Williams said Thursday before he left town with his A's trailing Kansas City by just one half game in the American League West

Fresh from a three-game sweep of the team he led to the pennant as a rookie major league manager in 1967, Williams had good reason to wish the Red Sox luck in a weekend series with Kasnas City's Royals.

However, Williams isn't just counting on help from the Red Soz. He feels his Athletics are in pretty good shape after a 9-3 trip despite the loss of righthanded ace Jim Hunter since the All-Star "With the Cat out, this has been a real nice trip," Williams said after the A's completed a series sweep with a 6-3 victory over the Red Sox before 20.424 fans at Fenway Park. "We were hoping, really hoping when we came in her Monday night," Williams said. "Blue Moon Odom hadn't won a game in W. L. Pct. G.B.

this afternoon." The Red Sox were not just beaten, they were humiliated in the three-game series. Supposedly battling for the Eastern Division 70 52 .574 - lead, they managed just 15 hits and four runs, two unearned. "Holding the Red Sox to two earned runs in three games here is 58 63 479 111/2 pretty darn good," said Williams, who still loves Boston. "We got 54 63 .462 131/2 darn good pitching, more than any manager could hope for. I can't fault their hitters. I have to credit our pitchers,"

Williams was gracious. The Red Sox actually fell alart, except in the pitching, in facing some major league iron. The pitchers allowed just nine earned runs in the three games-and Boston pitching coach Lee Stange has a perfect right to ask why it isn't reasonable to expect a victory when only three runs a game are allowed in Fenway Park.

The hitting and the defense, which permitted Oakland several runs, left much to be desired. The Red Sox managed to commit Minnesota (Blyleven 14-12) at three errors in each game of the series. Now four games behind in the AL East race, the Red Sox

New York (McDowell 5-4) at named southpaw Rogelio Moret to face the Royals tonight in the opener of a three-game series. Moret, 6-0, is due to be opposed by righthander Dick Drago, 12-11. Milwaukee (Colborn 15-7)at

Anxious to Regain Status W. L. Pct. G.B. Blue Strange 55 65 459 51/4 Young Player 74 48 .607 21/2

BOSTON (AP) - Vida Blue of the Oakland A's can be a strange young baseball player. He tries to convey an impression that he doesn't care, but it's all a put-on, one that only the naive would take seriously. 43 77 .358 321/2

Blue, the American League's most valuable player and Cy Young Award winner as a rookie pitcher in 1971' appears to have egained his old form after a miserable 6-10 season last year when he missed nearly two months because of a bitter contract. hassle with owner Charlie Finley. The young left-hander, who was 24 just three weeks ago, appears determined to regain his super star status. That's when 11-7) at hicago (Bonham 4-4) he's on the field. After an excellent effort, though, he tries to act nonchalant. Maybe not all the time, but at least occasionally. Blue replied to most questions with shrugus and brief statements Thursday after he fired a four-hitter and the A's defeated the Boston Red Sox 6-3 with the help of Reggie Jackson's 28th and 29th homers.

"It was one of those days," Vida said with a smile as he was congratulated by a Boston writer for his fourth consecutive vichiking his record to 13-7. "I think I was only so-so out there today, but I got the 'W' by my name and that's what counts," he added as he was quickly surrounded by other writers. Blue struck out eight, walked two and allowed only one hit, a ground double just inside the third base bag by Orlando Cepeda for seven innings. Then he lost his shutout bid on a pop double to shallow right center, a walk, a dropped fly ball by Billy North, a sacrifice fly and a passed ball by Ray Fosse. "I've had plenty of shutouts, so to heck with it," Blue said when asked about missing a second shutout of the season. "Getting the win is what counts," he added. "Yeh, I got paid yesterday and that counts, too." Told that the Red Sox thought he threw harder than he has since he won 24 games and had 301 strikeouts as a rookie in 1971,

"I don't know. And I don't care. I don't care if I thrown un derhanded as long as I get 'em out."

Blue admitted, however, his fast ball was moving, he felt strong and the six runs to "work with made things easy." "I think Vida Blue will sneak in and win 20 this year," Jackson said. "It's getting late and he's getting attention again, but he can do it. He's also taking pressure off the rest of us. People are expecting 15 strikeouts and a no-hitter from Vida every time he

"As for me, I'm in a hot streak (15-24). I'm not carrying this club, though. I'm just carrying this guy in right field." "Reggie has been doing it all for us with the bat this year," Oakland Manager Dick Williams said after his slugging outfielder hiked his league-leading marks to 29 homers and 98 ru

"He has been very consistent in his hitting," the manager added. "The big thing now is that he is playing great defensive" ball as well, making great plays in the field. He had trouble on defense early in the season because of his legs, but he's doing everything now."

Sixth Straight Moriarty Victory

Closing out the regular season, in fine fashion, Moriarty Brothers won their sixth straight with a 4-1 victory over the Hartford Insurance Group last night in Twilight League action at St. Thomas Seminary in Bloomfield. The Gas Housers will meet secondplace East Hartford Tuesday night at 5:30 in the playoffs at St. Thomas.

Winning pitcher Steve McCusker made his first start in 13 games for the locals. McCusker allowed six hits and silenced the power of the Hartford bats.

Manager Gene Johnson had three hits in four trips to the plate for the MB's: Three doubles by Frank DiMauro, Rich Riordan and Bob Carlson, and Johnson's single broke a -1 tie in the fifth frame. Joe Klucek's single with a runner on third scored nother in the sixth and Moriarty's had a safe 4-1 lead.

Moriarty's 10 hits were spread throughout the lineup. Hartford starter and loser Ray Demaio also
