Gov. Tom Meskill has criticized our financial institutions in their advertising campaigns to attract depositors.

As a Republican, we're certain the governor is a strong believer in the free enterprise system and the spirit of competition among all businesses. His suggestion that advertising money might be used toward lowering mortgage rates borders on the ridiculous. When it costs banks more to borrow money they can't very well educe the rate to consumers

But the strangest thing of all is how Gov. Meskill, with the largest public relations staff in history, both in size and in budget, can find fault with any business that's attempting to spread its gospel in the pages of the print

Perhaps the governor can use part of his public relations budget toward attempting to lower the sales tax.

Minds Are Made Up

The President has spoken again on the Watergate affair. And as expected the reaction has been predictable with those who believe him innocent still convinced he was hood-winked by his closest associates and those who believe him to be involved, in the coverup at least, unconvinced that he was not.

This in essence is the dilemma of Watergate and the Presidency

The President cannot by words alone dispel the cloud cast over him and his administration. The tangents of the Special Senate Watergate Committee only compound the problem as witnesses offer contradictory versions of the affair.

The heart of the President's message thus became obscured by opposing forces trapped on a collision course motivated by considerations which seem to prevent either side

Other Editors Say

Bristol Loses Galipo

The City of Bristol is losing a top notch department head. Russell E. Galipo, comptroller for nearly 10 years, tendered his resignation last week and has accepted an assistant vice president's post with Hartford National Bank & Trust Co.

It would be tough to find a single employe at City Hall or, in fact, throughout local government, who did not respect Galipo's talents and leadership. In the community, he gave of himself in United Fund and Salvation Army director's posts.

Russ Galipo came to Bristol as assistant comptroller in 1963 after serving for six years in the Town of Manchester as deputy comptroller. His appointment here to comptroller came in 1966. He is a past president of the Connecticut Municipal Finance Officers Association and now serves as this state's delegate to the New England wing of the same group.

While in Bristol, Galipo served under five mayors and has been demonstrating his expertise in the area of municipal finances to such a degree that his presence as a panelist at regional and statewide seminars has been sought widely.

Russ has administered virtually all from making a concession which would escape interpretation as an admission of defeat.

The President, we feel, rightly sought to have the affair move from the quasi-legal atmosphere of the Senate hearings into the courts. Of course, this is unrealistic at this time since the Senate panel has long ago written off as a goal convictions of

The fact of the matter is despite the demands from Democrats and Republicans alike for the President to speak out on Watergate, it was a flop for his statement neither appeased his foes nor his friends.

Tragically it would appear, the Watergate affair has become an obscession in which, one way or another, minds are made up and no one seems to want to be confused by ## the facts.

budget programs and his handling of the complexities of state and federal allocation accounting has been taken for granted.

When a Bristol Press reporter thanked Galipo on the day his resignation was made public for consistent straight-forwardness in answering the often delicate questions of the news media, Russ laughed and indicated. "That's what a lot of people say is one of my faults."

Russ Galipo never let politics interfere with the vital services of his office. He has always been a proponent of freedom of information and never failed to give accurate assessments to the Board of Finance on the "spending packages" concocted by city boards and departments.

We extend all best wishes for a successful future to Russ Galipo in his new position in the Municipal Finance Department of Hartford National Bank.

He will be missed by City Hall and a replacement of equal caliber will not easily be found. But we are happy that Bristol will continue to be Russ' home because of his public service dedication. - Bristol Press

Life of Jesus

Jesus the Real Vine

"I am the real vine, and Father is the gardener. He breaks off every branch in me that does not bear fruit, and prunes every branch that does bear fruit, so that it will be clean and bear more fruit. You have been made clean already by the message I have spoken to you. Remain united to me, and I will remain united to you. A branch cannot bear fruit by itself; it can do so only if it remains in the vine. In the same way you cannot bear fruit unless you remain in me. "I am the vine, you are the branches. Whoever remains in me, and I in him, will bear much fruit; for you can do nothing without me. Whoever does not remain in me is thrown out, like a branch, and dries up; such branches are gathered up and thrown into the fire, where they are burned. If you remain in me, and my words remain in you, then you will ask for anything you wish, and you shall have it. This is how my Father's glory is shown: by your bearing much fruit; and in this way you become my disciples. I love you just as the Father loves me: remain in my love. If you obey my commands, you will remain in my love, just as I have obeyed my Father's commands and remain in his love.

"I have told you this so that my joy may be in you, and that your joy may be complete. My commandment is this: love one another, just as I love you. The greatest love a man can have for his friends is to give his life for them. And you are my friends, if you do what I command you. I do not call you servants any longer, because a servant does not know what his master is doing. Instead, I call you friends, because I have told you everything I heard from my Father. You did not choose me; I chose you, and appointed you to go and bear much fruit, the kind of fruit that endures. And so the Father will give you whatever you ask of him in my name. This, then, is what I command you: love one another."

This selection of Holy Scripture consisting of John 15.1-17 in Today's English Version is a part of the New Testament of our Lord Jesus

The victory gave Groman's, regular season winners, the Silk City Softball Slow-Pitch Double Elimination Tournament. More than 1,200 fans turned out for the final game on a three tilt card.

Sportsman opened the bottom of the first inning with four big runs, highlighted by Jim Breen's tremendous home run over the left centerfield barrier.

The victors, having their problems finding the handle of the ball in the first frame, let Sportsman build up a margin that seemed hard to overcome.

Wholesale will meet unbeaten Armory Tavern Monday night at 7:30 at Fitzgerald for the finals of the Town Slow-Pitch Double

Wholesale rallied to knot the count after two. Both clubs scored solo runs in the fifth, three each in the sixth and two runs in the seventh. Vito's failed to match Wholesale's output in the extra inning. Vito's scored most of their runs on throwing errors. The victors likewise used the old trick of running when the opposition was tossing the ball to the wrong bases. Mike Zotta collected three singles while Leon Pouncy, Glenn Taylor, Bob Godin, Bill Bagley, Mike Gabrow and Ron Zoppa each produced two base knocks.

Vito's playing without its top pitcher, Mike Orolowski, got two hits from Bob Warner, Tony Kaskauskas. John Moffitt, Wally Irish and Rich Warner. The latter hurled for Vito's. NEW YORK (AP) - It wasn't hard to find the happiest man in the Minnesota Twins' clubhouse Friday night. No, it wasn't Tony Oliva,, who hit two homers-including a grand slam-and drove in six runs.

No, it wasn't Bert Blyleven, who pitched a complete game for his 15th victory, giving up seven hits in the Twins' overpowering 14-2 triumph over the Cleveland Indians.

It was shortstop Jerry Terrell, who hit the first home run of his major league career, and added three singles to Minnesota's 18hit attack

In other American League games, the California Angels and Nolan Ryan crushed the Detroit Tigers, 10-2; the Baltimore Orioles edged the Chicago White Sox 3-2; the Boston Red Sox topped the Kansas City Royals 6-4; the Texas Rangers pounded the sinking New York Yankees 8-1, and the Oakland A's bested Angels 10, Tigers 2

There were two out and the Reds were losing 1-0 against lefthander George Stone, who had allowed only two hits. Manager Sparky Anderson was pacing up and down, talking to himself.

Water Break Repaired Fast Friday's break in the wooden water main, near Hebron Ave.,

Glastonbury, was repaired by 3 p.m. Friday, according to Jay Giles, public works director. Giles said that the main which was ruptured Friday when a backhoe working near the main struck it, did not need to be repaired through the use of cast iron pipe sleeves.

Wooden patches were used. Giles said that the water outage only lasted half as long as one caused by an Aug. 8 break, due to the fact that the new break was more accessable to repair crews. After the patching work was completed, town crews flushed the line and put the Buckingham reservoir pumps back into operation.

Stars from the top of the rock hit parade will be featured in an all-new edition of "Good Vibrations from Central Park," an ABC-TV special to be broadcast Thursday, Aug. 23 at 9 p.m.

The special, taped at performances originat-ing at the Wollman Memorial Rink in New York's Central Park, will star Sly and the Family Stone, the Temptations, John Sebastian, the Eagles and Melissa Manchester.

An NBC spokesman commented that the rock fans seem to display endless patience prior to the arrival of their idols. A three-hour delay in starting time does not seem to hinder the spirit of the crowd, who amuse themselves by playing frisbee or baseball, blowing bubbles or merely socializing among the thousands of faces. Aquaintences are formed, then forgotten as the electrifying atmosphere sweeps away any distractions from the stars.
