The bridge referendum passed 236 to 169. Voters authorized the town to bond $749,612 for the reconstruction of four bridges - South St. bridge, River Rd. South bridge, Merrow Rd. bridge and the Brewster St. bridge.

According to Town Manager Dennis Moore, at the present 5.5 interest rate for municipal bonds, the yearly cost of this proposal would range from $78,750 in the first year to $29,562 in the 20th year. This could raise the mill rate two mills the first year of bonding, but Moore said that this mill increase would probably not be needed until 1978.

The 495 voters were only about ten per cent of the approximate 4,500 eligible to vote. A Bicentennial Commission. The town council has authorized the formation of an eight-member American Revolution Bicentennial Commission.

The commission will be composed of a general chairman to whom will report a chairman for each of the major subcommittees - Heritage 76, Festival USA, and Horizons 76; and a chairman for each of four additional committees - finance, public relations, facilities, and supply, and intergovernmental coordination.

Each of these committees is authorized to enlist additional people and to form appropriate subcommittees as may be required. Heritage 76 is the phase that focuses on activities which recall the nation's heritage and gives historical perspective to the community. In the thirteen original states, the Heritage program would relate more directly to the events of the American Revolution than in other states.

Festival USA will involve an expanded effort to share with other Americans and the people of the world, the traditions, the culture, the hospitality and the character of the US and its people. Horizons 76 will cover activities in which Americans can commemorate their past by looking to the future as the United States enters Century 11.

The commission through its general chairman will be accountable to the Town Council for the bicentennial program, including the presentation of an appropriate budget for the fiscal years 1974-75 and 1975-76. Furthermore, the commission will formally report to the council on its plans, progress, activities, problems and accomplishments at least quarterly during the year 1974, and monthly during the years 1975-76.

Anyone interested in serving on the commission should contact Jean Brannard, Executive Director, Dr. Bruce M. Stave, University of Connecticut professor of history, has launched a study of

Mr. and Mrs. George O. Rose Jr. of East St. are holding an open house for friends, neighbors and relatives Sunday from 2 to 5 p.m. in honor of their two sons, Lawrence and George III, both of whom will be home on leave from their U.S. Marine Corps assignments.

Lawrence has just graduated as a private first class from Parris Island in South Carolina following six weeks of basic training. While there he received a sharpshooters badge with a rifle score of 215 out of a possible 220. He also received letters of recommendations from the company commander and series commander for outstanding performance in boot camp.

A 1973 graduate from Rham High School, Lawrence has been assigned to the 2nd Marine Division and will report to Camp Lejeune, N.C. for 14 weeks before duty in Okinawa and Saigon.

His brother, George, who is now a lance corporal, is completing a tour of duty at Camp Lejeune. Following his leave, he will report to the barracks detail at the Naval Training School in Lakehurst, N.H. George also graduated from Rham in 1972.

The planned new community in Coventry. Slave said his study will be an attempt to document, from its inception, the history of the community proposed by Greater Hartford Process. Slave hopes that his book-length study would eventually be combined with research by others involved in urban studies to form the historical component of an interdisciplinary research effort dealing with the proposed new community.

Slave explained that with the help of two student assistants, he will carry out extensive tape-recorded interviews with officials and residents of Coventry and residents of "target" neighborhoods in Hartford. The tapes will become part of an oral history project.

The interviews will be transcribed and kept on file, so that even if the new community does not come to fruition, the study of why it was not established might be as significant as if it was.

In addition to using taped interviews, Slave intends to gather information from official records, reports, manuscripts and newspapers, as well as minutes of governmental agency meetings through the years.

Student Commended
Milton A. Wilde, principal of Coventry High School, has announced that Thomas Drudge, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Drudge, Jones Crossing, has received a letter of commendation honoring him for his high performance on the 1972 Preliminary Scholastic Aptitude Test (SAT).

Drudge is one of 38,000 commended students in the United States. These students are among the upper two per cent of those who are expected to graduate from high school in 1974. Thus, the commended students rank high, but below the 15,000 Semifinalists for the Merit Scholarship.

Drudge is active in the National Math Club, Ski Club, Athletic Club, cross country, track, Science Club and Math Club. He is also a student advisor to DeVCo.

Warfare Erupts In Middle East

Two Teen-agers Accused Of Boston Murder

BOSTON (AP) - Two teen-agers have been charged in the killing of a 65-year-old fisherman, one of two white persons slain by gangs of black youths here this week.

The juveniles, one 15 and the other 16, were arraigned Friday on charges of delinquency by reason of murder and robbery. One of them was held in $20,000 bail and the other in $30,000 bail.

They were turned over by the Dorchester District Court to the state Youth Services Board, police said. Police said they still were seeking other persons in connection with the Thursday robbery-homicide of Ludwick Louis Barba.

He was fishing in a bay near the Columbia Point housing project when police said he was pelted with rocks by youths, stabbed with his own knife and robbed. Police termed an earlier report that Barba had been stoned to death an "unfortunate mistake." They said the group of youths had thrown stones at him but an autopsy showed no death had been caused by multiple stab wounds.

Police said that, within 20 minutes of the incident, a white man moving furniture into an apartment at the project was robbed and stabbed several times in the back. He was listed in fair condition at a Boston hospital early today.

Official Junior Fire Marshal

Town fireman Jim LaPine places a red fire helmet on the head of Robbie Ames of 47 Hammond St., a Nathan Hale School pupil, making him an official junior fire marshal. The impromptu ceremony occurred Friday when town firemen visited the school to kick off Fire Prevention Week.

Agnew Request Of News Sources To Be Resisted

WASHINGTON (AP) - News organizations whose reporters have been subpoenaed to reveal sources of stories about the investigation of Vice President Spiro T. Agnew say they will fight the action as an invasion of First Amendment rights.

Reporters for The New York Times, New York Daily News, Washington Post, Washington Star-News, CBS, NBC, Time and Newsweek Magazines were ordered to appear in a Baltimore court Thursday, bringing notes of conversations with official sources.

"We will vigorously oppose this step in the courts with all the resources at our command," said The New York Times. "The Washington Post and Newsweek consider these subpoenas an invasion of their right and the rights of the public under the First Amendment to the Constitution, particularly since any response to them would require the revelation of confidential news sources," said Joseph A. Callano Jr., lawyer for the two publications.

Richard S. Salant, president of CBS News, said that without the ability to keep sources confidential "American journalism and the free flow of information would be dealt a severe blow."

Agnew's lawyers were given authority earlier in the week to issue subpoenas and take testimony to probe the source of leaks about the Agnew investigation. The subpoenas were served Friday on: Fred Giaman, CBS; Nicholas Gage, NBC; New York Times; Robert Cohen, Washington Post; Robert Walters and Ronald Sarno, Washington Star-News; William Sherman, New York Daily News; Stephan Lesher, Newsweek; Ron Nessen, NBC, and unnamed Newsweek and Time staffers who helped prepare certain articles.

There were unconfirmed reports the Justice Department also was served with a subpoena, but a spokesman refused to comment. Agnew has alleged the leaks came from the department, an allegation denied by Atty. Gen. Elliot L. Richardson.

Town Firemen Turn Hoses On Each Other

DOUG BEVINS
(Herald Reporter)
Imagine several experienced firefighters suddenly, in the midst of a battle against flames, start playing streams of water on each other. It can't happen? Not during a fire, but three town firefighters intentionally doused each other Friday in a Fire Prevention Week demonstration at Nathan Hale School.

The kids loved it. And Town Fire Chief John Rivosa, who didn't know his men had a surprise in store for the first school visit for Fire Prevention Week, was just about rolling on the ground with laughter. It started something like this: Fireman Jim LaPine, acting out his role as the friendly forest ranger, was explaining uses of various equipment on an engine pumper and a ladder truck when another town fireman, Bob Bychoinski, demonstrated the use of an "Indian pump" - which is basically a back-pack tank used by firemen in forest fires - came a little too close to the children, and the other firemen assisting LaPine took aim with hoses and doused the scoundrel.

The hilarious scene took just a minute, and then LaPine returned to his discussion of fire prevention and demonstration of the apparatus. He briefly explained the engine pumper - which people other than fireman call a ladder truck. A two-way radio check from the Town Fire Department headquarters greeted the Nathan Hale pupils.

LaPine deplored the youngsters at junior fire marshals, distributed home fire safety check-off lists, and told the pupils how to make a simple home fire extinguisher, for kitchen fires, with an empty coffee can and baking soda. The pupils were urged to take the fire safety lists home and go over the lists with their parents. LaPine offered a reward - a small red fire helmet - to the children who took the literature home, and when LaPine asked for a show of hands of who promised to follow through with fire prevention at home, not one pupil kept his hand down.

Fire Prevention Week officially is Oct. 7 to 13, but town firemen started school visits early. They're planning demonstrations for all other schools in the Town Fire Department's district next week.

Israeli Forces Battle Arabs Along Two Fronts

By The Associated Press
Air, sea and ground battles raged today on Israel's front lines with Syria and Egypt, threatening to plunge the Middle East into its widest conflict since the 1967 war.

Cairo Radio announced that Egyptian troops crossed the Suez Canal to engage Israeli forces in the occupied Sinai. The crossing, the first since 1967, was made after Israeli forces tried to "seize part of our land on the western bank of the canal," the radio said.

The engagements still are under way on the eastern bank of the Suez," it added. Doctrines between Syrian and Israeli jets swirled over the cease-fire line along the occupied Golan Heights in the northeast corner of Israel. Sirens sounded throughout Israel, forcing thousands from their homes in a partial mobilization of forces within hours after the end of the solemn Jewish Yom Kippur fast.

The Israeli forces are in action against the aggressors," said a military spokesman in Tel Aviv. Egypt announced in Cairo that Israeli jets attacked its positions at Zafrat and Sukhna near the southern end of the Suez Canal. The waterway has been the effective cease-fire line between Egypt and Israel since the Jewish state steamrolled over Egyptian forces in the Sinai peninsula in the 1967 conflict.

In Washington, the State Department said it was watching the situation closely but planned no immediate comment. It was fighting between Israel and Syria that tripped the lever in a process of increasing confrontation that led to the Six-Day War of 1967. Israel roundly defeated the Arab nations in the West Bank of the Jordan River and on Egypt on the Sinai peninsula.

Both sides accused each other of attacking first in today's battles. Earlier this week Syria declared a 100 per cent military "cease-fire" with an "entire" of all reserves and retired officers. Israel went on alert this morning despite Yom Kippur, the day of atonement that is the Jewish state's most sacred holiday.

Damascus Radio said Syrian artillery returned fire along the 40-mile Golan Heights line "to silence enemy positions." Witnesses in Israel said Syrian shells were falling near Israeli settlements in the occupied territory. Damascus broadcasts said the forces air and artillery duels along the Golan cease-fire line were continuing more than an hour after they began, with cables and reports on developments coming to him as he worked in his residence study overlooking Biscayne Bay.

It was learned that Kissinger, who has been in New York discussing the Middle East situation with United Nations diplomats, had been in touch with the foreign ministers of both Egypt and Israel since reports of the fighting were relayed to him.

Stocks Reach Highest Prices In Six Months
NEW YORK (AP) - Stock prices reached their highest closing level in more than six months at the close of business Friday, with the Dow Jones average of 30 industrials at 971.25.

Dow's figure represented a gain of 15.35 points in moderately active trading of 18.82 million shares Friday. It was the highest close since the average finished at 978.85 March 14.

One Wall Street analyst, Monte Gordon of the Dreyfus Corp., credited a substantial drop in commercial banks' net reserves with strengthening "the belief that the Federal Reserve was adopting a more accommodating stance" on bank credit.

Brokers said high interest rates that the Federal Reserve's tight money policy helped induce have kept stock prices and trading volume down.

A statement by Chairman Herbert Stein of the Federal Reserve Council of Economic Advisors said "we have passed the worst of the economic fever of 1973" but also helped push prices up, brokers felt.

President Following Situation

KEY BISCAYNE, Fla. (AP) - President Nixon was awakened early today at the Florida White House with word of "a critical situation" developing in the Middle East, and was keeping in close touch with the reports of Israeli-Arab fighting. Deputy Press Secretary Gerald Warren said.

The President would have no immediate comment on the flare-up, Warren said. Warren said Nixon received a telephone call at about 6:30 a.m. at his Florida residence from Secretary of State Henry A. Kissinger, who "told him of reports that a critical situation was developing" in the Middle East.

The President has been following the situation since early this morning. Warren added, with a second call from Kissinger around 9:30 a.m. and cables and reports on developments coming to him as he worked in his residence study overlooking Biscayne Bay.

It was learned that Kissinger, who has been in New York discussing the Middle East situation with United Nations diplomats, had been in touch with the foreign ministers of both Egypt and Israel since reports of the fighting were relayed to him.

Tanaka Relaxes
BONN, West Germany (AP) - Japanese Prime Minister Kakuei Tanaka relaxed at the golf course today after ending his tour of France, Britain and West Germany. On Sunday, he flies to Moscow for talks about islands Japan wants back from Russia. At a news conference on Friday, he described his three-day visit to Bonn as "genuinely successful," and said he had found "full agreement" with German Chancellor Willy Brandt on the need for greater Japanese-European cooperation.

No Immunity
BALTIMORE (AP) - Vice President Spiro T. Agnew has no constitutional immunity from criminal prosecution, the Justice Department has argued. Replying Friday to Agnew's lawyers in U.S. District Court here, U.S. Solicitor General Robert H. Bork said that only a president has such immunity. Lawyers for Agnew have sought to halt the federal grand jury investigation of the vice president, contending Agnew must be impeached before any criminal prosecution.

Intersection To Reopen
The reconstructed intersection of Ayers Rd.-Sullivan Ave. in South Windsor will open to traffic Wednesday at 8 a.m. unless bad weather before then interferes with line painting.

The intersection work includes painting of new traffic lanes on Sullivan Ave., Rt. 194. South Windsor officials urged motorists to drive slowly and carefully observe the new traffic pattern.

Northern Irish Moderates Seek Out Ways To Peace

BELFAST, Northern Ireland (AP) - Moderate leaders of Northern Ireland's feuding factions have taken steps toward peace, but their efforts remain in doubt without the cooperation of the IRA's militants. As negotiators from the province's three leading moderate political parties met Friday at Stormont Castle near Belfast, the capital was swept with a wave of bomb scares and hoaxes, authorities said.

The seven-hour meeting involved representatives of the Protestant-led Unionist party, the Catholic-based Social Democratic and Labor party and the middle-of-the-road Alliance party. A brief statement said only "a measure of agreement" had been reached and that the talks would resume on Tuesday.

Oliver Napier, head of the Alliance party, told newsmen it would take "weeks rather than days" to make any significant progress in selecting a cabinet for the province's new parliament. And many observers questioned whether a coalition cabinet agreed to by the moderate politicians could be effective without the support of the militant Protestant "Loyalists" led by the Rev. Ian Paisley and William Craig. The Protestant militants have vowed not to share governmental power with Roman Catholics and have boycotted the meetings. Also absent were representatives of guerrilla organizations. The Catholic-based Irish Republican Army is dedicated to unifying Ireland through violence, while Protestant vigilante bands are just as violently opposed to union.

At the meetings at Stormont Castle got underway, British army headquarters reported some 60 bomb threats. Many were by claims claiming to be Ulster Freedom Fighters, an extremist Protestant group.

BEVERLY DUKETT
 Correspondent
 Philip T. Karlin, son of Mr. & Mrs. B. Karlin, 278 Lawrence Rd., has been named a semifinalist in the 1974 National Merit Scholarship Program. Philip, a student at South Windsor High School, is one of approximately 15,000 semifinalists, representative of the nation's most academically talented young people. Semifinalists constitute about one half of one per cent of the graduating seniors in the U.S.
 Semifinalists must qualify as finalists to become eligible for Merit Scholarships. To do this the semifinalists must fulfill requirements including receiving the endorsement of their schools, confirming their high PSAT/MQST scores on a second examination, and by providing evidence of their academic and other accomplishments. Ninety percent or more will become finalists. All finalists will be considered for one of the 1,000 National Merit $1,000 Scholarships.
 Six South Windsor High School students have also earned letters of commendation for their high performance on the 1972 Preliminary Scholastic Aptitude Test/National Merit Scholarship Qualifying Test. Those commended students are: Diane Boenig, Kenneth N. Braliford, Richard E. Brown, Jr., Arthur E. Champagne III, Jeffrey Nestek and Charles D. Weiss.
 The National Merit Scholarship Corporation has named 80,000 commended students throughout the U.S. These students are among the upper 2% of those who are expected to graduate from high school in 1974.

How Manchester Observed its Centennial

The week culminated with hundreds of people in a constant buzz of activities - pageantry, parades, sports, band concert, dancing. At the stroke of midnight on Saturday, everyone joined in singing "Auld Lang Syne." And with the playing of the "March of the Wooden Soldiers," everybody went home.
 This reminiscence of last summer's Sesquicentennial Celebrations in Manchester? It happened to be an event of another era such enormity as Manchester had never before seen. The occasion was Manchester's Centennial celebration which occurred fifty years ago this week.
 Headed by F. H. Anderson, chairman, assisted by Austin Cheney, F. J. Bendall and F. H. Wall, a week-long celebration of Manchester's centennial was planned to equal no other celebration in the town's history.
 Probably the high point of the Centennial was the Historical Pageant presented on Friday evening at the Centennial Grounds of Center St. with 1,000 cast members, winding up with a two-hour fireworks display on the grounds.
 The pageant, written and directed by Lela M. Church, was an enactment of Manchester's history which began as a beggar's dream in Manchester, England, and concluded with the post World War I era.
 There were Indians, early settlers, the early industrialists. One of the episodes which illustrated the silk industry that fulfilled the vision of the old town in England, was called "Dance of the Butterflies and Sketins," with 18 girls as butterflies and 66 girls as the skeins.
 The final episode took on a note of patriotism and hope for the longevity of the Spirit of Manchester with 64 local servicemen in uniform.
 Parade Day on Friday was heralded with an opening salute of one hundred rounds at 9 and morning. One parade wasn't enough for this headline occasion - there were two. The Historical Parade, with more than 5,000 people and 30 bands, marched from Depot Square to Charter Oak St. on Friday afternoon.
 A Mardi Gras Parade which attracted people along the way, began Saturday night and complete without a representation of real Indians. An Indian Village, located on Midway Grounds, was open daily to the public and featured ceremonial dances, native basket work and other handicraft. Members of the Passamaquoddy tribe, from the reservation at Pleasant Point, Maine, occupied the village.

 The Centennial representatives were shown the original treaty (manuscript) made with Chief Neptune, of whom the present chief was a descendant, in 1793, by the Colonial Government. In 1923, the Passamaquoddy Indians still used their native language in their routine work. Miss Frances Neptune, daughter of Chief Neptune, was among those representing her tribe at the Centennial.
 One can only presume the New England autumn was as ideal then as it has been this week, - ideal for promenading
 Reservations should be made several weeks in advance of the date on which the film will be shown, and an alternate date should be given.
 The film is in color and is paired with a tape-recorded, musical background. Running time is 28 minutes. A projection charge will be made because of the special equipment needed to show the film.

Sesquicentennial Parade on Film
 A 16 mm motion picture of the parade which was held during Manchester's sesquicentennial celebration in June is available now for public viewing. Any group or organization wishing to borrow the film can reserve it by calling John Sutherland, director of the Institute of Local History at Manchester Community College.
 Around town enjoying the Centennial sights and sounds, and cruising around the nearby countryside in cars with wide runningboards that provided room for a well-stocked picnic basket for a wasty lunch under a scarlet maple.

The Newspaper Game Rules

"So, you're in newspaper game." Almost all newspapermen and newspaperwomen have heard this often in the course of their careers.

In a sense, newspapering is a game. There is competition for the traditional "scoop" and to be ahead of your rivals in the business as well as those who practice the profession in the other media.

But is a game that has some tough rules which good newspapermen try to follow.

Perhaps since this is National Newspaper Week, a time traditionally devoted to self-adulation, it might be better for us in the profession to do a little self-evaluation while getting those pads on the back.

First, we are committed in the game of fairness, not by law, but because we believe a free press must be a fair press.

Second, we are committed in this game to the pursuit of truth, not that all our readers may want it since truth can and often is painful, but because we need to know the truth in a free society.

Third, we are committed to fair comment and opinion, not that we believe our readers cannot think for themselves, but because so much of our life today rests on opinions and interpretations of issues of the day. By presenting on our editorial page a diversity of opinions on issues such as a nationally known columnist, our own staff, and most important of all, letters from our readers, we seek to stimulate discussion on the issues of the day. Yours is the right to agree or disagree. This is what a free country and a free press is all about.

And finally, we are committed in this game to report not only what you may want to read, but often what you need and should read. On reporting the events of the day in the Manchester area, state, nation or the world, we must serve up the bitter as well as the sweet.

Unless we, who are in the newspaper game, play that game by these basic rules we are not fulfilling the theme of National Newspaper Week this year.

It is not a slogan, nor is it a combat from a mountain top. It is a professional precept to which we subscribe and pledge to fulfill to the best of our ability. It is:

Newspapers: Your Foundation for a Free Choice.

Keep Open Mind On Cheney Hall Future

Dear Sir: There recently appeared in the Herald two letters criticizing me personally for my efforts to preserve Cheney Hall. Those letters require an answer.

Approximately one year ago Cheney Hall became vacant. The hall is owned by Leon Podvorny and John Barnini and was leased by them for several years to a fabric company. That company moved and Cheney Hall is now vacant. The owners Association, displayed great concern about the fate of Cheney Hall. The mayor appointed a committee to explore the possibility of preserving the hall. It was appointed chairman of the committee and it is as chairman that I have acted. It is the present thinking of the committee that a private non-profit foundation should be formed to purchase Cheney Hall that would take title to the building and would undertake to raise funds to restore the building.

The committee felt it was not practical to restore a building of the size of Cheney Hall as a museum. Therefore, if the building was to be preserved and held by a foundation, it should serve a present need in the community. Negotiations were undertaken with several possible tenants. The Board of Trustees of the Community College voted to lease Cheney Hall from the foundation, to use as an auditorium. If the foundation could acquire the building, in addition the Community College has agreed, should it lease Cheney Hall, to make it available for use by the public on the same basis as the high school and East Catholic are available. The foundation would be responsible for restoring the building. The hall would have to be in condition for the Community College to occupy by Sept. 1, 1974.

Trudon Buys Pontiac Park

Ted Trudon, owner of Volkswagen and Porsche-Audi dealerships on Tolland Tpke. at Talcottville, has purchased Pontiac Park Inc., 373 Main St., Manchester.

The sale of Pontiac Park, by Albert Catalano and Wallace Parciak, owners, official last week. The purchase price wasn't disclosed.

Trudon said he bought the Pontiac dealership so he could "diversify into the domestic car business." He said he will continue to operate the business as a Pontiac outlet.

Trudon said Friday he intends to operate the Pontiac dealership from the center of Tolland Tpke. location until next spring, when he will build a new facility on his land off Tolland Tpke. in Manchester.

The new facility will consist of an 18,000-square foot building on five acres of land. The proposed facility will be "four or five times larger" than the existing Pontiac Park on Main St., Trudon said.

Trudon is owner of Ted Trudon Inc., a Volkswagen dealership, and Ted Trudon's Porsche Audi Inc., both on Tolland Tpke. He has operated the Volkswagen business for 13 years and the Porsche-Audi

Parciak, who is part-owner of Willie's Steak House in Manchester, said the decision to sell Pontiac Park came after Trudon offered "a good price" and "it seemed it was time to get out."

The Current Situation In Chile

To the editor: Estimates run as high as five to 20,000 people who have been killed by military regime in Chile that overthrew the democratically elected government of Dr. Salvador Allende in a recent coup. We sign this statement in protest against this illegal regime.

The junta which has grabbed power in Chile has declared its intention to use every means at its disposal to regulate the military junta; to assure the safety of foreign exiles residing in Chile; to refuse all economic and military assistance appropriations; and to investigate charges of U.S. involvement in the coup.

We seek that all nations, all people, all communities and all individuals, acting in as many ways possible, demonstrate their firm opposition to the military regime in Chile.

Supports Jackson

Dear editor: Some people only vote every four years when presidential candidates are running. Others will also vote every two years in order to cast a ballot for governor and a member of Congress.

This is not logical, for in many ways town elections are more important to us in our everyday life. I am writing to urge all voters in Manchester to vote in the town election next month and to consider the line qualifications of Mrs. Phyllis Jackson, Democratic candidate for the Board of Directors.

Although Mrs. Jackson is the newest member of our town board, she has already demonstrated a keen awareness of town problems and an intelligent understanding of the realities of government. She also has the courage to take on the issues that we face as a community.

I urge Democrats, Republicans and unaffiliated voters interested in assuring good town government to vote Nov. 6 for Mrs. Phyllis Jackson.

In Appreciation

To the editor: I wish to thank my co-workers of the Maintenance and Custodial Departments, the administrators of the Manchester Board of Education, and friends, for the retirement dinner which was conducted in my honor and for the thoughtful gifts I received. Also thanks to Mayor Thompson for honoring me with his presence.

Sincerely,

Upset

Dear editor: While I was away Sunday, Sept. 30, someone hit my kitty in front of my home while they were driving and did not stop to see if the kitty was hurt. If I had come home, I found my kitty lying dead on the street. I felt my kitty was very special to me and I love him very much. I think whoever hit my kitty was very cruel not to stop to see if he could help. If the person who hit my kitty would be alive today, I would be able to help him and his animal, or human being, should stop to see if he can help. He has a moral and legal responsibility to stop and help very upset over the death of my kitty.

Giants, Eagles Win, Both Tied for Lead

CATHOLIC BACKS READY TO ROLL — Quarterback Bob Love (12) hopes to get some top offensive running and Cephus Nolen (30) against St. Bernard's tonight at Mt. Nebo. Kickoff will be at 7:30.

Center stage Friday night in the opening game of the Midget Football League will be a pairing between two undefeated clubs, the Giants and Eagles.

Last night at Mt. Nebo both clubs notched their third straight triumphs, the Giants trimming the winless Chargers, 16-8, and the Eagles just got past the Patriots, 16-14. The Chargers have dropped all three starts with the Pats are 50-0 in four games.

The Giants jumped off to an early lead with Dave Minor scoring from the two. Tom Prignano added two points on a run. The Chargers came right back with Mike Haynie taking a punt and rambling 65 yards for six points. The extra point try failed.

Late in the second period, Prignano passed to John Orfittelli for 20 yards and then carried the ball himself to the two. Steve Everett bulldozed over the final line and Prignano hit Mike Lisenbigher for two more points via a pass and a 16-8 tie game.

In a penalty-infested first half, half-back Steve Grant had 85 yards in runs called back including a 45-yard TD gallop.

Illing Gridders Win in Opener

Two safeties totaled all the scoring yesterday afternoon as Coach Alex Ferguson's Illing High football team downed Timothy Edwards of South Windsor, 4-0.

Defense featured with Sealise, Corbit, Nonan and Jones outstanding. Offensively, Kinney, Johnson, Sherman and Gardella started.

Ed White's punting featured for the losers.

Platt Harriers Trim Indians

Finishing one-two, Platt High of Meriden overpowered Manchester High's cross country team yesterday afternoon in a CCL meet in the Silver City, 21-49.

George Cooper broke the tape in 19:05 with teammate Bud Wheaton close behind. First Manchester man home was Dave Lemieux in 18:34. Steve Scholky of Manchester was next with Fast grabbing the next five spots.

Results: 1. Cooper P. 19:05, 2. Wheaton P. 18:34, 3. Scholky M. 4. Zabel, 7. Nader P. 8. Sangvianer P. 9. Plater P. 10. Nonan P.

USC Grid Meeting Today 'Most Important of Year'

NEW YORK (AP) — Last week's 7-7 tie with Oklahoma may have dropped Southern California's defending national champions from the top of The Associated Press rankings, but Coach John McKay calls today's meeting with Oregon State "our most important game of the year."

And not just because it represents the top of the Pac-8 season, McKay says. "Our first goal is always to represent the conference in the Rose Bowl and therefore this is a 'must' game for us."

Despite last weekend's deadlock, Southern Cal is unbeaten in 20 games. Winless Oregon State has dropped all three 1973 starts-to Auburn, Southern Methodist and Brigham Young.

The only matchups between members of the Top Twenty list Miami of Florida, ranked 17th, at six-ranked Oklahoma and No. 15 Missouri at No. 19 Southern Methodist.

Oregon State, the team that replaced Southern Cal as No. 1.

Brother Act Again Leads Soccer Win

Once again it was a brother act that powered Manchester High's undefeated and CCL-leading soccer team to a 2-1 decision over Central High in Bristol yesterday afternoon.

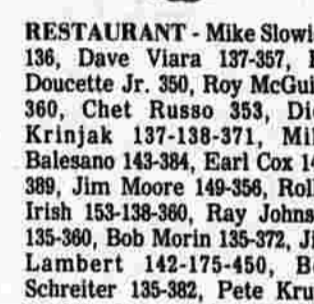

First it was Werner Cacace who booted in a second period score after fine passes from Bill MacLean and Reiner Cacace. This broke a scoreless tie. In the third period, it was all Cacace in the scoring department as Reiner took a pass from Werner and beat the Central goalie.

Snead Still No. 1 With Giant Coach

NEW HAVEN (AP) — New York Giants Coach Alex Webster is ignoring critics who have been lambasting his decision to stick with Norm Snead.

"He's still my No. 1 quarterback," Webster said as the Giants prepared for Sunday's National Football League game against the Green Bay Packers.

"You can't blame the quarterback for what happened last Sunday as much as you can blame everyone around him," Webster said. "We had missed assignments, wrong pass routes and the blocking broke down."

Giants Take Show on Road, Hope Act Will Be Beneficial

NEW YORK (AP) — The New York Giants raise the curtain in the Yale Bowl against the Green Bay Packers Sunday... and hope they don't bomb in New Haven.

While a new outdoor arena for the Giants is being built in New Jersey, they'll be staging the remainder of this National Football League season and all of next in the Bowl's Theater-in-the-Round.

Taking the act out of town could be beneficial—the Giants have been playing awkward football after an undefeated tryout season.

After a victory over Houston in the opener, the Giants struggled to tie the supposedly weaker Philadelphia Eagles in their longtime home, Yankee Stadium, and had a lost weekend in Cleveland.

The 1-1 record hardly deserves rave notices as has left the Giants fourth in the National Conference's Eastern Division.

The Packers, meanwhile, have a cast of brilliant defenders who have allowed a conference low of 31 points enroute to a 1-1 tie in St. Louis. That's good for a second-place tie in the Central race.

The leaders in the NFC's Eastern division, the undefeated Dallas Cowboys (3-0), what amounts to a pick-em game.

The Cardinals meet Oakland for the first time in history. The Raiders, who were supposed to be the class of the AFC West, have been unable to score an offensive touchdown in three games.

Baltimore is coming off its first victory, which is more than can be said of New England. The world Patriots haven't won in three starts and don't figure to win in four.

Cleveland has history on its side with Cincinnati. The Browns hold a 5-1 lead in the heated series between the Ohio rivals.

Len Dawson, despite a bruised shoulder, leads Kansas City against Denver as the Chiefs hope to hold or improve their lead in the AFC West.

Knights, Jets Paired Tonight

Long-time bitter rivals, Hartford and Bridgeport, tangle in an important Atlantic Coast Football Conference game tonight at 8 at Dillon Stadium, Hartford.

Earlier this season the downstate Jets whipped the Knights, 19-7.

In 11 games between the two clubs the Knights hold a slim 6-5 edge. However, two of the Jet victories ended long Knight win streaks. On Nov. 16, 1969, the Jets downed Hartford, 20-10, to end a 10-game skid. Last August, Bridgeport sneaked out its two-point decision to close out a 14-game Hartford streak. The last time the Knights were beaten at home, the Jets returned the trick, last month.

Nicklaus, Greene Lead In Kings Island Open

KINGS MILLS, Ohio (AP) — Putting was the name of the game Friday for Jack Nicklaus and Bert Greene, co-leaders in the rain-plagued $125,000 Ohio Kings Island Open Golf Tournament.

"The greens had a lot of spike marks in the afternoon. Maybe that was good for me. The marks threw my putts back on line toward the hole," joked Greene, who matched Nicklaus' three-under-par 69 start.

Greene had nine one-putters in his 28-putt round. Nicklaus was nearly as sharp on the soggy Kings Island Golf Center greens, racking in seven one-putters and taking 29 putts.

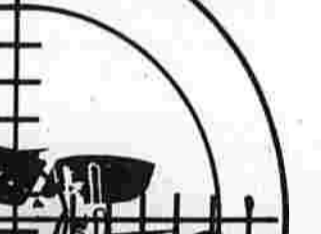

Both leaders benefitted from Thursday's washout. Greene was one-over-par after seven holes Friday for Jack Nicklaus and Bert Greene, co-leaders in the rain-plagued $125,000 Ohio Kings Island Open Golf Tournament.

Don Bies, the leader Thursday, had 118.

Greene wasn't even on the big leader boards sprinkled around 16 6:30 a.m. when he was charged home with four birdies on the last six holes. That didn't bother him.

"I had enough trouble just watching for my ball in the high grass," explained the 29-year-old blond from Hattiesburg, Miss. He's won only once in seven seasons on the tour.

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) - The African, Asian and Communist blocs condemned South Africa's racial policies before the U.N. General Assembly Friday, voting overwhelmingly to reject its delegation's credentials.

The black African nations and their supporters claimed the Pretoria white minority government does not represent South Africa's black majority.

He said the 73-77 vote with 13 abstentions was "tantamount to a vehement condemnation of the policies followed by the government of South Africa" and called it a "new solemn warning" to Pretoria.

He termed the accusation as being stupid and "a very obvious attempt to turn what was a legitimate business proposition into a political mess."

He added, "Had they been in contact with me and looking for instructions I certainly would not have instructed them to offer me the deal they relayed to me."

In a radio address later in Pretoria, South African Prime Minister John Vorster said his country would remain in the United Nations despite the vote...

Vernon Carruthers Agrees On Town Price For Rink Land

BARBARA RICHMOND (Herald Reporter) Thomas Carruthers, Vernon businessman, has accepted the offer of the Town Council to sell him 10 acres of land in the town Industrial Park at $3,000 an acre, $1,000 more an acre than he originally offered.

Carruthers, who is former Republican Town Chairman and is now serving as senator from the 35th District, made the announcement of his decision at a press conference Friday afternoon.

Carruthers wants the land to build an ice facility. A committee appointed by Mayor Frank McCoy has been studying the feasibility of the town building a similar operation but several members of the council felt the taxpayers would not support it at this time.

An offer to buy the same land, at a price of $3,500 an acre, was made by local contractor David Webster. The council met Wednesday night and in a 7-2 vote with one abstention, agreed to make Carruthers the owner of the land at the $3,000 price.

In announcing that he would sign the option to buy, Carruthers said, "However, I will walk the other mile, turn the other cheek, and allow the town to investigate Webster's offer. Should the town within 30-40 days, determine that this offer is more beneficial to the town, I will release my option to the town and the town can withdraw from the agreement with me."

Carruthers said when he originally entered into negotiations with the town he so as a "business developer," not a Senator Carruthers. He said he has seriously and earnestly tried to keep the whole thing out of the news in the town.

He added, "Apparently with the town election at hand the temptation was too great for some of the council members to make a political arena, what was purely a business proposition."

The initial step of Carruthers plan calls for construction of an indoor hockey facility in a building to be about 200 by 100 feet. He said he feels hockey teams will use all of the available time, but should there be time left over he would like to use for figure skating.

The next phase calls for construction of another building, which would be a skating rink, and other such indoor sports facilities. A second ice rink may be constructed in the future, depending upon the demand, Carruthers explained.

He said he has already been contacted by a local businessman who is interested in leasing a parcel of the land to construct a roller skating rink, but there is nothing definite yet on this.

Carruthers expressed concern that the vote on the proposal was not unanimous and with the political division reflected by the vote. He said the Democratic members of the council accused the Republicans with being on the phone with him (Carruthers) during the course of the special meeting, Wednesday.

He termed the accusation as being stupid and "a very obvious attempt to turn what was a legitimate business proposition into a political mess."

He added, "Had they been in contact with me and looking for instructions I certainly would not have instructed them to offer me the deal they relayed to me."

To a committee made Wednesday by Humphry that his concern was not political but only that the land be used only for industrial use, Carruthers answered, "The land has been sitting for eight years producing no taxes for the town, only expense."

Carruthers said the Industrial Park land in use is prime land and was sold at bargain prices.

In a radio address later in Pretoria, South African Prime Minister John Vorster said his country would remain in the United Nations despite the vote...

Mideast War Continues To Rage

'We Were There Before' Renewed War Stuns Jewish Community

SOL. R. COHEN (Herald Reporter) There was consternation and dismay among Manchester Jews attending Yom Kippur Services Saturday at Temple Beth Shalom.

They were stunned by the news of the fighting on Israel's shores. There was a sense of trepidation and a feeling of helplessness.

Reports of the fighting were meager, and as they filtered into the sanctuary they were whispered from ear-to-ear.

Yom Kippur, which began at sundown Friday and ended at sundown Saturday, is the most sacred day in the Hebrew calendar. It is the Day of Atonement, when Jews all over the world ask God to wipe the book clean of their sins and transgressions of the past year.

It is the day when the worshippers enjoy Jewish martyrdom, remember the destruction of the Temple in Israel, memorialize all atrocities against the Jews, and rally those in the Diaspora to the support of the State of Israel.

It was a very emotional service Saturday at Temple Beth Shalom. Once again, in their 5704-year history, world Jews were facing the danger of losing their homeland.

There was the recurring thought, "We've been there before." Drawn to the Temple by the instinctive sense of crisis and the need for assembly, for prayer and for togetherness.

On The Way To Battle

Israel Claims Turning Point Near At Hand

By The Associated Press Israel said Syrian forces were "in full retreat" from the Golan Heights toward Damascus today, but Syria said its troops had repulsed the Israelis and Egypt claimed it totally controlled the east bank of the Suez Canal.

The Israeli state radio said Israeli troops and armor pursued the retreating Syrians. The broadcast said Syrian soldiers were running away from foot and that Syrian columns began withdrawing toward Damascus, less than 40 miles from the battle lines.

Egypt, meanwhile, said its tanks punched deeper into the Sinai under cover from warplanes knocking out vital Israeli defenses. Israel said its forces were on the offensive and had destroyed all bridges across the Suez Canal, trapping Egyptian troops in the desert without water.

In Washington, President Nixon said the United States seeks support in the U.N. Security Council for a position "we hope and believe will be effective," but gave no indication as to the nature of the Middle East proposal the United States will present to the council.

The Israeli state radio's authoritative commentator, Maj. Gen. Haim Herzog, said Israeli tanks were slashing toward the canal with fresh crews and said Israel was near a "dramatic turning point" in the three-day war.

But an Egyptian communique broadcast by Cairo radio said the Israeli attempt to destroy cross-canal pontoon assault bridges had failed and Egyptian jets were blasting Israeli airfields in support of advancing Egyptian armor.

A communique from the Syrian military command also reported heavy fighting on the major front, the Golan Heights near Israel's northeastern border with Syria. The Damascus broadcast claimed Syrian jets backing ground troops in the heights Herod said Syria and Egypt had lost a total of 90 planes and helicopters.

We have started our advance," said Maj. Gen. Yitzhak Holi, commander of Israel's northern front. In a possible sign the Golan battle was tipping Israel's way, Yofl announced that women and children could return to their settlements in the heights. They had been evacuated Saturday at the outbreak of hostilities.

A communique reported heavy losses and damage inflicted on the Syrians. The Israeli radio said furious air battles raged over both the Egyptian and Syrian fronts and claimed that they were the first such aerial actions of the new war.

Nixon transmitted a message to Brezhnev Sunday before leaving Ky Biscayne, Fla., Ziegler said, and Brezhnev's response was received after the President returned to the White House late Sunday night.

Nixon interrupted a morning meeting in his Oval Office with Kissinger to chat briefly with Brezhnev about the Middle East situation.

Kissinger, invited to say a few words by Nixon, said he had been in close contact with other members of the Security Council and that "our intention is to move forward with the broadest possible support."

Nixon ordered Kissinger on Sunday to call for a convening of the 15-nation council shortly before the chief executive left Florida to return to the White House.

MOSCOW (AP) - Soviet Communist party leader Leonid Brezhnev said today Israel is the aggressor in the Middle East war and that Soviet sympathies are on the side of the Arabs.

He said the Soviet Union is prepared to make its contribution toward ensuring a fair and stable peace in the Middle East. Brezhnev's remark came in a news agency Tass said.

"What is taking place here is a battle between Israel, the aggressor, and Egypt and Syria, the victims of aggression, which want to liberate their land," Brezhnev said. "Naturally, all our sympathies are on the side of the victims of aggression."
