Ederly Installed As Grand Chancellor

Charles Ederly Jr., 33, of Foster St., was installed as grand chancellor of the Grand Lodge of Connecticut Knights of Pythians Tuesday night at its annual convention at Willie's Steak House.

He and other officers of the Knights of Pythians, as well as officers of the Pythian Sisters were elected and installed during the convention.

Ederly joined the Knights of Pythians in 1949. He is a past chancellor of Memorial Lodge. He is a past regent in the Nomads of Avraduka, and a royal prince of the Dramatic Order Knights of Khorassan, all auxiliaries of the Knights of Pythians.

He is also vice president of the Connecticut Pythian Center, Inc., in Cheshire, and vice president of the memorial service committee, which is in charge of the annual service at the Cathedral of the Pipes, Ridge, N.H., and a member of the Pythian Sisters.

Ederly succeeds Herbert Gaynes of Stamford as grand vice chancellor; Albert C. Griswold Chappell of Manchester, a past grand chancellor, officiated at the installation of Ederly.

Fierce Tank Battles Reported Along Suez

By The Associated Press

Egyptian and Israeli tanks battled fiercely along the eastern side of the Suez Canal today as Israeli jets pounded Egyptian missile batteries on the western bank, Israel said.

Syria said the Israeli warplanes also attacked Latakia and Tartus, Syrian ports on the Mediterranean where Soviet supplies are reported arriving by sea to replenish the Arab war machine. Three Israeli jets were shot down at Damascus, Israel said, but it gave no information on damage to the ports.

An Israeli commando force reported operating west of the broadcast by Damascus radio. Both sides had reported a big tank battle on the Syrian front Tuesday, with Israel claiming 105 Syrian and Iraqi tanks were knocked out and Syria claiming 80 Israeli tanks were destroyed.

Egypt said its troops along the Suez Canal were "viciously" pushed back a westward push by Israeli tanks.

The Tel Aviv command called today's Sinai tank battles

"large-scale" and said fighting was raging along the central sector of the 105-mile-long waterway, which Egypt retaken on Oct. 6 for the first time since Israel seized the Sinai peninsula in the 1967 conflict.

Maj. Gen. Haim Herzog, former chief of Israeli army intelligence and now the state radio's top military commentator, called the battle "the biggest armored clash in our military history."

Neither he nor the command said how many tanks were participating.

U.S. Ambassador Kenneth B. Keating met with Premier Golda Meir this morning "for a talk," the Israeli government reported. It gave no details.

The United States has mounted an emergency airlift to resupply the taxed Israeli arsenals and balance what Washington calls the "massive" Soviet military aid to the Arabs.

President Nixon scheduled a Middle East meeting in Washington today with four Arab foreign ministers — those of Saudi Arabia, Kuwait, Algeria and Morocco.

In Kuwait, representatives of the Arab oil nations met to discuss the use of oil as a weapon in the war, one day after the oil-producing countries of the Persian Gulf announced a 17 per cent increase in their crude oil prices.

Republicans Endorse School Bond Issue

SOL R. COHEN, Herald Reporter

The Manchester Republican Town Committee Tuesday endorsed the proposed $5.6 million bond issue for improvements to the Bennett Junior High Schools and adopted a nine-point platform which stresses accountability as the key issue in the election campaign.

The proposed bond issue will be the No. 1 referendum question on the Nov. 6 voting machines. Of the $5.6 million total, $2,881,000 would be for filling and $2,719,000 for Bennett.

The vote to endorse was on a motion by Robert Spillane, whose term on the school board expires next month. Mrs. Harriet Hallett urged endorsement on the basis that the Republicans could be credited with taking the school issue out of politics.

The Democratic Town Committee is meeting tonight and indications are it, too, will endorse the proposal. The two town committees are splitting the cost of a circular which explains the referendum question.

The platform, adopted by a unanimous voice vote, as was the school proposal, charges "the Board of Directors has abdicated authority and responsibility to the administration (the town manager)," and pledges "to insure that charter-given powers remain in the hands of elected officials."

Agency Suspend Hospital Care Rate Increases

HARTFORD (AP) — The commission on hospitals and health care frozen its young muscles for the first time Tuesday and suspended indefinitely selected rate increases at 25 private Connecticut hospitals.

Charles Momen, director of the Yale-New Haven hospital and a commission member, said the action set the stage for a legal battle over the commission's power.

"The only thing that can happen (as a result of the action) is a deterioration in services," Momen said. He alone voted against the suspensions.

The commission, which came into being July 1, but didn't acquire full power until this month, suspended all increases greater than 6 per cent. Those less than 6 per cent were allowed to remain.

The commission had obtained Gov. Thomas J. Meskill's opinion saying it had the power to suspend all increases on or before Oct. 1, pending review. John A. Doyle, the commission's executive director, promised to schedule hearings on the affected rate hoists Oct. 9 and again Nov. over Public Television Station 24 which include instructions on ticket-splitting. He urged the public to watch the programs.

Joseph Swenson, chairman of the campaign finance committee, said the suspension of rate increases would be a blow to the industry. He said the suspension would be a "blow to the industry."

Berte, noting that a goodly number of town committee members haven't contributed to the campaign, said he needed the cash flow now, and not after the election, he said.

In many cases the suspended increases were for specialized care such as pediatric maternity or intensive care. As a result several hospitals were allowed to retain their rates for some services while rate for the other services were halted. In all, 34 of 96 private hospitals in the Yale-New Haven hospital and a commission member, said the action set the stage for a legal battle over the commission's power.

"The only thing that can happen (as a result of the action) is a deterioration in services," Momen said. He alone voted against the suspensions.

Area Hospitals Give Views On State Action

Administrators at Manchester Memorial Hospital and Rockville General Hospital today voice opinions about hospital rate increases voided Tuesday afternoon by the new Commission on Hospitals and Health Care.

The commission voted to approve all rate increases since March 1 that have been over six per cent but rescinded those of more than six per cent.

Public hearings will be held on those hikes over six per cent and the commission said it will, at that time, judge their "reasonableness."

Edward M. Kenney, administrator of Manchester Memorial Hospital said, "The commission used discriminatory powers, apparently, from an opinion out of the Attorney General's office, in suspending price increases which is going to create hardship among the state hospitals, including Manchester Memorial Hospital. Our only recourse at this time is through relief at the public hearings."

The only increases allowed Manchester Memorial Hospital were for room and board. The total partial reprieve from federal track safety standards. But the federal agency said Penn Central must upgrade all standard track on its passenger and mainline routes within 90 days. The railroad had asked for exemption from the regulations for nearly one-sixth of its 38,000 miles of track.

Manchester Memorial Hospital were for room and board and the request for increases in the special services area were suspended. This is a critical area where costs to the hospital have increased significantly.

"With no source of funds to turn to to absorb the costs, the alternatives will impose severe financial hardship on the hospital. Our request was for a 4.8 per cent overall increase which is well below the 6 per cent federal guidelines," Kenney said.

To do this, Kenney explained some price increases were held to slightly more than a two per cent rise, but in the special services areas — operating room, Memorial Hospital said, "The commission used discriminatory powers, apparently, from an opinion out of the Attorney General's office, in suspending price increases which is going to create hardship among the state hospitals, including Manchester Memorial Hospital. Our only recourse at this time is through relief at the public hearings."

Gov. Thomas Meskill released a statement congratulating the commission before the actual vote. Kenney's reaction to Gov. Meskill's move was that "there are a great many political motivations involved and little regard for the hard facts the hospitals are facing in the rising costs they cannot absorb."

State May Take Over Agnew Case

ANNAPOLIS, Md. (AP)—The prosecutor of Anne Arundel County, Md., has asked county grand jury members to consider investigating former Vice President Spiro T. Agnew's activities as governor.

Warren B. Duckett Jr., state attorney for the county, said Tuesday he instructed the jurors to give him their independent views next Tuesday. He said he gave them no recommendation.

Duckett said federal prosecutors in Baltimore have provided him with a copy of their 40-page summary of evidence against Agnew that includes allegations of kickbacks to Agnew from contractors while he was governor. Duckett said he's not sure they will give him anything more even after their prosecutions are complete.

The prosecutor said there are four major considerations he is weighing in making his decision to investigate Agnew: the national interest, the expenses involved, getting evidence and getting a fair trial. He did not specify the type of charges he was considering.

He said he will call the state's attorneys in Baltimore City and County today to determine if they can cooperate in any possible investigation of Agnew.

Obscenity Trial Set For Monday

DOUG BEVINS, Herald Reporter

WEST HAVEN — The case of John F. Maguire, Jr., charged with two counts of promoting obscenity, was reset for trial next Monday after a similar obscenity case was heard in Circuit Court 8 Tuesday.

Maguire, 31, was formerly manager of the Manchester Book Shop at 739 Main St. He was arrested a year ago in a statewide crackdown on alleged pornography dealers.

Maguire's case is set down for trial at West Haven, before Judge Burton Jacobson, with three other obscenity cases stemming from the Nov. 1, 1972, statewide crackdown.

Judge Jacobson Tuesday heard the case of James Welch of New London, charged with three counts of promoting obscenity, and reserved decision in the case until all the obscenity trials have been completed.

Prosecutor Guy Wolf presented testimony of two state police officers in the New London case Tuesday, and it is expected that the state's case will be similar in the other obscenity trials. Atty. Leonard Kamaras of Providence, R.I., represents all four defendants coming to trial at West Haven.

The four cases — one each from Manchester, New London, Norwich, and Groton — are being heard at West Haven, because Judge Jacobson, specially assigned to hear the cases, is now sitting in Circuit Court 8.

Offshore Oil Drilling Planned

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Interior Department plans to permit the drilling of offshore oil wells along the coasts of Florida, Alabama and Mississippi as the nation faces a tightening energy crisis.

The planned drilling in the eastern Gulf of Mexico is currently being produced by wells off the coasts of Texas and Louisiana.

The Interior Department said full development of the eastern Gulf would require about 1,500 wells.

The leasing is part of the Interior Department's five-year plan for expanding offshore drilling. The schedule calls for 15 lease sales through May 1978, with the first covering the eastern Gulf. Lease selling shifts to Louisiana in March and then to Southern California next September.

Bidding is also scheduled in 1977 and 1978 for leases in the Gulf of Alaska and hearings are being held on whether the government should approve drilling in the Atlantic.

Jackson Wins ATLANTA, Ga. (AP) — Maynard Jackson says his election as Atlanta's first black mayor is "a resounding affirmation of the principles of unity and brotherhood that have helped make Atlanta truly a city too busy to hate." Jackson, Atlanta's vice mayor, piled up an overwhelming lead in predominantly black precincts to unseat Mayor Sam Massell in their runoff election Tuesday.

Judgment Set Aside TULSA, Okla. (AP) — An $82.5 million judgment against International Business Machines Corporation for antitrust practices has been set aside by U.S. District Judge A. Sherman Christensen, who said he will set a lower figure later. He took the action Tuesday after a day of arguments in which IBM attorneys contended the award to the Texas Corporation was based on erroneous information and should not be within 30 days. The railroad had asked for exemption from the regulations for nearly one-sixth of its 38,000 miles of track.

Weiss said as soon as Mayor John Thompson signs a proclamation, signs designating the street name change will be erected.

At the end of the campaign, United Way will revert to its old name, Main St.

Ostrout Will Direct New Haven Art Show

John Ostrout of Manchester, assistant managing director of the nationally acclaimed Yale Repertory Theatre, has been appointed director of the first "Showcase of the Arts" in New Haven, the festival set for Friday through Sunday in New Haven.

The son of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Ostrout Jr. of 422 Parker St., he has organized New Haven's "Showcase," being presented under the aegis of the Arts Council of Greater New Haven with over 50 regional arts organizations participating.

The arts center on Audubon St. between Whitney and Orange in downtown New Haven will have tents on the grounds to house multiple arts activities scheduled over the three-day weekend including everything from jazz, folk and rock music to ballet, chamber music, dramatic sketches and visual arts.

He is currently completing his final year at Yale's Graduate School of Drama, and also involved with the Yale Repertory Theatre's eighth season which opened this month. Ostrout earned his bachelor's degree at the University of Connecticut.

At UConn, he also served as chairman of the Student Union Board of Governors. He was a member of the president's committee on placement activities and a special assistant to the chairman of the department of dramatic arts. He was producer of the New Haven Skating Club's "1940s on Ice" and has

Rockville Library Books Being Re-Catalogued

A program to facilitate subject searching at the Rockville Public Library, has been initiated under Oscar R. Guilbault who recently took over the duties of library director.

Guilbault said the staff began Monday to divide the adult library card catalogue into a separate subject catalogue and a separate author-title catalogue.

The director said that this will mean that once the project is completed a patron will have only one place to search when looking for books on a particular subject, rather than wading through author and title cards to find appropriate subject cards.

Guilbault offered apologies that patrons will be slightly inconvenienced during the change. He said the entire project will be done in three stages and will take several months to complete.

The first stage will be to move all subject cards in a particular drawer, to the rear of that drawer. The second stage will be to check all the filing in the card catalogue. Guilbault explained that over the years there have been many variations in spelling and filing so this re-filing will insure that all filing is standardized.

The third and final stage will be to actually move all of the subject cards into an entirely separate card catalogue.

Patrons who cannot locate materials, during the changeover, should ask for assistance at the circulation desk. Only the adult portion of the library will be affected by the change as the junior division already has separate catalogues, Guilbault said.

State Leads In Environment Legislation
HARTFORD (AP) — Connecticut has achieved a national reputation for leadership in environmental legislation and enforcement, Gov. Thomas J. Meskill told the Connecticut Association of Municipal Attorneys at their annual seminar this week.

"Whatever their political differences in other areas three successive sessions of the Connecticut legislature have passed the most creative and effective environmental laws in the nation," Meskill said.

He also attributed the state's accomplishments in the environmental field to "informed citizens, devoted special interest groups, enlightened news media and a business community that has recognized its obligation to the future and has been willing, when necessary, to forego short-term profit for long-range stability."

Scenic Season

Sunday we took a short drive around Manchester to view the changing panorama of the countryside. It was necessary because as the saying goes, man cannot live by bread alone. While our beautiful fall foliage may not be what the creator of the saying had in mind, we had the feeling this annual phenomena of nature is a part of our Creator's grand plan and for a while we were removed from the tawdriness of man's world and were entranced in God's.

While such viewpoints would add immeasurably to the pleasure of our citizens, each would help make our highways and byways safer too by reducing the inherent hazard of trying to keep one eye on the road and the other on the scenery.

It is clear now that the Israeli leaders misjudged the strength of the Arab attack they knew to be coming. Not only did they decide against a pre-emptive strike, which could have broken up the Arab surprise attack, they failed to mobilize their reserves ahead of time to meet the attack in full strength. On the Day of Atonement, it turned out to be later than the Israelis thought.

Later Than You Think

NEW YORK, N.Y. — The danger in the Middle East is that massive Soviet rearming of Syria and Egypt will prolong the war indefinitely and transform its character, and that the United States may be responding with too little, too late.

Today In History

By The Associated Press
Today is Wednesday, Oct. 17, the 290th day of 1973. There are 73 days left in the year.
Today's highlight in history: On this date in 1777, British Gen. John Burgoyne surrendered his forces to the Americans at Saratoga. It was one of the turning points of the American revolution.

The Candidates Are Saying

John W. Thompson
Comment Session

(Mayor Thompson is a Democratic candidate for reelection to the Manchester Board of Directors.)

A reminder that the deadline for all letters to the Open Forum pertaining to the Nov. 6 election is Wednesday noon, Oct. 31. After that deadline, we won't accept any letters for publication.

We are making space available for guest editorials by each of the town's political party chairmen.

A good idea? The Glastonbury Chamber of Commerce has a student representative on the board of directors.

We are indebted to Mrs. C.R. Butterfield of Bolton for sending us a tear page of the San Diego, Calif., Union, which told of that newspaper making the switch to a new printing process.

Therefore, it seemed only fitting that an editor should have been chosen for the job.

We received a salute from Darrell Hovey, exalted ruler of the Manchester Elks, in recognition of National Newspaper Week.

Out in the Far West an interesting complaint has been filed by a tavern owner because a church was constructed near his bar.

Coffee breaks getting shorter or longer? Coffee is still the number one American drink but soda is closing in fast.

A lot of space has been devoted to control of the fans at Shea Stadium.

So the myth of Israeli invincibility is broken, which is by no means fatal but could be healthy.

Rowland Evans, co-author of the Inside Report column which appears on our editorial page, arrived in Israel yesterday for an on-the-scene look at the Arab-Israeli war.

Conceivably, a new balance of power could be struck in the Middle East, provided the Arab aims in the war are — as Sade's diplomats have said — limited aims.

But the Soviet role could break this. If Russia continues as an inexhaustible retriever of Arab strength, and continues to egg more Arab states into the war, then it is no longer a case of "limited" but of unlimited war aims, no longer a war aiming at a power balance but one aiming at a crushing defeat of Israel.

GOP Platform (1973)

The Republican Party of Manchester offers candidates for the 1973 election who represent expertise in the fields of labor relations, personnel management, and maintenance engineering. They also present an extensive background of civic involvement and a broad knowledge of town affairs.

Accountability
 We believe the Board of Directors has abdicated its responsibility to the administration. If elected, we intend to ensure that chartering powers remain in the hands of elected officials. We believe it is in the best interests of the town and its citizens that a professional general manager be hired for a finite period of time. If elected, we shall pursue the proper course of action to bring about this change.

Taxes
 Revenue sharing affords a dramatic opportunity for significant advancement of desirable programs while relieving the burden on the local tax base. We propose the establishment of an advisory committee composed of prominent citizens to prepare longrange recommendations on the optimum use of state and federal funds provided to our town.

Education
 Recognizing that quality education is a sound investment in the future of our town, we pledge a strong effort to insure that our children receive the benefits derived from good teachers and adequate facilities. Specifically, we pledge a sound approach for improvement of the facilities and programs in our secondary schools.

Energy
 The possible impact of the energy crisis on every resident requires immediate townwide attention. We recommend the establishment of an Office of Energy Policy and set as its first goals a 10 per cent reduction in energy consumption by the town, and assistance to residents in developing satisfactory approaches to reduce their energy use.

Three Firms Face Charges For Illegal Campaign Donations

WASHINGTON (AP) — Criminal charges were filed today against three corporations and two executives who admitted making illegal contributions to President Nixon's re-election campaign. Charged with misdemeanor violations of federal campaign financing laws were American Airlines, Goodyear Tire and Rubber Co. and Minnesota Mining and Manufacturing Co. Sirica declined to accept the plea himself and assigned the case to U.S. District Judge George L. Hart Jr. All were charged under federal law which prohibits donations from corporate funds to political campaigns.

PZC Views Plans For Tudor Hills
TUDOR HILLS was again the topic of discussion at the Planning and Zoning Commission's public hearing Tuesday night. After a year of work by Achenbach Realty with the Town of South Windsor, plans for two lots of the development were aired. Section one was recently approved. It is a 21-acre tract including 39 lots. Drainage was the main problem raised over the two. Philip C. Smith, a Wethersfield engineer, explained the problem. He recommended that three 6-foot pipes be installed to handle any excess water flow. This seemed to satisfy the commission's public hearing Tuesday night. A traffic study was conducted in the area during the Friday afternoon and Monday morning peak times. It was found that there is not enough traffic to warrant a signal light. It was recommended that a stop sign be installed on Quarry Brook Rd. The validity of a "temporary conditional permit" was questioned by representatives of Midlin Industries. Midlin Industries is currently operating under such a permit on their R.T. 5 property. Since the application expires in April 1974, an application was made for a zone change from A-20 to industrial. The request for the zone change was based on the claim that the property has been used for industrial purposes for the past eight years. Also, other nearby neighbors are using their property for non-residential purposes. Area residents expressed opposition to this type of "spot zoning." Although Midlin In-

Tolland Townspeople To Decide Tonight On Ambulance, Art Land Lease

VIVIAN KENNESON Correspondent Tel. 675-4704

Residents will be asked to approve two leasing arrangements at a special town meeting tonight at 8 p.m. at Hicks Memorial School.

The Tolland Volunteer Ambulance Association is requesting use of the barn behind the Administration Building and Arts of Tolland wants to lease about three acres on Cider Mill Rd. Both groups are asking for 99-year leases at $1 per year.

The TVAA has been using the old garage on Bald Hill which has been condemned by the building inspector. State regulations call for the ambulance to be housed in a heated facility.

The association will make repairs and install heat and plumbing before moving in, and feels the barn will serve its needs for the next ten years or more. The building will be used for classes, meetings and actually owned by the town and not the state.

The Arts of Tolland also received the go-ahead from PZC this month, although specific plans won't be ready for a number of months.

According to the group's president, William D'Antonio, the town approval is being sought in order to go forward with a fund raising campaign, in cooperation with the Greater Hartford Foundation.

Manchester Evening Herald HRC Re-Elects Keefe

Francis J. Keefe of 2 W. Center St. was re-elected chairman of the Human Relations Commission Tuesday night at its meeting at the Municipal Building. Other officers elected are Donald Valente, vice chairman; and Mrs. Johnese Howard, secretary. The commission discussed its proposed group home ordinance and the procedures to be used in presenting it to the Board of Directors. Allan Mason, human services director for Manchester, said that even though the Board of Directors indicated a willingness to go along with the group homes concept six months ago, it may not want to go along with it at election time. He also said, "No matter what the Board of Directors say, the zoning board can upset the apple cart." Commissioner Dr. Archibald Stuart said that "The zoning board is not under control of the Board of Directors," and suggested that the commission plan an informal meeting with the zoning board on Oct. 29.

Leaf Pickup Starts Monday

Manchester's annual fall leaf-pickup program will begin Monday (Oct. 22) and is scheduled to end Nov. 21, Highway Superintendent John Burchill announced today. Each Friday during the collection period, the town will advertise in The Herald - listing the streets scheduled for pickup the following week. Residents are being asked to rake the leaves into the gutter and to form a windrow the length of the property. The raking should be done the day before the pickup. Curbs should be exercised to keep foreign objects out of the leaf piles, to prevent vacuum damage to the vacuum cleaning machines. Leaf bags, at 50 bags for $2.25, are available at the Olcott St. highway garage and at the Lawton Rd., McKee St., School St. and Central Firehouses.

Rham Board Settles on Size For Proposed School

ANNE EMT
Correspondent
Tel. 228-3971

The Regional District Board of Education Monday evening unanimously agreed that the proposed middle school should be constructed for 600 pupils with core facilities expandable to 800, and to request authorization at the Nov. 13 district meeting to borrow $40,000 for the first phase of the building program.

Following its meeting of Sept. 26 the board had been undecided on what size school to present to the district meeting.

However, Dr. David Cattanach, superintendent of schools, presented new figures, based on actual numerical increases in pupils in the three district towns, Hebron, Andover and Marlborough.

These figures indicate that the growth in seventh and eighth grades will be from 668

Tinkham Considers Remaining in Post

VIVIAN KENNESON
Correspondent
Tel. 875-4704

Stuart Tinkham, chairman of the Board of Assessors, has agreed to consider staying on as assessor past his resignation date of Nov. 6.

Four of the eight selectmen candidates — John Burakas, Kevin Cavanagh, Robert Dumont and Stuart Jolin — met with Tinkham Monday evening following a selectmen candidates meeting.

Tinkham told the men he would agree to stay on, contingent upon legal technicalities being cleared by town counsel. Inasmuch as all eight candidates agree to the appointment of Tinkham, the seven who are elected on Nov. 6 will meet and appoint him temporary assessor. A permanent assessor will be appointed by the town manager under the new town charter, which abolishes the Board of Assessors.

Tinkham had sent a letter to the Board of Selectmen, town clerk, and town counsel, stating he would resign on Nov. 6 to clear up any questions regarding his status under the new charter. The selectmen tabled action on his resignation and First Selecta Erwin Stotzner, said at the Oct. 9 meeting he would pursue the matter with

Tolland Eagles Beat Bolton Team

VIVIAN KENNESON Correspondent Tel. 875-7404 The Tolland Eagles spotted the Bolton Bulldogs two first period touchdowns and then came back to score three times and shade Bolton 18 to 14.

Bolton kicked off and promptly smothered Tolland inside their 10-yard line. The Eagles were unable to move the ball and on fourth down could not get off a punt. Bolton took over on the Tolland 10-yard line and four plays later the Bulldogs big hard-running tailback Paul Groves went over on the 4-yard line.

With the Bulldogs ahead 14 to 0, the Eagles began to move. Jeff Gallic did most of the work to engineer a 60-yard scoring drive with Mike Tracey scoring. Bolton punted the second half kickoff and the Eagles worked their way out to the 15-yard line where Jeff Gallic broke two tackles and sped 85 yards to pay dirt.

The Eagles defense, spearheaded by Pete Jesania and Kevin Hoke, held Bolton while the Gallic brothers alternately ran for small chunks of yardage until Jeff went over to go ahead 18 to 14.

Tolland plays Simsbury next Sunday at Tolland High School at 3 p.m.

Midget League The Trojans bested the Somers Spartans in a slow-paced game Sunday. Neither team seemed too determined as the first quarter saw Tolland go ahead when they scored on a safety.

The teams came alive as Tolland scored one touchdown after another. Putting Tolland on the board were Mike Winter, Bruce Johnson, Roy O'Neill and Dwayne Banville. The top A defense never allowed Somers with scoring range. It was led by Dale Martin, Buzz Tuller and Larry Lozo. The E team defense could not penetrate as William Holley, Lance Foster, Dean Mancuso and Greg Gerold refused to be intimidated.

Next Sunday the Trojans host the Ellington Hornets runners at 1 p.m.

"C" Team Ties The Tolland Tigers dominated a well-played game Saturday in South Windsor. Strong running by Mike Mills set up Bill Noonan's touchdown. The South Windsor Admirals were not able to score until late in the game. Excellent defense by Eric Parent, Scott Baker, Joe Mazerella held the Admirals back time and again until the Admirals, known for the well executed reverse play, went over on just such a run.

Commended Christine Dooley and Robert Hadden, Bolton High School seniors, have been designated to receive National Merit Letters of Commendation.

Vernon Barbed Wire Ruled Out At Tower

A plan to put up a barbed wire fence around the Fox Hill Tower, to prevent vandalism, had to be abandoned when Town Attorney Abbott Schwebel told the Vernon Town Council that the state statutes do not allow this type of fence to enclose any public school or public building.

The ruling brought up the question of the barbed wire fence around the public swimming pool in Henry Park. Councilman Robert Houley brought this to the council's attention.

Atty. Schwebel said, "If the pool is a building then you can't have the fence; if it isn't you can." The discussion on this was dropped when Councilman Donald Eden asked Houley to ask to waive the rules to have it put on as a new agenda item and Houley did not choose to do so.

Concerning the Fox Hill Tower, Atty. Schwebel said it was his interpretation of the statutes that the tower is certainly a public building and it would appear that it would be in violation to enclose it with barbed wire fence.

He further explained that this does not mean that all buildings owned by the town cannot be enclosed with barbed wire. He specifically referred to a radio shack at the tower. It contains radio equipment but is not used as a public building.

The council is still planning to put a fence around the tower in conjunction with an alarm system directly connected to the Vernon Police Department. The cost of the fencing will be about $4,000 and the cost of the alarm system, about $800. This recommendation will be sent to the Recreation Commission for its opinion as the park is under that department's jurisdiction.

The tower was constructed as a memorial to veterans of all wars. A fund for these veterans is also in existence and the council was told that this contains about $4,700 which could be used to protect the tower.

Commission Favors Buying Salvation Army Campsite

MONICA SHEA Correspondent 742-9495

Conservation Commission has voted to recommend that the town purchase the seven acres of beachfront property which is now the Salvation Army campsite.

The Salvation Army has purchased 270 acres on North River Rd. and is planning to build a new camp there. The Army has given the town the right of first refusal on its present property.

The commission will also recommend that the town Council seek assistance from the Soil Conservation Service to help solve an erosion problem at Pine Lake Shores. There is a gully there about 15 feet deep, 30 feet wide and 60 feet long that has been caused by the continual flow of water from a conduit pipe over the past three years.

Each of the area towns is allowed to seek assistance on two specific problems, and the commission has decided to confer with the Planning Zoning Commission and the town engineer to design a town problems which could require such assistance.

The commission is seeking volunteers to serve on a "municipal response team" which will be ready to institute immediate action in event of an oil spill.

This team will work within the framework of a contingency plan that has been drawn up by the Water Compliance-Hazardous Substances division of the State Department of Environmental Protection to cover oil spills large and small.

According to Mrs. Francis Pank, chairman of the commission, Coventry has already had three small spills, all resulting from burst underground gas lines. The plan will be presented to the Town Council so that council members may help select a coordinator, preferably someone who will be available at all times.

The commission will again collect glass on the town green for recycling. Rts. 31 and 44, in the near future. According to commission members the last recycling day was not very successful due to the lack of advertising.

The Whirlways will celebrate their anniversary Sunday Oct. 28 with dancing from 7 to 10 at the Capt. Nathan Hale School. Tickets are available at the door and soft-soled shoes are required.

Gunmen Hold Hostages, Demand Arabs' Release

BEIRUT, Lebanon (AP) — Gunmen stormed a building housing several American and foreign banks today, seized up to 60 hostages, and threatened to kill them after a two-hour gunbattle in the heart of Beirut's financial district, police said.

The hostages, including foreigners, were trapped in the six-story building, which houses the Bank of America, Manufacturers Hanover Trust Co. of New York, the Deutsche Bank of West Germany and the Lebanese Banque de l'Industrie et du Travail.

The gunmen called themselves members of the "Lebanese Socialist Revolutionary Movement" and gave authorities a 6 p.m. national deadline — noon EDT — to meet three demands: — The release of all Palestinian guerrillas imprisoned in Lebanon.

The 13-day-old Middle East war also came home to Beirut with offshore explosions that cut an undersea cable linking Lebanon and Europe. Military sources said the five blasts were the work of Israeli frogmen.

WASHINGTON (AP) — The House overwhelmingly passed a sweeping mandatory fuel allocation bill Wednesday.

The bill, which is opposed by the administration, would require President Nixon to implement across-the-board rationing of oil products.

The House bill would require allocation of crude oil and all refined petroleum products, including home heating oil and gasoline, based on last year's distribution.

The allocation program would run until February 1975, and would be enforced by the Federal Trade Commission.

Nobel Prizes Awarded Two

STOCKHOLM (AP) — Harvard economist Wassily Leontief won the 1973 Nobel Prize for Economic Science today for invention of a technique used in the economic planning of numerous countries.

The Royal Academy of Science honored the 67-year-old Leontief for the development of the "input-output method" and for its application to important economic problems.

Leontief was born in Leningrad, Russia, and studied and worked in Germany and China. He came to the United States and Harvard in 1931.

Leontief has written four books on economics, including the 1966 "Input-Output Economics" which outlined the theories that won the award.

Democrats Support School Construction

SOL R. COHEN Herald Reporter The Manchester Democratic Town Committee Wednesday night endorsed the proposed $5.6 million school bond issue, adopted a six-point platform which stresses fiscal responsibility, and expressed support for the State of Israel in the current Middle East crisis.

The vote to endorse was on a motion by Judge of Probate William Fitzgerald, who called the proposal "a worthy program, which has been needed for a long time."

Support for the State of Israel was in a resolution adopted by a unanimous voice vote and offered by Sanford Pfeiffer.

Henry Becker, noting the Republican statements on ticket-splitting, remarked, "If they are encouraging ticket-splitting, they are not endorsing their own candidates."

Following the meeting, a social hour was held for about 100 party workers — non-committee members who have spent many hours on the campaign.
