Commission Favors Buying Salvation Army Campsite

MONICA SHEA Correspondent 742-9495

Conservation Commission has voted to recommend that the town purchase the seven acres of beachfront property which is now the Salvation Army campsite.

The Salvation Army has purchased 270 acres on North River Rd. and is planning to build a new camp there. The Army has given the town the right of first refusal on its present property.

The commission will also recommend that the Town Council seek assistance from the Soil Conservation Service to help solve an erosion problem at Pine Lake Shores. There is a gully there about 15 feet deep, 30 feet wide and 60 feet long that has been caused by the continual flow of water from a conduit pipe over the past three years.

Each of the area towns is allowed to seek assistance on two specific problems, and the commission has decided to confer with the Planning Zoning Commission and the town planning commission to design a town problems which could require such assistance.

The commission is seeking volunteers to serve on a "municipal response team" which will be ready to institute immediate action in event of an oil spill. This team will work within the framework of a contingency plan that has been drawn up by

The Water Compliance-Hazardous Substances division of the State Department of Environmental Protection to cover oil spills large and small. According to Mrs. Francis Pank, chairman of the commission, Coventry has already had three small spills, all resulting from burst underground gas lines.

The plan will be presented to the Town Council so that council members may help select a coordinator, preferably someone who will be available at all times. The commission will again collect glass on the town green for recycling Rts. 31 and 44, in the near future.

According to commission members the last recycling day was not very successful due to the lack of advertising. The Whirlways will celebrate their anniversary Sunday Oct. 28 with dancing from 7 to 10 at the Capt. Nathan Hale School. Tickets are available at the door and soft-soled shoes are required.

Gunmen Hold Hostages, Demand Arabs' Release

BEIRUT, Lebanon (AP) — Gunmen stormed a building housing several American and foreign banks today, seized up to 60 hostages, and threatened to kill them after a two-hour gunbattle in the heart of Beirut's financial district, police said.

The hostages, including foreigners, were trapped in the six-story building, which houses the Bank of America, Manufacturers Hanover Trust Co. of New York, the Deutschebank of West Germany and the Lebanese Banque de l'Industrie et du Travail. None of the hostages were identified.

The gunmen called themselves members of the "Lebanese Socialist Revolutionary Movement" and gave authorities a 6 p.m. local deadline — noon EDT — to meet three demands: — The release of all Palestinian guerrillas imprisoned in Lebanon. — A $10 million ransom from one or more of the besieged banks "to support the guerrilla movement and the Arab war effort against Israel."

The 13-day-old Middle East war also came home to Beirut with offshore explosions that cut an undersea cable linking Lebanon and Europe. Military sources said the five blasts were the work of Israeli frogmen.

Israel claimed it destroyed 90 to 100 Egyptian tanks in the crucial Sinai battle Wednesday along the Suez Canal. Egypt said the Israelis "suffered heavy losses in tanks and armored cars."

In the next day or so, we should be able to tell if this is the decisive battle," said an American official in Washington. "It looks as if it will come to a head soon," said Maj. Gen. Haim Herzog, former Israeli army intelligence chief and now top war commentator for the Israeli state radio.

The Israeli drive into Syria remained bogged down about 21 miles from Damascus and the Syrians claimed they knocked out seven Israeli tanks just after dawn "when our forces repelled an enemy attack on one of our forward positions."

Following the meeting, a social hour was held for about 100 party workers — non-committee members who have spent many hours on the campaign. Cummings explained, "This pre-election party is to express our appreciation to those who have come down night after night, to work for the Democratic cause. They have offered their services to combat our greatest enemy in this election — the apparent lack of interest among the voters of Manchester."

Partly cloudy tonight with the low 35 to 40. Partly sunny Friday with the high near 60. Precipitation probability 20 per cent tonight and 10 per cent Friday. Winds west to northwest 10 to 15 miles tonight and Friday.

Social Security

Q. I've been reading about a new program called Supplemental Security Income that the Social Security Administration is going to administer. I don't understand it. What is supplemental security income?

A. Basically, aged, blind, and disabled people with low or no income and resources will be assured a basic monthly income of at least $30 per month for an individual and $18 for a couple. An Amendment signed into law this year will raise the Federal amounts to $140 and $210 respectively, beginning July 1, 1974.

When you have 9 stores you really try harder to give service and customer satisfaction. Look at just a few of these wild bargains...

Table listing various appliances and their prices: FAMOUS BRAND COLOR TV $278, General Electric AIR CONDITIONER $98, General Electric 40" RANGE $239, MAGIC CHEF 30" GAS RANGE $158, FRIGIDAIRE 3-DOOR $479, FAMOUS BRAND COLOR TV $388, General Electric BUILT-IN OVEN $77, MAGNAVOX STEREO $198, G-E - WESTINGHOUSE HOOVER HUMIDIFIERS from $35, WHIRLPOOL HEAVY DUTY WASHER $178, ADMIRAL REFRIGERATOR $279, WESTINGHOUSE BUILT-IN DISHWASHER $168, MAGNAVOX PORTABLE TV $59.50, WEBCOR COMPONENTS $58, Whirlpool Custom BUILT-IN DISHWASHER $128, General Electric 30" RANGE $179

There are many examples of this and the following are but a few that are outstanding to me: 1. An extensive sidewalk construction program was submitted to the voters and was passed overwhelmingly at the Nov. 7, 1972 referendum. The approval to bond for sidewalks was a first for Manchester. However, the Democrats, knowing that they could do the work with revenue-sharing funds, did so and saved the town thousands of dollars in interest on bonds. Hartford Rd. and Keeney St. are only the beginning of a $200,000 construction plan to make for safer walking for young and old alike.

2. The rebuilding of the entrance to Charter Oak Park and the intersection of Spruce St. and Charter Oak St. was another first. Also passed overwhelmingly by the voters on Nov. 7, 1972. The people said go ahead and bond for these improvements. They also approved of the reconstruction of Hilliard St. by bonding. Again the Democratic majority wisely used existing revenue-sharing funds and resisted selling bonds, thus saving the taxpayers thousands of dollars more in interest payments. This is good business and appeals to me. All of the above represents approximately another $25,000 of work under way or planned.

3. The West Side Water Filter Plant was approved for remodeling by bonding on the same Nov. 7 vote. Although the estimate was low to do the job, the directors unanimously put up additional existing funds, in order to accomplish the long-overdue improvement for the West Side. I don't appreciate wrong, low estimates, but in this case the town could not turn its back on that.

No Winners In Mideast

No matter who "wins" the current Middle East war, both sides will have been losers when the last shot is fired in this most costly and bloody conflict of all those that have been waged in that part of the world over the past quarter-century.

They will have been losers not only in terms of lives lost and treasure expended, homes, buildings and industries destroyed. Future generations of Arabs and Israelis will bear a heavy burden of hatred and bitterness that will be the legacy of this war.

The war is an immense tragedy not just for the combatant nations. It is a tragedy for the entire world. It is, certainly, a tragedy for the United Nations, which more than ever has been revealed as inept and ineffective and hopelessly polarized ideologically.

It is difficult to understand the double standard exhibited by so many of the small countries which now make up the overwhelming majority in the U.N. They have consistently ignored Arab atrocities and provocations over the years and now condemn Israel for acting in its own defense against a massive and brutal attack that was preceded by mountains of Arab threats and repeated dedication to the total destruction of a nation the Arabs outnumber by 100 to one.

Possibly it is because Israel's strongest support has been from the former colonial powers of the West, and from the United States, whom the developing nations have become accustomed to blaming for their own deficiencies, even as the Arabs have always blamed everyone but themselves for their self-caused reverses.

If any people had cause to blame others for their woes, it is the Jews, for no people has been so persecuted and abused over the centuries as have the Jews.

But no people could be a better inspiration and model for the developing nations in the way they have taken a tiny land of few resources and made it bloom.

Yet today in the United Nations we see the spectacle of Russia, the nation which with the exception of Hitlerian Germany has historically been the greatest persecutor of the Jews, the nation which provided the Arabs with the means to launch this war, daring to vilify Israel with charges of "gangsterism."

And the small nations of Africa and Asia applaud the lies and the hypocrisy.

As for the Arabs, how has the existence of Israel ever been a threat to their interest? How would the obliteration of Israel solve their serious problems of poverty, overpopulation and economic and social stagnation?

Such thoughts, such questions make one despair for the sanity of this world.

Elusive Peace

All things are said to be relative. Peace, for example, depends upon where you are at a certain time.

Last week, President Richard Nixon made it a point to note that America was not involved in any wars with its fighting men.

This week the United States and Russia are in the depths of a struggle to re-arm and resupply the participants in the Middle East War.

And if peace is relative, consider the selection of Henry Kissinger and Le Duc Tho, to share the Nobel Peace Prize this year for their efforts to settle the Vietnam War. That war is settled as far as American involvement is concerned but North and South continue to exact tolls as the peace-making machinery has not been allowed to function freely as Kissinger had hoped and Le Duc Tho, at least in public, agreed to do.

While we don't quarrel with the Kissinger-Tho choice by the Norwegian committee we really wonder, peace being such a fragile and relative thing, if a prize should have been awarded at all this year due to the lack of peace in so many parts of the world.

To us, at least, a peace prize today seems out of context and out of time for true peace continues to elude us in too many places and in too many ways.

Hot Planes or Cold Homes

WASHINGTON — Private warnings have now been informally but forcefully delivered to the U.S. that if Israel is resupplied with F-4 Phantom aircraft and other heavy equipment, King Faisal of Saudi Arabia will feel compelled to cut off all oil to the U.S.

Thus, President Nixon may soon face an ugly choice posed by the Arab-Israeli war of 1973. If he approves replacement of the 40 to 60 jet aircraft believed lost by Israel, he risks a dangerous setback in his home-front energy battle to keep America warm this winter. If he disapproves, he risks greater Israeli casualties on the Sinai front and with them a sharp rise in anti-Nixon pressure from the powerful American-Jewish community.

That the threat of a Saudi-Arabian oil cutoff is real goes to what Middle Eastern experts feel is the Soviet Union's real hope from the current war: not so much a return to Egypt and Syria but radical nationalist revolutions in Saudi Arabia and lesser oil-rich kingdoms.

The aim will probably be advanced now mainly by the present war may finally end for Egypt and Syria. The result will be an increase in hatred for Washington among both Arab masses and Arab intellectuals.

That threatens King Faisal.

Furthermore, the hard choice between fighter planes for Israel or heating oil for American homes is made even worse for President Nixon by the split between the U.S. and Western Europe.

With Washington supporting Israel and its European allies moving closer to the Arab

'I Told You So'

WASHINGTON — He won't do it, because he's not that kind of a man — but former Secretary of State William P. Rogers would be justified if he reminded President Nixon, "I told you so" about Spiro Agnew.

Rogers was the only Republican with intimate access to Richard Nixon who questioned Nixon's choice of Agnew as his running mate in the 1968 campaign. Rogers, former Attorney General under Eisenhower, and a knowledgeable lawyer with prestigious political connections, had nothing against Agnew; he merely believed that too little was known about the then governor of Maryland.

At one of three meetings with leading Republicans after his nomination, Nixon brought up Agnew's name and indicated that he favored the Marylander for the number two spot. There was a discussion about Agnew's strength as a vote-getter and his assets as governor of a border state. But only Rogers wondered aloud whether the meeting knew enough about him.

Undoubtedly speaking from his background as Attorney General, Rogers remarked that playing politics in Maryland was a rough game, and urged an in-depth checkup on Agnew merely as a prudent formality. Nixon heard out Rogers, one of his oldest friends, and then did nothing. As one Republican put it after Agnew's resignation as Vice President: "Nixon wanted Agnew, he didn't want any horsing around."

Thus it is now clear that Nixon made the mistake that was to be repeated four years later by Sen. George McGovern and his staff when they cursory check on Sen. Thomas Eagleton failed to disclose that Eagleton had undergone shock treatments for depression. They only difference was that Agnew's troubles did not surface until he had served a full term plus eight months as Vice President.

It is true that in 1968 other Republican leaders privately

The Week Illusions Died

By Arthur Hoppe

"So," said the young man with a shrug, "what can I do about it?" How sad it was.

Watergate, Israel, Agnew — what could he do about it? What could any of us do? How sad it was.

It seems only yesterday that the young were marching, chanting, throwing rocks and smashing windows under the illusion they could build a better world overnight. And when that illusion slowly died, they turned inward on themselves.

"Oh, they still want to help their fellow man," said the university president at a dinner party, smiling wryly, but now they've all decided to become doctors so they can become rich and respectable while doing it." How sad that is.

It is always sad when illusions die. And last week was the saddest I remember. Two of the things I most treasure in this world are Israel and our own democracy.

I shared with the Israelis the illusion of their invincibility. And I shared with many Americans the illusion of our democracy's immutability. Last week proved the Israelis were far from invincible. And last week proved the Vice President of the United States was a crook.

"So everybody knows there are a lot of crooks in Washington," said the uncaring young man. "So one finally got caught. So what?"

How sad that is. For any democracy survives on faith alone. And if the next generation has lost faith... How sad that is.

All through the long week, images from out of the past came floating through my mind. Standing on the rocky, arid Golan Heights after the Six Day War looking down on the Syrian plains below. Two young Israeli soldiers — cocky and funny as are so many Israelis — laughing about how they'd captured a Syrian tank in the recent fighting and, not having time to disarm the crew, simply gave the Syrian tank com-

U.S. Makes Loan SAIGON (AP) - The United States advanced $5.9 million to the International Commission of Control and Supervision today to keep the Vietnam peacekeeping force from being grounded. Air America, the charter airline that ferries ICCS personnel around the country, has not been paid for months and gave the commission until Friday to pay its $46,000 bill of about $50,000. The four signers of the Vietnam peace agreement - the United States, North Vietnam, South Vietnam and the Viet Cong - have not agreed on a budget for the ICCS, and it is about $8 million in the red.

Hi Neighbor!

When we got our Xmas stock out this week someone commented on how efficient, timely, and how early we were. I am sorry to admit that we're not any of those things. It's just that, in our usual fashion, we're quite late for last Xmas. When you can't be a model of good planning, you must be crafty and sly enough, and delay long enough, so your wife thinks you're working at top speed. I hope she doesn't find out I'm a year behind.

Many of you know we have Xmas goods out peddling, so I won't repeat myself, but I want to add that the largest array of toys, ornaments, lights and trimmings we've ever had. We've even got gift stockings for your dog. Come see! All at half price or less!

Also, lots more has been going on here at the Emporium. A large New London general store gave up business and we bought the place, lock, stock and barrel. I still don't know what's in the stock or how much of it we'll have out this weekend, but there's several truckloads.

And, a new lot of imported all wool Rya rugs, very colorful and priced far below what the stores get. (2 sizes) and more school supplies, holiday cups, table covers, paper napkins and greeting cards. Several grocery items like mushrooms, dog foods, Peanut-O's, codfish fillets, Jello 1-2-3, tea bags, french dressing, etc.

Plus disposable diapers, carpet, sheets & towels, paint, records and tapes, school supplies, pine furniture, bedding, and hundred of things I can't even remember, all at less than dealers themselves pay.

So come visit and enjoy the delicious complimentary coffee while you look. We'll really enjoy seeing you. Remember that we sell with a real "no-hard-time" money back guarantee if your purchase does not please you in every way. And my wife says, "Don't forget your wallet!"

Vernon Notes

At a special voter-making session last Saturday, 201 new names were placed on the voting list but the list is smaller than it has been in seven years. The total number of voters dropped 14,200 to 13,140 and the registrars attribute most of the losses to the fact there is a turnover of apartment dwellers with many moving out-of-town. The majority of the voters are unaffiliated. They total 6,834 while there are 2,823 registered Republicans and 3,783 registered Democrats.

Saturday's voter-making session was the last regular one before the Nov. 6 elections. On Nov. 5, there will be a special session for those qualified persons who become 18 years of age between last Saturday and election day or those who acquire citizenship papers during that time. A special session for these persons will be held Nov. 5.

Woman Hijacks Plane MARSEILLE, France (AP) - An armed woman hijacked an Air France jet from Paris to Marseille today, let the 110 passengers off, but detained the pilot and chief steward aboard, the company reported. The plane, a Boeing 727, was on a flight from Paris to Nice. Marseille is 400 miles south-southeast of Paris and 100 miles west of Nice.

Bolton School Census Below Estimate

DOONNA HOLLAND Co-sponsor Tel. 646-9375 Total enrollment figures at the Bolton schools have dropped since last year and are below estimates for this year. For the month of October the elementary school had actual enrollment of 345 compared with 369 for October 1972; the center school had 317 compared with 313 and the high school had 267 compared with 301.

Using 950 students at the estimate for revenue purposes when setting up the 1974-75 budget and providing the state aid formula does not change, Bolton will receive $1,000 less in aid next year. To further compound the per pupil cost it appears that the schools will still need the same staff unless school principals can come up with a revised pattern that is not apparent to Dr. Joseph Castagna, school superintendent, according to a report from him.

Schedules Changed John Flek and Jeffrey Heintz, guidance counselors, have processed a total of 175 schedule changes for local school students as of Sept. 28. Many of the changes will affect all seven periods of a student's schedule. Flek said that for the size of the school the number of changes is totally out of proportion, and a disproportionate amount of time spent by the counselors, clerical staff and principal in processing the changes.

Speech Hearing Screening Kofi has completed screening of all kindergarten and Grade 1 children. In the future the speech and hearing screening will be done on kindergarten students in order that screening for problems be done at the beginning of children's school careers rather than in the second year.

Learning Disabilities Mrs. Pania and Miss Koening have begun their program which, from present indications might well exceed a few months the state recommended maximum of 30 students for a full-time learning disabilities teacher.

Budget Calendar The tentative budget calendar for 1974-75 has been approved by the school board. The Board of Finance will be invited to attend or have a representative all budget sessions.

Appointment Ratified The Board of Education will meet Thursday at 8 p.m. in the Center School Library to ratify the appointment of a new superintendent for Bolton schools.

Coventry Motycka Says Change Master Plan

John Motycka, Republican candidate for the Coventry Town Council, recently stated his position on a complete updating of a master plan for Coventry. Motycka stated that because an effective master plan does not exist for Coventry, townspeople have little or no say in the future growth and development of their town. Motycka proposed that following a complete updating of Coventry's outdated plan, it be widely publicized and put into use.

The candidate advocated that while a full-time professional planner is recommended to write the updated plan, it is imperative that the goals defined in the plan accurately reflect the wishes of the current town residents. Thus, the first job of the town planner would be to research the opinions of the townspeople and to find out exactly what kind of town they want Coventry to be in the future. Formation of the final master plan would then follow with public input and approval of a continuing process.

Once the plan is completed, it should immediately become a basis for decision making within the town. Every private development proposal or municipal expansion project would be elevated in terms of the master plan. The master plan would govern if a proposal or action is concurrent with the overall goals of Coventry. If the proposal or action does not follow the plan or proves to be a stop gap measure that may have to be redone or scrapped in a few years, it would not be approved, he said.

Motycka added that it is obvious to everyone that Coventry is at a critical crossroad in its future way of life, with large scale development being anticipated for the town. The people who live here today are the ones who have the responsibility to themselves and their families to plan and do the right thing for Coventry's future way of life, he concluded.

Recalling the history of the famed temperance organization, as it moves into its hundredth year of national service, Mrs. Toose declared "At the inception of our organization in 1874, we adopted a Declaration of Principles among which were stated 'We believe in one standard of purity for both men and women, and in the equal right of all to hold opinions, and to express the same with equal freedom. We believe in a living wage; in an eight hour day; in courts of conciliation and arbitration; in justice as opposed to greed and gain; and in peace on earth, good will to men.'"

From Your Neighbor's Kitchen

By Vivian F. Ferguson

For many years, I have been trying to make Apple Brown Betty as I remembered it as a very young child. Someone had brought the dessert to my Aunt Emma Paro's house and I can no longer remember whose it was.

Apple Brown Betty, I thought, was an odd name and why didn't they call it brown apple betty and who is Betty anyway? The dictionary says "betty" is a dessert so that was no help.

A search of old recipes finds that they are all different. It is at the cook's discretion and everyone had his own touch, even to the flavoring. While writing a previous column, the combination I sought came to me. I had been telling you how to make "soft" bread crumbs with your leftover bread and rolls, putting them through the blender. It occurred to me that the old recipe call for "course" breadcrumbs.

In the early days of our country, everyone made his own crumbs. I also thought it could be done without toasting the crumbs.

If you keep apples in the house all the time I do, apple brown betty is an easy dessert to prepare for unexpected guests. You can make the breadcrumbs in no time. It doesn't make a bad breakfast next morning for the young child who wants to go to school without eating.

Many times you will find that an apple with a mark or one whose skin is a little wrinkled will go wanting. This is the time to make apple sauce or a brown betty.

When I make apple sauce, I core the apples, leave the skins on, put only enough water so the apples don't stick, cover the pan and cook until the apples are cooked down and softened. I then put them through the food mill, season with sugar (brown, especially the dark, is nice), cinnamon, nutmeg. Let the children have it warm and reheat it for breakfast, dessert or to accompany a pork roast or chops. A nice healthy after-school snack, too.

Vivian's Apple Brown Betty 3 cups "soft" breadcrumbs made from one or two-day old bread or rolls 3 very large apples or more as needed 1-2 cups sugar, depending on taste and apples 1/2 teaspoon each nutmeg and cinnamon (or to taste) 1/2 to 1 stick butter, melted, depending on size of crumbs Optional: lemon juice or light to medium rum

Mix bread crumbs, sugar and seasonings together. Melt butter and add enough just to hold crumbs together. Butter any overproof dish. Cover bottom with a layer of the crumb mixture.

Peel and core apples. Slice thinly and completely cover crumbs. Sprinkle with lemon juice or rum, if desired. Make another layer of crumbs, bottom of apples. You should have at least two layers of apples and three of crumbs. Bake 30-40 minutes at 350-375 until apples are tender and top is lightly browned. Serve hot or cold with sweetened whipped cream to which a little vanilla or rum has been added.

Some recipes call for dry crumbs. Unfortunately, they brown before the apples are cooked. To my mind, there is nothing better than freshly grated nutmeg. It is well worth the price and keeps much better than the powdered variety. Don't throw away a nutmeg you have only partially used. Put it back in the jar and screw the cover tightly.

This dish is excellent made with fresh peaches. When my husband asked what was, I replied, "Well, you've heard of apple brown betty. This is sweet Georgia brown." I think you might try it with canned peaches or with cranberries, in which case you might have to cook the cranberries first and you will need more sugar.

Manchester's new Board of Directors will be sworn-in Nov. 13 when it will name its chairman (mayor), vice chairman and secretary. Its first business meeting will be the next day, Nov. 20.

It is traditional for the mayor to be the highest vote-getter of the majority party. Although not required, in the town charter or out, the practice has been followed, as far as can be determined, by every board since 1847.

The Civilian Club of Manchester had scheduled a panel discussion of the Nov. 6 election for its luncheon meeting last Tuesday.

Democratic Town Chairman Raymond Damato, chairman of the Committee to Re-Elect John Tani to the Board of Directors, has added the following to his committee: Joseph Czerwinski, Paul Rosetto, Hugh Ward, John Hutchinson, Henrietta Ruff and Gerald Rothman. All but the last two are members of the Democratic Town Committee.

Famous U.S. Women Ski Team Diet

During the non-snow off season the U.S. Women's Alpine Ski Team members go on the "Ski Team Diet" to lose 20 pounds in two weeks. That's right — 20 pounds in 14 days! The basis of the diet is chemical food action and was devised by a famous Colorado physician especially for the U.S. Ski Team. Normal energy is maintained (very important!) while reducing. You keep "full" — no starvation — because the diet is designed that way. It's a diet that is easy to follow whether you work, travel or stay at home. (Not the grapefruit diet!) This is, honestly, a fantastically successful diet. If it weren't the U.S. Women's Ski Team wouldn't be permitted to use it! Right? So, give yourself the same break the U.S. Ski Team gets. Lose weight the scientific, proven way. Even if you've tried all the other diets, you owe it to yourself to try the U.S. Women's Ski Team Diet. That is, if you really do want to lose 20 pounds in two weeks. Order today. Tear this out as a reminder. Send only $2.00 (2.25 for Rush Service) — cash is O.K. — to: NOR-CAL Products, P.O. Box 894, Cupertino, CA. 95014. Don't order unless you want to lose 20 pounds in two weeks! Because that's what the Ski Team Diet will do. ©1972

'Thanks to You, It's Working'

As a result of recently enlarged facilities and increased services and programs at the Community Child Guidance Clinic, 317 N. Main St., three graduate students and a social work aide have been accepted at the clinic for the 1973-74 year. From left to right, Mrs. Joan Lingard of 28 Woodbridge St., Mrs. Barbara Jory of Storrs, and Richard Singleton of Andover, all graduate students from the University of Connecticut School of Social Work, are checking records with Mrs. Joanne Mikoleit of 338 Lydall St., the aide from Manchester Community College. The interns will be under the supervision of Clifford Johnson, ACSW, of Coventry, psychiatric social worker at the clinic. Mrs. Mikoleit will be in training under the direction of Mrs. Alice McE. ACSW, of Andover, the clinic's chief psychiatric social worker. The United Way has enabled the Community Child Guidance Clinic to offer more services to the 11 communities served by the clinic. A recently completed addition to the clinic has made it possible and necessary to increase the secretarial staff by three additional secretaries. The enlarged facilities include rooms for play therapy and group therapy, a conference room, a reception room and two secretarial offices. "Thanks to you, it's working." (Herald photo by Otiara)

Judge Rules Killian Need Not Testify In Oil Firm Case

HARTFORD (AP) — A federal judge has ruled that Connecticut's attorney general will not have to appear in person to answer questions from major oil companies about his affiliation with a gasoline retailers association.

U.S. District Judge T. Emmet Clarke Tuesday ordered that the oil company questions be submitted to Atty. Gen. Robert Killian in writing. Killian is presiding a state antitrust suit against 23 major oil companies. The suit claims that the companies conspired to create a gasoline shortage which is putting independent oil and gasoline dealers out of business.

In a preliminary hearing on the oil companies' subpoena request Monday, Judge Clarke said public officials will be discouraged in pursuing the public interest if forced to testify personally in every instance.

Commenting after the decision, Killian said, "I think they had some interest in trying to intimidate me and of course it won't work, it didn't work, and it will never work."

Author Says Russia Is Punishing People
WEST HARTFORD (AP) — A survivor of Nazi concentration camps and an author of books on Soviet Jewry says Russia is sending arms to Arab nations to punish Israel.

Killian also is tangling with the oil companies in another law suit over price increases and the constitutionality of a state petroleum price control commission.

Referendum Questions

When Manchester voters go to the polls Nov. 6, they will be faced with 13 referendum questions — the first on a proposed $5.6 million appropriation for additions and improvements to Bennett and Lilling Junior Highs, the other 12 on proposed charter changes. Because of the lack of sufficient space on the voting machines, the language of the 13 questions is minimal and limited. Below are the 13 questions and the exact language for each as they will appear on the machines. Following each question is The Herald's explanation.

Question 1 — For an appropriation of $5,000,000 for additions and renovations of Bennett and Lilling Junior High Schools.

Columbia CTA, Board Settle

VIRGINIA CARLSON, Correspondent
Tel. 228-9224
Gary Vause, attorney for the school board, has obtained a settlement between the Columbia Teachers' Association (CTA) and the school board, according to Albert Hadjian, chairman of the negotiations subcommittee.

The basic aspects are included in a two-year contract, the first time there has been one, with a financial package stipulating increments of $30 plus $150 across-the-board, or a $500 raise the first year. The second year will be the $30 increment plus $200, making the raise $550.

Although the whole board is in agreement, Hadjian said, he added if residents wish to oppose the settlement they can, by law, do so after it is approved.

"We have a tentative schedule in which we will view the final agreement between the CTA and the board on Oct. 25, with board action to take place Nov. 5," Hadjian said.

He added the contract will go into effect after 30 days if the town does not wish to contest the agreement.

Mrs. Harriet Rosen, board member, said the board is pleased to have a two-year contract, since there will be a substantial savings as far as negotiating fees are concerned.

In other business, the board is re-evaluating the contract for Windham High School, according to Supt. Clarence Edmondson. It was a ten-year contract, renewable in five years and signed in 1959.

"In the light of the difficulties our students are experiencing in Windham, it might be advisable for the board to consider the possibility of keeping the ninth graders in Columbia an additional year and sending them the tenth, eleventh and twelfth year," he said.

Mrs. Ellen Hiller asked if the town could offer the various courses that Windham has. Edmondson said he was not recommending this but the general concept might have some merit.

"We don't have the facilities nor the breadth of program," Edmondson agreed, "but we have some other things that may be equally desirable."

Mrs. Rosen said the local school should provide the student with better background and better ways of meeting some of the problems they may face. She felt the possibility of keeping the students in Columbia another year would be filled with enormous problems.

The matter was discussed further in executive session.
