

Sgt. Minor Goes To FBI Academy

Sgt. Henry R. Minor of the Manchester Police Department will attend the 90th session of the Federal Bureau of Investigation Academy in Quantico, Va., according to an announcement by Police Chief James Reardon.

Sgt. Henry R. Minor, according to an announcement by Police Chief James Reardon. The session will run from Sept. 16 to Dec. 5 and is an intensive program designed to develop executive potential in law enforcement officers.

Minor joined the local department as a patrolman Sept. 4, 1960 and became a detective Jan. 9, 1972. He was promoted to sergeant Sept. 24, 1972 and works with the patrol.

He holds an associate degree from Manchester Community College. He is married to the former Donna Marston and they have two sons.

Sgt. Minor is only the fourth local man to attend the FBI Academy. The first was Joseph A. Prouty in 1970. Lt. Robert Lannan next attended the 91st session (finishing Dec. 15, 1972). Sgt. Richard Sartor was the third man and he finished Sept. 14, 1973.

Utilities Report On Big Storm

HARTFORD (UPI) — Connecticut's worst ice storm in 100 years was so devastating and widespread, utility companies were unable to determine where to begin a Public Utilities Commission report says.

The report said that 319,500 customers were without electric power at the height of the week-long storm that began Dec. 16 with "extreme rainfall, sleet and snow."

The storm and resulting damage was "far greater than anyone anticipated" and utility companies had difficulty in deciding where to begin repair efforts, according to the report drafted by David C. London, chief of the commission's engineering staff.

After the first few days, with power still out in thousands of homes, customers and town officials began complaining to the

Benna Teachers Retiring

Alan Cone, principal at Benna Junior High School, honors three retiring teachers from the school staff at a banquet held in their honor Wednesday at Willie's Steak House.

From left, the teachers are Miss Isabelle Reagan, Mrs. Nedra Miller and Mrs. Marion Cook. Miss Regan has taught home economics 26 years in Manchester. Mrs.

Miller has completed 19 years with the Manchester school system teaching English and social studies, 18 of them at Benna. Mrs. Cook, also a home economics teacher, substituted at Benna for seven years before receiving a full-time appointment and has served 11 years with the school system. (Herald photo by Dunn)

Ford Vows He's His 'Own Man'

LOGAN, Utah (UPI) — Vice President Gerald R. Ford today defended his nationwide speaking trips and his on-and-off support of President Nixon on Watergate — vowing to "remain my own man."

Ford said his trips, which have taken him to 34 states in his six months as vice president, and his views on Watergate have brought warnings from his friends and even his family.

"So long as I have the physical capability and so long as I can contribute to the climate of reason and truth in this country, I will remain my own man, fly my own course, and speak my own convictions."

"I like to listen to Americans — and hope to in every one of our 50 states. I categorically reject the demand that I listen only to the strident voices on the banks of the Potomac. I am not going to be carried away by a sudden flood of fire because I suddenly find myself bearing heavier burdens of official duties and potential responsibilities."

Nixon Position Irritates Judge

WASHINGTON (UPI) — A federal judge has accused President Nixon of a policy of obstruction of justice in connection with defense efforts of his former No. 2 aide who faces trial.

"So you are saying he will not comply with the court's order?" Judge Gesell asked. "Since you ask a direct question, I will give you a direct answer. I think that's a fair reading," St. Clair replied.

Guerrilla Team Wiped Out

United Press International An Israeli patrol wiped out a four-man Arab guerrilla infiltrator team early today in a shootout near the Lebanese frontier, the military command in Tel Aviv said.

"I assume Mr. Frates (Ehrlichman's lawyer, William Frates) sits in a car outside the White House while this man (Ehrlichman) has to run back and forth and try to recall what he has just seen. It's absurd and I don't see how I can tolerate it. I am astounded."

The gun battle came as Israeli units on the Golan Heights were in the process of turning over to Syrian control the first parcels of land captured from Syria during the October war.

Tornado Toll Set at Four

FORREST CITY, Ark. (UPI) — Law enforcement authorities were optimistic the death toll from a tornado that flattened much of this Mississippi Delta town Thursday will hold at four.

"We didn't find any more bodies," Steve Davis, a radio operator for the Forrest City police department, said Friday night. "We went through it (the wreckage) pretty good today, there is a possibility that we'll find more bodies, but I really doubt it. We have no reports whatsoever of anybody missing."

The tornado killed two persons in a Gibson's Discount Center and two persons in their homes. More than 100 persons were injured and the number of homeless was placed at 2,500.

Arkansas State Police identified the dead as Louise Jean Smith, 17, and Inez Speers, 19, who were found in the discount store, and Johnny Davis, 72, and Harvey Hampton Sr., who were found dead in their homes. All four were Forrest City residents.

President Prepares for Tour

WASHINGTON (UPI) — With only two days before his departure for the Middle East, President Nixon remained at Camp David today to study official briefing papers and get in a little relaxation with his family.

Aides said Nixon, at the Maryland mountain top retreat since Thursday, turned his full attention to preparation for the journey so that he could make the most of his upcoming talks with leaders of Egypt, Saudi Arabia, Israel, Jordan and Syria.

Some other aides acknowledged privately that Nixon is counting on the Middle East trip, along with the Soviet summit conference starting June 27 in Moscow, to help him counter the threat of impeachment by strengthening his image as a world statesman.

Even as he worked at Camp David, Nixon's press spokesman and his chief Watergate lawyer sought to minimize the significance of disclosure that a federal grand jury had voted three months ago to name the President an unindicted conspirator in efforts to cover up the scandal.

Youth Job Market Tight

WASHINGTON (UPI) — A sharp uptick in teen-age unemployment in May could signal some tough job competition, if not a workless summer, for many American youngsters, according to top government economists.

The teen-age unemployment rate in May was 15.8 per cent, compared to a 13.8 per cent rate in April. The unemployment data for black youths for May showed a 33.5 per cent rate, more than twice the white teen-age rate.

Nader, in a letter to committee chairman Henry M. Jackson, D-Wash., said that when the Cost of Living Council approved a $1-a-barrel increase in domestic oil prices last December, the CLC staff opposed the increase.

Killian Still In the Race

NEW MILFORD (UPI) — Attorney General Robert K. Killian has vowed to remain a candidate for the Democratic gubernatorial nomination despite suggestions he bow to Rep. Ella T. Grasso, D-Conn., and accept a lower spot on the party ticket.
Killian's statement Friday night ended weeks of speculation about his political future that began May 23 when he lost a crucial pre-convention primary in his hometown of Hartford to Mrs. Grasso.
"There have been suggestions that I gracefully withdraw and accept some spot other than governor on the ticket this fall," Killian told a Democratic regional forum.
"My answer—my absolute and irrevocable answer—is no," he said in a prepared statement.
The attorney general did not say in his statement whether he would enter a statewide primary if he were denied the party endorsement but got 20 per cent of the 1,213 convention delegates necessary to wage a primary.
He said there were several reasons for his decision to remain in the race despite the virtual certainty Grasso will win endorsement at the party convention in July.
"One is that the Hartford primary, in which I was supposed to lose by a margin of better than 2 to 1, I actually obtained some 45 per cent of the vote, despite overwhelming odds, despite town Chairman

Nick Carbone and the entire city Democratic organization and despite widely proclaimed opposition—not from the people but from bosses—elsewhere in the state."
He cited as another reason the "unsolicited support that has come to me during the last couple of weeks from loyal friends in every quarter of Connecticut."
Other reasons, he said, were his record compiled as the elected attorney general and his 1970 victory when the Republicans won the governorship over Democratic candidate Emilio Q. Daddario.
Killian also challenged all gubernatorial candidates to make full disclosure of all campaign contributions, as he said he has done.

Hesketh Charged in Fatality

James P. Hesketh, 18, of 141 W. Center St., was charged Friday afternoon with negligent homicide in connection with a May 17 auto accident which killed Robert L. Lessard, 17, of 169 Lyness St., Manchester Police said.
The charge was lodged via a Circuit Court 12 arrest warrant when Hesketh surrendered himself at police headquarters. He was released on his written promise to appear in court June 24.
Police said Hesketh was the driver of a car which crashed head-on into a car driven by Susan Cooper, 23, of 829 Main St., on Spencer St. near the Squire Village apartment complex at 8:40 p.m. May 17.
Lessard, a passenger in Hesketh's car, died at Manchester Memorial Hospital shortly after firemen and ambulance attendants sawed and cut the vehicle to free him.
Both Hesketh and Miss Cooper received hospital treatment for injuries suffered in the crash.
Police said Hesketh's car was seen violating a red light at Spencer and W. Center Sts. just before the accident, and police alleged that he was driving at excessive rates of speed when the car went out of control and hit the Cooper vehicle head-on.
Police said Hesketh was apparently in pursuit of another vehicle which was not identified.

Lessard, a member of the soccer and track teams at Manchester's East Catholic High School, was an appointee to the U.S. Air Force Academy. Hesketh, also an East Catholic student, was a track team member and co-captain of the wrestling team.

Streaker Eludes Police

MANCHESTER
A Manchester Police search for a streaker who jogged up and down Fairfield St. ended unsuccessfully Friday night, when the streaker disappeared after entering a local cafe.
Police said the streaker — white male, age about 20, 5-foot-10, 150 pounds, wearing only long hair — was seen at about 6:30 p.m. jogging up and down Fairfield St. between Hartford Rd. and Cooper Hill St.
Patrolman Richard Rand, called to the Hartford Road Cafe at 378 Hartford Rd. on reports that the streaker entered the establishment, was unable to locate the man. "I went into the cafe," Rand said, "but twinkle-toes had disappeared."
Patrons of the cafe told police the streaker had downed two to three beers before shedding his clothes in the cafe's rest room. When he returned from the jant, he again donned his clothes and left through a rear door of the cafe, police said.

Wayne R. Wierzbicki, 19, of 103 Greenwood Dr., was charged Friday night with illegal cultivation of marijuana and illegal possession of a controlled substance, police said.
Wierzbicki's arrest, made on a Circuit Court 12 warrant, stems from a recent search of his home, police said.
He was released on a $1,000 non-surety bond for court appearance June 24.

Police issued speeding summonses to five motorists this morning, after several unrelated violations occurred between midnight and 8 a.m.
The alleged speeding violations occurred on E. Center St., Spruce St., and Autumn St., police said. The accused motorists were summoned to appear in court June 24.

Charged were Yvonne M. Wirtalla, 49, of 85 Lydall St.; Richard W. Baker, 26, of 19 Lewis St.; Gary R. Schaefer, 18, of 127 Vernon St.; Christopher R. Anderson, 22, of Glastonbury; and Jay L.

Griswold, 21, of Rt. 31, Coventry.

An unidentified youth attending a dance at Manchester's Bennet Junior High School Friday night was taken to Manchester Memorial Hospital after he was found in an intoxicated condition, police said.
The boy was found by school officials, "passed out" in a hallway, at about 10:30 p.m., police said. He received emergency room treatment and was admitted overnight for observation.

In other Manchester Police reports:
Dorothy P. Thompson, 44, of 18 Walnut Dr., Hebron, was treated at Manchester Memorial Hospital after a two-car crash at Washington and Summit Sts. Friday afternoon. Her car was in collision with a vehicle operated by Joan A. Covensky, 16, of South Windsor, police said.
Cars driven by Richard T. Scofield, 25, of Pensacola, Fla., were in collision Friday afternoon on Broad St. near the Parkade, police said. Scofield received treatment for minor injuries.

* Roger J. Michaud, 16, of 442 W. Middle Tpk., was charged Friday night with operating an unregistered motor vehicle and operating without a license on Woodland St. Court date is June 24.

* Alan W. Ray, 23, of Glastonbury, was charged Friday afternoon with reckless driving at Union and Kerry Sts. Court date is June 17.

* A seven-month-old Golden Retriever, reported stolen Thursday from a parked car off Spencer St., has been recovered by police and returned to its owner, John Krakauske of Andover.

* Cash totaling more than $140 was stolen in a break into the 261 Spruce St. home of Henry Matson, police learned Friday.

Miss Dellafera is employed in the General Counsel's office of Health, Education and Welfare in Washington.
She is a 1966 graduate of Manchester High School, LaSalle College in 1968, Wheaton College in 1970, and Georgetown Law School in 1973.

'Suspicious' Fire Causes Minor Damage

A "suspicious" fire in the Carlson Express Co. building, 75 Hilliard St. was confined to a small pile of papers and caused only minor damage Friday morning, Manchester Police and Eighth District firemen said today.

The fire, reported at 11:30 a.m., was in the northeast corner of the warehouse building, which is among several buildings in the former Bon Ami Manufacturing Co. complex.

Manchester Eighth District Fire Chief Ted Lingard told police the small blaze, which was apparently controlled by the building sprinkler system, probably started from something being thrown into the building through a broken window.
The fire was similar to several recent fires of a suspicious nature in the same building, firemen said.

Whooooooooooooo! Tracks Are Back!

There's an extra thrill to eating in a dining car while the towns whizz by! Many dining cars offer children's meals at reasonable prices.

In a bedroom, a hostess tucks a young passenger in while her brother looks down from the bunk above. The guard strap will keep him from rolling out during the night.

Automatic signals along the tracks serve as traffic lights for engineers.

Our country's passenger trains nearly went out of business because people chose other forms of transportation. Today, trains are trying for a comeback!

In 1929, there were about 20,000 passenger trains in this country. By 1970, the number had dropped to 450.

The private car had become the favorite way to travel between cities. Airlines and buses also grabbed the passenger business.

Due to the fuel shortage, air and noise pollution, crowded highways and airports, there is an increasing demand for mass transit by train.

In 1970, Congress set up a new business called "Amtrak." With the help of government money, Amtrak manages a nationwide railway system available to 87% of the population. Private railroad companies, under contract to Amtrak, help run the trains. Most of the people who work on the train work for Amtrak, while others, such as the conductor and engineer, work for the railroad company who owns the tracks.

Amtrak is trying to improve the equipment, routes, schedules and services on trains. Progress has been slow. Some trains break down and run behind schedule. It is going to take money and time to build up our passenger rail service.

Many children like to travel by train because they can move about and don't have to stay strapped into a seat. However, it's best not to go from car to car unless an adult is with you.

Some trains are offering entertainment, such as movies, TV and bingo to help the miles fly by.

Many trains have hostesses who go from car to car playing games with passengers. Hostesses are not baby sitters, so take along your favorite book or game.

For most children, going by train is a new and different way to travel. It's fun to hear the clack, clack of the wheels on tracks and to look out the window and watch the world flash by.

The Workers on a Train

A conductor, like the one above, takes up tickets and is in charge of the safety of the train. He is the first one off the train when it pulls into a station.

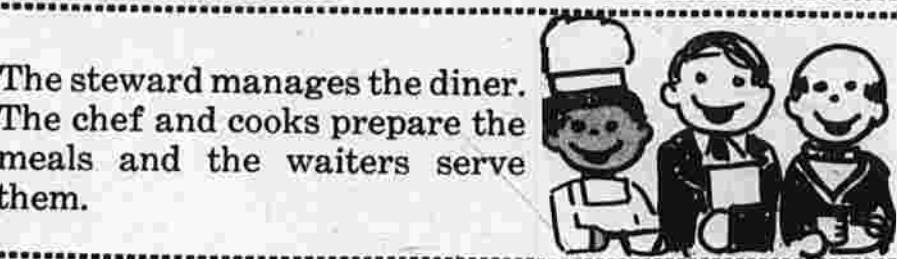

A service director may be on your train. He is in charge of most of the crew and the passengers.

The trainman, or flagman, helps the conductor. He carries a two-way-radio and keeps in touch with the engineer.

Passenger service representatives answer questions and organize entertainment.

The steward manages the diner. The chef and cooks prepare the meals and the waiters serve them.

Attendants work in the coaches and snack bars. They help with the seating arrangements. The porter is in charge of sleeping cars.

Engineers and firemen run the train. The baggage master looks after the luggage if there is a baggage car.

Super Sport: Fred Patek

Fred Patek is five feet, four inches tall and weighs only 140 pounds. But he is a big man in the Kansas City Royals baseball plans. Fred is a sharp fielding shortstop with a rifle arm. He also is a pesky hitter. Patek, who wears jersey No. 37, played with the Pittsburgh Pirates for three years before joining Kansas City in 1971. He was born in Oklahoma City, but now lives with his wife (Jerri) and two daughters in Blue Springs, Mo.

What you'll need:

- 1 pound of ground beef
- 3 tablespoons chopped onions
- $\frac{1}{2}$ teaspoon salt
- $\frac{1}{8}$ teaspoon pepper
- hot dog rolls

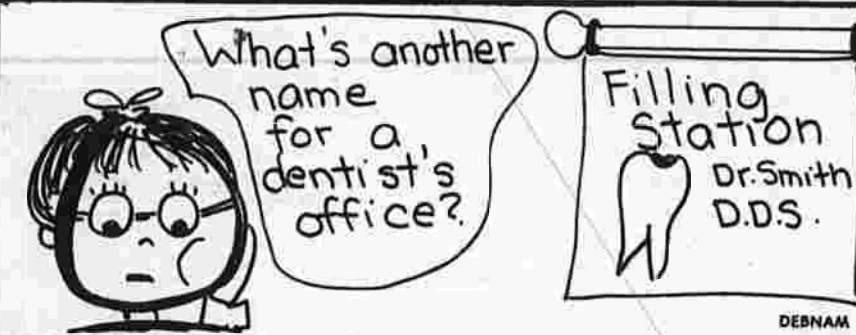

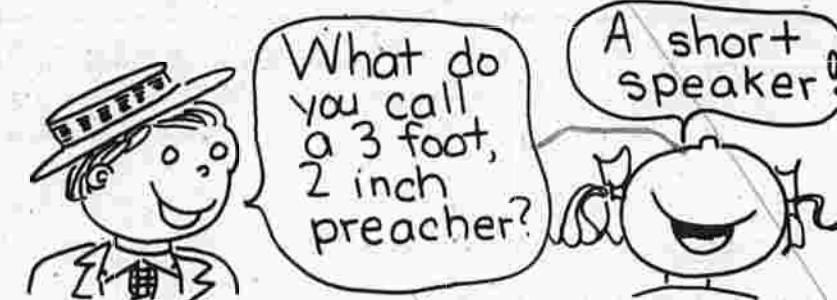

What to do:

1. Mix beef, onions, salt, pepper. Make beef into long, log shapes so meat will fit into a hot dog roll.
2. Broil them in the oven or fry in a pan, or cook on an outdoor grill.

New Stamp Honors Kentucky

A new stamp, to be issued June 15, will honor the 200th anniversary of the settling of Kentucky. The first settlement was at Fort Harrod, which developed into the town of Harrodsburg.

James Harrod and 32 of his men paddled canoes down the Ohio River and up the Kentucky River to the spot they picked to build a fort. Wives and children arrived in 1775.

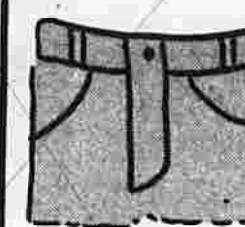

The fort and settlement served as a safe base for Daniel Boone and others exploring the territory.

Mini Do: Jean Bag

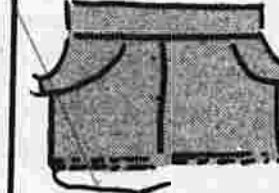

You'll need:

- An old pair of jeans
- thread
- scissors
- belt with a buckle

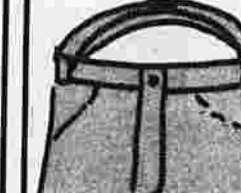

What to do:

1. Cut the legs of your jeans, just below the zipper.

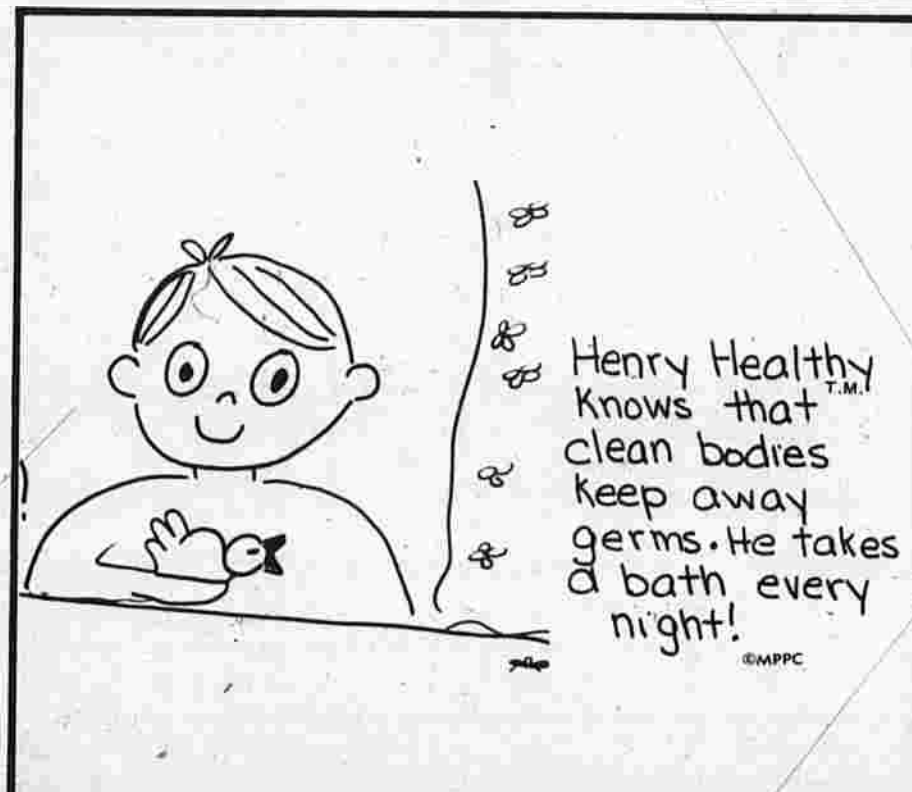

2. Turn the top wrong side out and stitch along the cut. Do this several times to make certain it will hold.

3. Turn right side out. Run a belt through two belt loops to use as a strap.
