Milk Lawyer Admits Bribe Of Connally

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Jake Jacobsen, a former lawyer for the nation's largest milk producers' cooperative, pleaded guilty today to a charge that he gave former Treasury Secretary John B. Connally a $10,000 bribe. In entering the plea, Jacobsen agreed to testify against Connally.

Both Jacobsen and Connally were indicted by a federal grand jury July 29 on charges growing out of Connally's role in a 1971 decision by President Nixon to increase federal price support for raw milk after the milk producers pledged $2 million to Nixon's re-election campaign.

Jacobsen, 54, of Austin, Tex., pleaded guilty to one count of making a bribe. Chief U.S. District Court Judge George L. Hart Jr. then released him to the custody of his attorneys.

Jacobsen faces a maximum penalty of two years in prison and a $10,000 fine.

In exchange for the guilty plea on the bribery charge, Deputy Special Prosecutor Henry Ruth dropped other charges against Jacobsen, including an indictment filed in U.S. District Court in San Angelo, Tex.

Connally, a long-time Texas associate of Jacobsen, will be arraigned Friday. He is charged with a total of five counts of accepting bribes, conspiracy and lying to the grand jury. If convicted, Connally would face a maximum penalty of 19 years imprisonment and a $50,000 fine.

Jacobsen pleaded guilty to giving Connally what Hart called "an illegal gratuity" of $10,000 in cash between May 14, 1971, and Sept. 27, 1971.

The payment was made, the indictment said, "for and because of official acts performed by him to wit, his recommendations in his official capacity concerning an increase in the federal milk price support level."

Just a Tiff

LEICESTER, England (UPI) — Stephanie Cox, 20, pleaded guilty Tuesday to scratching 299 music records belonging to her boyfriend.

Magistrates dismissed the case when she said she and Paul Cook had patched up their lover's tiff and were now engaged to be married.

Last Defense Lines Crumble in Senate

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Senate Republican Leader Hugh Scott said today President Nixon could no longer be presumed innocent in a Senate trial and the only question to be decided in such an event would be Nixon's "degree of accountability."

In his first direct statement since Nixon disclosed Monday that he had sought to limit the FBI investigation of the Watergate burglary, Scott noted that he had said often in the past that Nixon was entitled to be presumed innocent in any Senate trial.

"His own statement has removed the presumption," Scott said. "But he has left us with the question of the degree of accountability."

Scott's comments were the latest indication of the crumbling of Nixon support among his strongest defenders. A number of leading Republicans in the Senate have asked that he resign.

Scott and other GOP leaders arranged to meet this afternoon to discuss the possibility of sending a delegation to the White House to relay their feelings to the President. A morning caucus sidestepped the question and concentrated instead on naming members to a new congressional budget committee.

Scott did not say what he meant by "degree of accountability" but presumably it would be the question whether Nixon's acts warranted his removal from office.

Republicans met in closed session Tuesday to discuss Nixon's possible resignation.

Sens. Barry M. Goldwater and John Tower — two of Nixon's staunchest conservative supporters in the Senate — said at Tuesday's meeting that they favored Nixon's resignation, according to three Senate sources, two of whom attended.

Goldwater denied the report and Tower could not be reached for comment.

Tower, chairman of the Senate GOP Policy Committee, said his assessment of the meeting — open to all 43 Senate Republicans — was that "the majority

5 From State Ask Removal

United Press International
Five of Connecticut's eight-member congressional delegation have called for the removal of President Nixon from office.

The state's two gubernatorial contenders, each a member of Congress, split, with the Democrat, Mrs. Ella T. Grasso, uncommitted, and the Republican Rep. Robert H. Steele calling for Nixon's resignation or impeachment.

Mrs. Grasso said the disclosures in tapes released by the White House add to the case against Nixon, but she gave no indication of how she will vote.

Steele, on the other hand, said he will vote for two articles of impeachment against the President and called for his immediate resignation to relieve the nation of further trauma.

Sen. Lowell P. Weicker, R-Conn., an outspoken critic of President Nixon and a member of the Watergate committee, had no comment on the latest development Monday.

Sen. Abraham A. Ribicoff, D-Conn., urged Nixon to resign "in the best interest of the nation."

Ribicoff categorized the latest batch of materials as "the President's own admission of a coverup."

"It is overwhelmingly clear that the president has lost the confidence of the American people and the Congress. He has lost the ability to lead this nation," he said.

Rep. Ronald A. Sarasin, R-Conn., was uncommitted on the resolutions.

But Rep. Stewart B. McKinney, R-Conn., said he opposes resignation in favor of impeachment to settle once and for all Nixon's guilt.

Two other Democratic members of the delegations, Reps. William R. Cotter, D-Conn., and Robert N. Giaimo, D-Conn., called for Nixon's resignation or impeachment.

Watergate Summary

By United Press International

House Republican leader John J. Rhodes announced he will vote to impeach President Nixon for obstruction of justice. According to Rep. John B. Anderson of Illinois, chairman of the House Republican Conference, the House GOP leadership reached a consensus that Nixon should resign. All ten "Republican stalwarts" who had voted against impeachment in the House Judiciary Committee now say they have changed their minds.

The possibility of demanding Nixon's resignation was discussed at a closed-door meeting of the Senate's 42 Republicans, sources said. Sen. John Tower, Tex., said a majority felt Nixon should retire from office. Sources said both Tower and Sen. Barry M. Goldwater favored resignation during the meeting. Goldwater denied the report. Tower could not be reached for comment.

President Nixon met with his cabinet. Treasury Secretary William E. Simon said afterward: "He absolutely is not considering resigning." Deputy Press Secretary Gerald L. Warren told reporters Nixon considered the option of resignation over the weekend and rejected it.

House leaders of both parties decided to limit the House impeachment debate to one week instead of two — beginning Aug. 19.

President Nixon's lawyers said in court that a subpoenaed June 20, 1972, conversation between Nixon and his then aide, Charles W. Colson, was apparently never recorded and that no tape could be supplied. They are to turn over more tapes today.

Fragile Truce Threatened

By United Press International

The worst outbreak of fighting on Cyprus since a cease-fire went into effect a week ago threatened today to shatter the island's fragile truce despite reported progress in Greek-Turkish peace talks.

Turkish troops advancing behind a curtain of artillery and mortar fire Tuesday pushed further westward from their invasion beachhead on the island's northern coast, overrunning three Greek Cypriot villages.

Military representatives of Greece, Turkey and Britain, meeting under U.N.

auspices, today called a sixth round of talks on the island in a drive to halt the fighting by mapping cease-fire lines and buffer zones.

In Athens, a government source said Greece's new civilian government had decided to attend a scheduled meeting of the Geneva peace talks Thursday to consider a political settlement for the war-torn island.

U.S. envoy Arthur A. Hartman wound up a fact-finding tour of the region today and planned to fly to London before returning home to brief Secretary of State Henry A. Kissinger on the Cyprus crisis.

UPI correspondent Michael Keats, reporting from Kyrenia, said the fighting between Turkish soldiers and Greek Cypriot troops on the northern coast began at dawn Tuesday, died down 10 hours later and resumed at dusk.

A U.N. spokesman said the clashes marked the heaviest fighting on the one-time resort island since Greece, Turkey and Britain signed a cease-fire accord in Geneva last Tuesday.

The Turkish troops advanced under the cover of artillery and mortar barrages, overrunning the abandoned towns of Karavas, Laphthos and Vasilia, west of the key northern port of Kyrenia.

Airport Blast Still Mystery

LOS ANGELES (UPI) — The Los Angeles International Airport was blasted Tuesday by the most destructive bomb ever to hit a U.S. air terminal — hurling bodies, baggage, spears of glass and chunks of concrete through a passenger waiting area.

It was still a mystery today who planted the bomb, and why.

Two skycaps died, blown apart with such force that the first investigators on the scene thought there were four or five dead, and 36 others were injured, mostly passengers waiting to board flights for Hawaii and the Orient.

Seventeen were hospitalized, one in critical condition and two in serious condition.

Michael Strong of the police airport detail said he was about 100 yards away when "a tremendous blast" shook the area and it was a scene of utter devastation. People were down on the floor crying for help. Bodies were blown all over the lobby.

"All I could see was blood. There was

Italians Emerging As Political Giants

By MARK MILLER

HARTFORD (UPI) — After years of making up more than a third of the population of Connecticut, Italians are finally seeing their own emerge as a force in the two political parties.

Rep. Ella T. Grasso, D-Conn., who easily won the Democratic nomination for governor, would not only be the first woman, but also the first person of Italian descent elected governor.

Attorney Vincent A. Laudone of Norwich has been agreed upon as a compromise candidate to succeed J. Brian Gaffney as Republican state chairman, the first Italian-American to assume a party state chairmanship in state history.

The two Democratic town chairmen maneuvering to succeed Democratic Chairman John M. Bailey are both from Italian parents — Nicholas A. Carbone in Hartford and Arthur T. Barbieri in New Haven. Both were invaluable in Mrs. Grasso's bid for the gubernatorial nomination.

The current state manual lists only 17 Italian-Americans as Democratic town chairmen and 13 as Republican town chairmen in 139 cities and towns.

The manual lists 16 Italian-surnamed persons on the Republican State Committee, and 14 on the Democratic State Committee.

The first Italian descendant elected lieutenant governor, in 1960, was Samuel J. Tedesco of Bridgeport, now a Superior Court judge. Tedesco provided "ethnic balance" to a ticket headed by Gov. John N. Dempsey, of Irish descent.

Another son of Italian immigrants, At-tilio R. Frassinelli of Stafford, was elected lieutenant governor with Dempsey in 1966.

This year, state Comptroller Nathan G. Agostinelli is running for lieutenant governor on a Republican ticket headed by Rep. Robert H. Steele, R-Conn.

This might have been the year both parties nominated Italians to run for governor. Bridgeport Mayor Nicholas A. Panuzio had the backing of many Republican leaders, who liked his electability in a Democratic city and wanted to counter Mrs. Grasso's appeal to Italian voters.

Italians in Connecticut tended to register as Republicans rather than Democrats for two reasons. The Irish were firmly in control of the Democratic Party when Italians first came to Connecticut in large numbers.

Some Democrats say the large number of Italian Republicans stems from their registration by the staunch Republicans who owned the mills in which the newly arrived Italian immigrants went to work.

Controller Compares Tax Rates and Budgets

A comparison of General Fund tax rates and budgets for the fiscal years 1968-69 through 1974-75 has been released by Manchester's controller.

It shows the tax rate went up 7.3 mills or 17.4 per cent in that period — from 42 mills in 1968-69 to 49.3 mills in the current fiscal year.

The budget, which reflects revenue from all sources (taxes, state and federal grants, revenue-sharing, etc.), went up $7,792,232 or 63.8 per cent in the same 6-year span — from $12,210,263 in 1968-69 to $20,002,495 in 1974-75.

The school budget accounted for $5,030,152 or 63.2 per cent of the increase and combined municipal services for $2,752,080 or 36.8 per cent.

The tax rate increased in four of the six years, held steady in 1972-73, and was cut 2 mills in 1973-74. In 1969-70 it rose 2.9 mills, in 1970-71 it rose 1.95 mills, in 1971-72 it rose 1.81 mills and in the current fiscal year it rose 2.64 mills.

The school budget was $7,030,152 in 1968-69. It is $12,100,000 for 1974-75. The budget for combined municipal services was $5,180,110 in 1968-69. It is $7,030,152 in 1974-75.

In 1968-69 the appropriation for schools accounted for 57.5 per cent of the entire General Fund budget and combined municipal services accounted for 42.5 per cent.

In 1974-75 the school appropriation accounts for 60.5 per cent and combined municipal services for 39.5 per cent.

Gray Won't Discuss Nixon Disclosure

STONINGTON (UPI) - New London law firm soon after Nixon withdrew his nomination as permanent FBI director, in fact has made no comment at all on the matter since that time.

A retired Navy captain, Gray told Nixon on July 2, 1972, two weeks after the Watergate burglars were caught, that some White House aides were trying to "mortally wound" the President.

On Monday, Nixon disclosed transcripts of tapes that showed he and H.R. Haldeman had discussed blocking the FBI investigation by claiming it would uncover secret activities of the Central Intelligence Agency.

Gray may be called as a witness in the Senate trial if Nixon is impeached by the House.

Big City Papers Ask Resignation

United Press International Newspapers in major cities across the nation have asked for President Nixon's resignation following his latest disclosures about Watergate.

The Los Angeles Times, calling for his resignation, said in any event he will be impeached and convicted.

"He should resign immediately," the Times said. "There is no question that he will be impeached. His admissions on Monday assure his conviction in the Senate. To resign is to achieve the purpose of impeachment while sparing the nation more weeks of his inevitably uncertain leadership."

The Pittsburgh Post-Gazette, Omaha World-Herald and the Dallas Times Herald also said the President should step down.

The Post-Gazette said: "The President should step aside and let Vice President Ford attempt to resume the nation and get it moving in constructive directions."

"All of the President's maneuvering could not salvage anything from the wreckage of the Watergate adventure," the World-Herald said. "At this late date he could salvage something for his country - an end to a disruptive, disquieting and divisive period of history - and for himself - the redemption of bowing gracefully before necessity - by resigning."

The Times Herald said: "The public trust is gone. He should remove himself and let Vice President Ford begin to bind the nation's wounds."

However, The New York Times, said it saw "considerable merit" in the President's attitude... that he intends to "allow the Constitution to be the overriding factor."

"To accept this statement as a guilty plea and suggest that resignation would now close the book on Watergate would leave too many loose ends, too many questions unresolved," the Times said. "It would do nothing to inhibit subsequent fostering of the myth of a President hounded out of office by his political enemies. Doubts could be created whether the President would actually have been convicted in an impeachment trial, whether his departure from office was really justified by the facts."

News for Senior Citizens
By Wally Fortin

Hello, Well, I hope you enjoyed the weekend, and the big story I guess is about our registering for the Rocky Point Trip. We started the first thing Monday morning, and by the end of the day we were on our fourth bus. Evidently those who went last year enjoyed it, and this being the case maybe you should plan on joining us. We need more names to fill the fourth bus, and we will continue registering until Friday.

Setback Hearings

Last Friday was our day for kitchen social bingo in the morning, and in the afternoon we had 12 tables for setback with the following winners:

Thomas Murphy, 143; Michael DeSimone, 135; Peter Urbanetti, 132; Beatrice Mader

125; Violet Dion, 124; Mma Reuther and Eva Lutz, 123; Peter Frey, 120; Martha LaBala, 119; Claire Riem, and Josephine Schatz, 118.

Pinochle

Then came Monday, and again things started off with our kitchen social bingo games, and in the afternoon we had 14 tables for pinochle with the following winners:

Grace Moore, 708; Joseph Windsor, 705; Anna Haupt, 705; Michael DeSimone, 699; John Gally, 683; Esther Anderson, 656; Catherine Gleason, 653; Eva Lutz 647; Ann Lehmann, 645; Lee Steinmeyer, 638; Frances Fike, 632; Ellen Bronkie, 632; Mary Nackowski, 631 and C1a Wilson and Gus Gull, 628.

and maybe even some of our talented members. All this and lots of goodies to munch on, and just think, it's all for free.

That's right, it's free, and transportation will be available for those who need it. Now if you want to go you must stop by and pick up a ticket. It's free, but by doing so we will be able to know just about how much food will be needed. Sounds like a nice way to spend an afternoon, so drop by for your ticket.

Deadline for tickets is Tuesday, Aug. 13, so don't wait any longer. Remember, no license, no eaters.

Our sincere heartfelt condolences go out to Marge Hall on the loss of her brother who passed away last weekend.

Athanson Plans Rally For Cyprus

HARTFORD (UPI) - Mayor George A. Athanson, who is of Greek descent, has announced plans for a statewide rally for Aug. 11 to build support for a Cyprus Emergency Relief Drive.

Athanson, president of the Congress of Hellenic-American Associations, said Monday the group deplores recent Turkish violations of the ceasefire and truce agreements which were to have restored peace to the island. Some 200 members of the congress met last Thursday and approved a resolution calling on the United States government to " exert the necessary pressure to have Turkish military forces on Cyprus withdrawn immediately."

In case you missed Saturday's paper, we will explain once again about a nice Sunday afternoon picnic for you seniors, and some of the youth from town. It will be held on Sunday afternoon, Aug. 18, from 1 p.m. to 5 p.m., and will consist of lots of fun games, sing-alongs led by youth groups

Ruling Allows Clubs To Exclude Blacks

HARTFORD (UPI) - A panel of three federal judges has ruled private clubs may exclude blacks from membership as long as the clubs are not profit-oriented.

Those who believe that racial exclusion fosters fraternity are free to act out their belief, but they may not promote prejudice for profit," said U.S. District Court Judge M. Joseph Blumenfeld, who wrote the opinion.

Blumenfeld also said if such "private clubs" continue to discriminate on the basis of race, they stand to lose government subsidies such as exemptions from some taxes.

The ruling was in the case of Louis Cornelius Jr. of Cronon, who filed an $11 million suit against the local Elks lodge in 1971 for refusing to consider his membership application because he was black.

Cornelius also sued the local Moose chapter. Both organizations at the time had "whites only" clauses in their charter, which were later dropped. The court dismissed the Moose suit because he had not applied for membership.

Public Sacrifice

WASHINGTON — The administration's recipe for cooling off inflation is more unemployment, slower economic growth and at least two years of public sacrifice. Federal Reserve Chairman Arthur Burns said Tuesday the public must be prepared to sacrifice by accepting continued high interest rates, slower economic growth and "a higher rate of unemployment than any of us would like."

Roof Was Leaking

MIAMI — Firemen who rescued 15 survivors and recovered seven bodies from the collapsed offices of the Federal Drug Enforcement Administration say they found notes from employees complaining of roof leaks before the disaster. The parking deck atop the three-story-high building collapsed Monday morning, when 57 cars were parked there.

Withdraws Threat

WASHINGTON — Secretary of State Henry A. Kissinger has withdrawn his threat to resign now that the Senate Foreign Relations Committee has cleared him of accusations that he initiated wiretaps of aides and newsmen in 1969. At a June news conference in Salzburg, Austria, on the first leg of President Nixon's Mideast trip, Kissinger threatened to resign unless cleared by the committee of charges he initiated the taps in order to plug leaks of national security documents.

Key City Seized

SAIGON — Viet Cong and North Vietnamese troops seized a key district capital near Da Nang today in the first major Communist victory of a three-week-old drive against the outskirts of the strategic port city. Field reports said the Communists seized Thuong Duc, a town 25 miles southwest of Da Nang, in hand-to-hand fighting with crack government rangers defending the war-torn district capital.

Too Little, Too Late

Gentle rains touched portions of the nation's drought-battered midlands Wednesday, but most farmers and experts agreed that it was too little and too late to help the withered crops. "What we got wasn't anything," one Kansas farmer said. "But then with the way things are now, it could rain 40 days and 40 nights and it probably wouldn't help."

Retaliatory Action

Israeli warplanes bombed southern Lebanon today in retaliation for the Arab abduction of four Jewish settlers building a security fence along the embattled frontier. The military command in Tel Aviv said the Israeli jets blasted Arab guerrilla targets this morning at Harabeh, the junction three miles north of the Lebanese frontier village of Al Majidive.

Donation Interest May Be Taxable

HARTFORD (UPI) — The secretary of the state's office has told campaign committees they may have to pay state and federal taxes on interests and dividends earned by contributions. Harry Hammer, deputy secretary of the state, said Tuesday the Internal Revenue Service now considers many political groups to be corporations, and therefore subject to taxes. Hammer, however, told a group of campaign organization officials the IRS has not specified which groups will be considered corporations.

Doctors May Get Raise

HARTFORD (UPI) — The state Personnel Department is considering raising the salaries for state doctors by a minimum of $300,000 a year, to bring pay scales in line with those at other institutions. Commissioner Edward H. Simpson said Tuesday he was asked to look into the pay raises by the state Mental Health Board, which felt professionals' salaries were below those at other states, federal and private institutions. Simpson said the hikes being considered would amount to about $300,000.

FALCONERS APLENTY SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) — California has more than 700 licensed falcons, says the State Department of Fish and Game.

Norwich Lawyer Heads State GOP

MERIDEN (UPI) — Vincent A. Laudone, a Norwich attorney and former state representative, was chosen state Republican chairman to succeed J. Brian Gaffney, who declined to seek re-election. The unanimous election of Laudone was considered a compromise between Rep. Robert H. Steele, the GOP gubernatorial candidate, and Gaffney, who had supported Bridgeport Mayor Nicholas A. Panuzio's bid for the nomination.

Laudone, a member of the GOP state Central Committee since 1968, supported Steele at the gubernatorial nominating convention two weeks ago. He ran unopposed at the state Central Committee meeting Tuesday night in Bristol's Holiday Inn, which lasted only 30 minutes after Gaffney endorsed him. Gaffney told newsmen he believed he could have been elected if he wanted, but chose not to run in the name of party unity. He told the committee members that he and Steele, considered an "outsider" to party circles, had been brought closer together by the election and that he felt no regret at leaving.

Laudone said the GOP candidate in Connecticut this November are "very viable" and predicted the Watergate scandal would not affect them. The voters, Laudone said, "are going to be tremendously pleased with these Republican candidates, and not the candidates in Oregon or anywhere else." Gaffney said he would return to his law practice in New Britain. He became party chief in 1970 after Gov. Thomas J. Meskill, also a New Britain resident, won the GOP nomination for governor.

UConn Students Are Disciplined

STORRS (UPI) — Some 100 students arrested during library sit-ins at the University of Connecticut in April have received disciplinary warnings, while another 41 await disposition of their cases. A total of 273 students were arrested in the two days of demonstrations against alleged racism at the school, most of them black, but UConn officials said Tuesday many of them apparently gave false names to the police. The disciplinary warnings carry no sanctions, but are a step toward suspension or probation if students repeat their activities.

Educators Agree On Promotions

HARTFORD (UPI) — Vocational-technical school teachers and the state Department of Education have reached an agreement ending a three-year freeze on promotions. Mrs. Sylvia Malby, senior staff representative of the Connecticut State Employees Association, said today Education Commissioner Mark Sheahin has agreed that instructors will be advanced to senior instructor Sept. 1. Under the agreement, department heads will become senior department heads, Mrs. Malby said. Other faculty members on the staffs of the 16 schools will be promoted as they become eligible, she said. The public employees group has joined in a suit seeking a court order to compel the promotions on grounds that the freeze was in violation of the state's contractual obligations.

Gloria Schaffer, Connecticut's secretary of state, opens informal meeting on election reform for candidates at Hartford Tuesday.

Rayel-Coconio

Mrs. Michael C. Rayel

Barbara Anne Coconio of Bolton and Michael C. Rayel of Waterbury, exchanged wedding vows Aug. 5 at St. Maurice Church, Bolton.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Renato Coconio of 49 West St., Bolton. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Michael E. Rayel of Waterbury.

The Rev. Robert W. Cronin of St. Maurice Church, celebrated the nuptial Mass and performed the double-ring ceremony. The altar was decorated with flowers and arrangements of gladioli, daisies, pompos, and carnations. Richard Alton of Bolton was organist and Daryl Slawski of West Willington was soloist.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a silk organza gown designed in princess-style with high neckline, long tapered sleeves pointed at wrists, A-line skirt terminating in an attached train applied in Venice lace. She wore a Carnot headpiece to which her chapel-length veil of silk illusion was attached. She carried a cascade of white carnations, stephanotis, yellow roses and baby's breath.

Miss Elaine Rayel of Waterbury, the bridegroom's sister, was maid of honor. She wore a Nile green gown of dotted cotton voile designed with a halter top with ruffled scooped neckline, and matching bolero jacket with long sleeves. She carried a basket of white daisies, white carnations, yellow roses and baby's breath. She wore a picture hat which matched her gown.

Bridesmaids were Miss Vicki Barbero of Manchester, Mrs. William Flunkett of New Fairfield, Miss Ethel Spaner of Bridgeport, and Mrs. Bruce McCreary of Marlborough. They wore gowns identical to that worn by the bride, except in color. They carried baskets of white daisies, white carnations and baby's breath.

Miss Doreen Rayel of Waterbury, the bridegroom's sister, was junior bridesmaid. She wore a white gown similar to that worn by the bridesmaids and a rosette ribbon with daisies in her hair. She carried a basket of flowers similar to those carried by the other attendants.

Kevin Rayel of Waterbury was his brother's best man. Ushers were Alan Coconio of Bolton, the bride's brother; Mark Rayel of Waterbury, the bridegroom's brother; Robert Coatta of Waterbury; and Ronald Deschenes of Waterbury.

A reception was held at Fiano's Restaurant in Bolton, after which the couple left on a motor trip to Niagara Falls and Canada. For traveling Mrs. Rayel wore a blue and white dress with matching jacket and white accessories. They will reside in Danbury.

Mrs. Rayel is employed as a second grade teacher in New Fairfield. Mr. Rayel is employed at the Banking Center in Bolton.

Engagements

The engagement of Miss Shirley Ann Cox to Robert B. McBride, both of Manchester, has been announced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest A. Cox of 27 View St.

Mr. McBride is the son of William M. McBride of 1991 Tudor Lane and the late Mrs. Mary P. McBride.

The bride-elect is a 1973 graduate of Manchester High School. She is a member of the Temple Chapter, OES, and is employed by United Aircraft Research Laboratories in East Hartford.

Her fiancé, a 1966 graduate of Manchester High School, attended the University of Connecticut, Hartford Branch. He is a member of Friendship Lodge of Masons and of the Advisory Council of DeMolay. He is employed as a division manager at Sears, Roebuck & Co.

The couple plan an Oct. 19 wedding at Center Congregational Church, Manchester.

The engagement of Miss Margaret Melonie Molde to Robert Earl Miner, both of Bolton, has been announced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Molde of 88 Loomis Rd., Bolton.

Mr. Miner is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Miner of 22 Volpi Rd., Bolton.

The bride-elect is a 1974 graduate of Bolton High School and will attend the Creative School of Hairdressing in Manchester in September. She is employed at Pathmark of Manchester.

Her fiancé, a 1971 graduate of Bolton High School, will enter his sophomore year in September at Central Connecticut State College, where he is majoring in business administration. He is also employed at Pathmark.

The couple plan a July 1975 wedding.

Fashion and Beauty Tips

Warmly Scented
Press your favorite scent into your clothing by spraying the ironing board just before pressing your clothes.

Wet Eyes
If you wear mascara to the beach be sure to carry some handy eye make-up remover pads to use after coming out of the water.

Straighten Up
Braless fashions require perfect posture! No slouching.

College Notes

Denise Anne Totten was named to the dean's list for the spring semester at Eastern Connecticut State College in Williamstown. She will enter her sophomore year in September. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Christopher Totten of 50 Summit St.

Miss Charlene Southergill of Manchester has been selected as Outstanding Young Woman of America for 1974, according to Paul Reeder, director of this national awards program. Purpose of the program is to recognize young women between the ages of 21 and 35 for their exceptional contributions to their professions, communities and their country.

Nominations for this national award are made by women's organizations, churches, alumni associations, and individuals throughout the country who have firsthand knowledge of their nominees' abilities and achievements.

Keith McKenney of 197 Gardner St. has been awarded a fellowship to The Johns Hopkins University in Baltimore, Md., toward a doctoral program in bio-chemistry. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward J. McKenney.

DEAR DR. LAMB - My father is 79 and has been in the hospital for prostate trouble. He had a catheter tube put in place to drain his bladder. When the catheter was removed he developed a bacterial infection. After six weeks in the hospital he was brought home to recuperate so he would be strong enough for prostate surgery. However, he has no appetite and his weight has gone from 135 to 90 pounds. He has gotten so weak that he can no longer walk without the support of two people. He is on antibiotics, vitamin pills and an appetite stimulant of iron and vitamin B-12. Dr. Lamb, what do you recommend that would build up his body and strength to normal?

DR LAWRENCE E. LAMB

Infections Cause General Weakness

The infection and the lack of eating combined are sufficient to cause weakness. Starvation from any cause will do this even in a healthy person. Of course, I have no way of knowing what other problems might be present in a man of your father's age and history. The problem of loss of appetite in older people is fairly common. Sometimes this is related to loss of taste, which can be helped part of the time with zinc. Other times it is related to the general health and age condition. It is important to pay attention to it if you want to keep these people healthy.

When this problem arises it is wise to consider just what the person really likes to eat. Desserts are not all bad. You can construct them to provide all the protein and calcium a person needs. This, combined with needed vitamins, will go a long way toward restoring the nutrition for older people who don't like to eat anything but sweets.

Of course, if the kidneys are not working properly then you might have to go easy on the protein. But, your doctor could easily tell you about this.

With good nutrition, regular light physical activity is wise if the health will permit. That may be walking short distances, even with help, to restore normal body function. It is important that you have adequate drainage from the bladder. If he has advanced obstruction from the prostate I'm curious about how this is being managed without adequate drainage his health will not improve.

WE WANT TO SELL CARS. YOU WANT TO SAVE MONEY. IT'S THAT SIMPLE.

Right now, many Chevrolet dealers are offering year-end savings on in-stock Impalas, Chevelles, Novas and Vegas.

Impala is America's lowest priced popular full-size car.
(Based on manufacturer's suggested retail price.)
Impala, America's best-selling full-size car. It has the room, ride and control you want in a family-size car. And Impala's traditionally high resale value has helped it earn its nickname, The Great American Value.

Chevelle is a whole family of mid-size, mid-price cars.
Chevelle. Nine mid-size, mid-price models to choose from. All agile enough for easy handling and parking, yet large enough for six adults.

Novas is Chevy's sensible, economical compact.
Check out our economical compact. Novas is the sensible car we've been improving and refining for 13 years now.

Vegas is America's best-selling little car.
Vegas is small, sporty and fun to drive. Combine that with Vegas's four-cylinder economy and you have a good idea why Vegas is now America's best-selling small car.

See your Chevy dealer right now for year-end savings on his in-stock selection of 1974 Chevrolet cars and trucks. Chevrolet wants to sell cars, you want to save money. That's why Chevrolet's Year-End Savings Plan makes sense for America.

McCoy To Name Administrator

VERNON

At a special meeting of the Town Council, scheduled for Monday night at 7:30, Mayor Frank McCoy will present the name of a person selected to be the town's director of administration.

The town has been without a director since Richard Borden resigned at the beginning of the year to take an out-of-town position.

Borden was the second director for the town but since the governments were consolidated.

The position was advertised and applicants took written and oral exams. This is the second time the position was advertised. After the first exams were taken, a person was selected but before the announcement was made the person took another position at more money.

The town has also advertised for a town planner. The former planner, Joseph Pastic, resigned more than a year ago to take a position with the government in Guam. He was the second planner the town has had since consolidation.

The Conservation Commission has given the Town Council a list of suggestions concerning the duties of the planner and one of these was the need for coordination and communication between the town's Planning and Zoning Commissions and the Conservation Commission.

Bus Route Approved for Aircraft Workers

An application of Eastern Bus Lines, Inc., of Bolton, to extend bus service for second-shift employees of Pratt & Whitney Aircraft Co. in East Hartford, has been approved by the Public Utilities Commission.

The bus company requested approval to operate the service for a 30-day trial period. The request for the service was made by one employee and upon investigation it was found that at least 30 were interested and would make use of the service. It is the feeling of the applicant that the number will increase to 60 once the trial period starts. The route will be as follows: Commencing in Mansfield Center at the intersection of Rt. 196 and Rt. 89, on Rt. 89 to Rt. 44 in Warrenville, west on Rt. 44 and Rt. 44A to Kathy John's Restaurant in Mansfield; then via Rt. 44A to North Coventry; continuing express on Rt. 44A and Rt. 84, through the towns of Bolton and Manchester to the junction of Rt. 84 and Silver

Lane in East Hartford; via Silver Lane and Roberts St. to Pratt & Whitney in East Hartford.

The rates, for traveling a five-day week, will be: North Coventry to East Hartford, $6.50 per person; Mansfield Center to East Hartford, $7 per person; and Warrenville to East Hartford, $7.50 per person. The PUC has directed the bus company to maintain a record of expenses and revenue, to assist the commission in determining at the expiration of the trial period, whether operation over the route should be permanently authorized.

Rey Gets $300 Grant

Donald P. Rey, a graduate of Rockville High School, has been awarded a $300 scholarship from the DuPont Fellowship Program.

Rey is one of nine Connecticut high school graduates who will be college freshmen in the fall and who have been awarded scholarships ranging from $300 to $500 in an effort to encourage them to pursue careers in the chemical engineering field.

Police Chiefs To Discuss Crime Squad

CRIME (UPI) — Police chiefs from 10 surrounding communities contributing to the Eastern Connecticut Regional Crime Squad meet here today to determine their future participation in the program.

The squads, operating in five regions covering the entire state, received a low rating in a recent evaluation ordered by the Connecticut Planning Committee on Criminal Administration, which provides part of its operating funds.

The study showed the squads have failed to disrupt high-level hard drug traffic, and instead they concentrated heavily on marijuana cases.

The police chiefs at the meeting will be from Putnam, Clinton, Old Saybrook, Willimantic, Norwich, Groton town and city, New London, Stonington and Waterford.

Elks Golf Tilt Earns $400 for Hospital

VERNON With more than 175 golfers participating in a tournament at Ellington Ridge Country Club Monday, the Rockville Lodge of Elks raised more than $400 to donate to the Newington Children's Hospital.

Winner of the low gross prize was Dan Murphy with a 70. The awards were presented following a roast beef dinner served at the Elks Carriage House, Rockville.

The Rockville Lodge has a goal of $1,000 as its contribution to the Newington Hospital. The Connecticut Elks Association has pledged $20,490 for the fund.

Building Named For Miss Norcross

The administrative and guest residence of the new Hemlock Outdoor Education Center in Hebron has been named "Norcross Lodge," in honor of Miss Gertrude Norcross of Andover who recently retired as executive director of the Connecticut Easter Seal Society.

Miss Norcross retired after serving 35 years working for the handicapped. From the National Easter Seal Society, Miss Norcross was president of the organization in 1968. In addition she was given a framed resolution from A. Clay Stewart, president of the national society and its board of directors. From her successor, Malin D.

Patient Leave Under Study

HARTFORD (UPI) — A special meeting of the legislature's Public Health and Safety Committee has been requested to study the practice by state mental hospitals of granting temporary leaves to its patients.

Building Named For Miss Norcross

Martin Jr., she received a bound book of testimonial letters that came from all over the world in recognition of her service and recent retirement.

Building Named For Miss Norcross

Under her leadership the Easter Seal movement in Connecticut grew from a 350-000 volunteer service to an annual budget in excess of $5 million.

WFL Discloses Truth About Fan Reaction

NEW YORK (UPI)—Has the World Football League been lying about its attendance figures? Well, er, ah, yes! And, um, then again, no!

After two teams spilled the beans Tuesday that their announced attendance figures for the year had taken into account all "freebies," WFL President Gary L. Davidson said that the league had adopted that practice to start but would discontinue it by Sept. 11.

The Philadelphia Bell disclosed Monday that 60,000 of the 110,000 fans who saw the Bell's first two regular season home games either paid a discount fee or nothing at all.

The Jacksonville Sharks said 44,000 of the more than 100,000 fans who attended their first two home games paid nothing for their tickets.

Davidson, however, sees nothing wrong with the practice of announcing turnstile count.

"To the best of my knowledge, the attendance figures reflect the number of fans actually in the stadium," Davidson said. "In order to present our new product to as many fans as possible, some clubs have made an all-out effort to make the games accessible to a large number of individuals through the use of complimentary, discount and/or promotional tickets. Other clubs have decided to use a strict policy of only selling full-price tickets. The decision is made by the individual club and is a purely business decision on their part."

"It is the goal of the WFL to create new football fans and to get maximum fan exposure during these formative weeks of the WFL's initial playing season. Some clubs have decided to make games more accessible to the fans through the use of discount and/or promotional tickets through the use of group sales.

"With the rules geared to helping the offense, Chicago has shown the most potent attack to date. The Fire is averaging 31 points per game and features the league's top scorer in former Northern Illinois star Mark Kellar (57 points) and top receiver in James Scott (22 catches).

In other games tonight, unbeaten Chicago entertains Florida, Southern California plays host to New York, Memphis visits Philadelphia and winless Portland entertains Houston. Thursday night's nationally televised game features the Hawaiians against Jacksonville at the Gator Bowl.

NFL Strike Mediators Hopeful for End

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The striking pro football players and the NFL owners returned to another bout of bargaining talks today with the government's chief labor mediator, who described progress toward settlement as "very hopeful."

W.J. Usery Jr., head of the Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service, called both sides back for talks at 9 a.m. EDT in an effort to end the 37-day-old dispute. He said developments today and Thursday would be "very critical."

At the end of a five-and-a-half-hour session with the NFL Players Association and the owners' Management Council Tuesday, Usery commented: "I am more hopeful. I don't want to use the word optimistic, but I am very hopeful."

Usery resumed the talks after a weekend which saw both sides in the strike score psychological points. Low attendance and Paul O'Neil's addition to the first 12 pre-season games played with a resultant dollar cost to the owners. On the other hand, a number of top stars such as quarterbacks Bob Griese, Roger Staubach, John Hadl and Terry Bradshaw broke ranks to report to their team training camps.

There was no assurance that the strike would end before the weekend when every NFL team swings into action in an exhibition game.

Usery met throughout most of the Tuesday session with key members of the two bargaining teams — Ed Garvey, executive director of the Players Association and Theodore W. Kheel Jr., special labor consultant for the owners.

Rams' Player Rep Believes in Cause

FULLERTON, Calif. (UPI)—Three Los Angeles Rams veterans, including one of last year's regulars, returned to training camp Tuesday despite the NFL Players Association strike.

Meanwhile, Ram player representative Tom Mack and the balance of the team's regulars and veterans continued their informal daily workouts on a Long Beach practice field, several miles from training camp here.

"We're very disappointed," Mack said of the veterans who reported this week. "The fact that they're in there certainly has divided us." Mack said the remaining starters appear to be committed to the goals of the NFLPA strike and added, "We hope it stays that way."

Mack continued returned from meetings with union leaders at the site of bargaining talks in Washington, D.C. His assessment of the owners' attitude: "They are going to try to wait it all out."

"If the owners would make a legitimate offer," Mack continued, "this could be solved in a day. It appears their desire is to wait this thing out. That has been their plan all along."

Asked if continued defections by big-name players was a sign the owners were succeeding, Mack said, "If they try to destroy the union, they'll end up with a much stronger union in a couple years. I was back there and the offer made to the owners last week more than cut our economic demands in half. They just say 'it's no good, come back with something else.'"

Mack said if owners attempt to break the union, the NFLPA may be forced to "affiliate itself with a strong labor organization" for future disputes.

"In their passion to get rid of Ed Garvey (NFLPA director), I think the owners are losing sight of what this association could be. He also raised the possibility that the players could report to camp within a few weeks without a settlement.

Hubie Green Hungry For Major Title Win

CLEMMONS, N.C. (UPI)—How's Gary swinging? You seen Jack? Has Johnny's baby arrived? Where's Lee? Is Tom's wrist okay?

The clubhouse chatter leaves nobody in doubt that another major golf championship is at hand.

The 50th PGA championship begins Thursday at the Tanglewood Golf Club and the wonder is that nobody has inquired about Hubie Green.

There was a time early this year when Green, a native of Birmingham, Ala., and Johnny Miller, the former U.S. Open champion from San Francisco, were making the tour their own private battleground.

Going into the PGA, Miller has five victories behind him and Green, three. Not surprisingly, they stand 12 in the money list, with Miller leading at $204,750 and Green at $160,449.

The 27-year-old Green, one of the most talkative players on the tour, doesn't see the PGA as anything more than just another tournament.

"It's you guys (media) who make it something special. Sure, when I win one of the accepted big-four titles, I can say 'I've been there,' but I've already won three times this year and all those victories were sweet."

To illustrate his point, Green said, "Go tell Victor (Requeno) he won nothing last week." The Mexican picked up a $40,000 check for winning the Pleasant Valley Classic at Sutton, Mass.

Green has just spent two weeks in Florida being "a 100 per cent bum." It was his first break from the tour and he enjoyed it fishing, swimming and playing tennis. "It was great to be in I think I may have relaxed too much."

To suggestions he has lost his desire because he won so much early in the tour, Green snapped, "That's rubbish. It's just a mental thing."

"Apart from my victories, there was one stretch of six weeks when I was in a challenging position every tournament. You just get plain tired, that's all, mental and physical."

"The heat, the travel, the concentration... it just gets to you. You have

Burton Captures Top Bowling Prize

HARTFORD (UPI)—Nelson Burton Jr., of St. Louis, Mo., has won the $5,000 top prize in the Home Box Office bowling tournament after Earl Anthony missed a 4-6-7 split in the final frame.

Anthony, a left-hander from Tacoma, Wash., led the pack at Bradley Bowl almost from the start of the tourney Saturday and needed only nine pins in the 10th frame of the final round to clinch the championship.

He won home in second place with $2,800, raising his earnings for the season to $69,000.

Burton, who had trailed Anthony throughout the competition, was behind by 11 pins as the tourney went into the seventh when he lost the last match in the final round.

In third place was Barry Asher, of Costa Mesa, Calif., who won $2,300, while Gary Fust, of Des Moines, Iowa, was fourth and Curt Schmidt of Ft. Wayne, Ind., was fifth.

Fust won $2,000 and

Interest Restored For Johnny Miller

CLEMMONS, N.C. (UPI)—Johnny Miller, winner of five tournaments this year, is coming off one of his longest layoffs hungry for victory in the 1974 PGA Championship starting Thursday.

The blond Californian has played in only one tournament, the British Open, since the U.S. Open in June. Now, following the birth July 30 of a third child, he's ready again.

"This is the first time since my rookie PGA in 1970 I've been real interested in the PGA," Miller said. Miller opened the season with three straight victories, capturing the Bing Crosby Pro, the Phoenix Open and the Dean Martin-Tucson Open.

He won again in March, taking the Heritage Classic at Hilton Head Island, S.C., and he was victorious at LaCosta, Calif., in the illustrious Tournament of Champions.

"I usually play my best golf early in the year," Miller said. "Once I get $100,000, I sort of fall off."

Miller has done far more than that in 1974, slashing away $204,000 in tournament earnings and easily leading the PGA tour in prize money.

After the U.S. Open, Miller returned home to California and stayed, except for his trip to the British Open, to work on his house and await the birth of his child.

Casi Melissa arrived eight days ago, and with the thought of another month to feed, Miller headed back to the fairways.

"Most of my wins have been after a good layoff," Miller said. "And, he says, 'I'm playing fairly good, although I haven't played much.'"

He said his family obligations, outside interests and business responsibilities had sometimes thrust golf into the background.

"Golf had been taking sort of third or maybe fourth place, I guess," he said. "Now I'm hungry again."

Miller has added 20 to 30 yards to his drive since joining the tour four years ago, sometimes powering his way to victory, and the 7,050-yard, par 70 Tanglewood Golf Club course is made for his game.

But this year, he said, he wants to do more than just rely on his physical attributes. "I want to see if I can play a smart tournament," he said.

Miller said the course will "put a premium" on the best drivers in the game — Jack Nicklaus, Gary Player, Arnold Palmer and Lee Trevino.

And he said Lanny Wadkins, who played collegiate golf at nearby Wake Forest, and Tom Weiskopf might also have a crack at the title.

"He doesn't count himself out, either."

"I'm hitting the ball for me quite well," he said.

Siderowf Tops Nutmeg Open

Sect Celebrates Its 200th Year

SABRATHDAY LAKE, Maine (UPI) — Ten of a tiny group of Shakers in the world Tuesday quietly celebrated the 200th anniversary of the founding of their sect in America.

Five miles from an abandoned Victorian watering place in Poland Spring lies chosen land, an austere colonial settlement where members of the religious group have lived in simplicity since 1794.

Members of the celibate religious sect have always believed that by eliminating worldly concerns, men and women can work and live together simply, in brotherly love, free from debt, worry and competition.

"I think it's the communitarianism, not the celibacy, that has caused the decline in our numbers," a member of the community says.

Modesty and humility are Shaker virtues, and so community member would agree to be named.

"There really are a lot more people willing to be celibate than there are people who are willing to give up that weekly paycheck, you know," the Shaker said.

The 10 Maine Shakers live in a 17-building colonial village at the edge of Sabrathday Lake.

They support themselves by growing and selling herbs, weaving ragi from fleece they shear from their own flocks, and leasing an orchard that still bears apples after 100 years.

They charge visitors $1.50 to visit their small museum, which contains examples of Shaker ingenuity and craftsmanship.

Every once in a while the Shakers auction off a few of the beautiful simple pieces of furniture that have caused Shaker stock to boom recently on the antique market.

Every Sunday, the eight elderly women and two somewhat younger men still gather in a three-story meetinghouse built when the Maine community was founded in 1794, to celebrate their own peculiar kind of worship involving deep contemplation and frenzied dancing. It is their ecstatic devotional whirling that gave them their name.

The paneling and interior beams of the whitewashed meetinghouse are stone blue, stained in 1797 with a butter-milk, indigo and sage mixture that still gleams dully.

Not only the stain but the Shakers themselves have survived the ordeal of an off-beat way of life in a harsh climate.

The Shakers remain optimistic about their future as a religion.

"The ironrods of the industrial revolution really caused our numbers to decline," says a sister. "Everyone left the farm then, but now everyone wants to go back to the land so maybe there is some hope," she said.

Today's Thought

There comes a time in the life of every person when he must take a stand — the stand, or position, from which he will not move. The person faces within himself the basic truth of his beliefs, his goals, his direction, and says: Yes.

This may mean great suffering; it may mean persecution; even, possibly, prosecution. It always means discomfort, because the very stand taken flies in the face of the status quo.

To be the best person one can be, one can never live without being true to oneself. And only when the surroundings of our lives become unbearable in their falsity or hypocrisy do we usually take this stand.

There is another way, another time, at which we can stand up and declare what kind of person we are or are trying to be. This way is called by some: Confirmation. This is the time when those who avow themselves a life in Christ declare that fact for all to see and hear.

Have you confirmed your membership in the Church of Christ? Recently? It's not easy. But then, Jesus never said it would be.

Hard Drug Use Down But Back in Ghetto

HARTFORD (UPI) — Hard drug use in Connecticut is decreasing and returning to ghetto areas where it is harder to get by generally white narcotics policemen, according to a state study.

The study also showed marijuana cases have increased in recent years.

The study of the state's five regional undercover anti-crime squads, was done for the Connecticut Planning Committee on Criminal Investigation, which disburses federal anti-crime funds.

Law enforcement officials may have greater difficulty in cracking the ghetto drug market, the study said, because they lack minority group agents.

"The lack of minority group agents inhibits the squads," said James Lynch, a private consultant and doctoral student at the University of Chicago.

The squads are wasting their time pursuing marijuana cases, the study said.

"It would be more efficient in terms of jail sentences for the

Jobless Claims Rise

HARTFORD (UPI) — Unemployment compensation claims for the two week period ending July 27 rose to 62,402 compared to 57,102 for the previous two weeks, the state labor department has reported.

Seasonal closings accounted for an average of 13,315 temporary claims in the latest period, compared to 9,216 temporary claims in the earlier period. The department said despite the increase, the statewide rate of insured unemployment during the 13 week period was unchanged at 3.5 per cent, but this was higher than the 3.8 per cent 13-week figure a year ago.

A NEW NAME FOR AN OLD FRIEND

Manchester Savings & Loan Assn. is now called Heritage Savings & Loan Assn.

The name Manchester Savings and Loan Association has been changed to Heritage Savings and Loan Association effective July 22, 1974 with the prior approval of the membership, the Board of Directors and the State Banking Department. We believe our new name more accurately describes our identity.

Since 1891, this institution has been an important part of the local heritage. Back then, there was no bank where a family could save and borrow for a home. A group of our forebearers got together and founded the Manchester Building and Loan Association (later called the Manchester Savings and Loan Association) for this purpose. These men of vision pioneered the concept of local people getting together to encourage thrift and home ownership. As the first and oldest savings institution in Manchester and Coventry, we have played a significant role in our local heritage since our founding in 1891.

Today, we are very enthusiastic about plans for expanded usefulness through broadened services in the future. Our new branch office is now open in K-Mart Plaza on Spencer Street in Manchester. There are several new and exciting services now in the planning stage at Heritage Savings. We enjoy serving you and we look forward with enthusiasm to a continuously expanding role in the financial heritage of our communities during the years ahead.

ONLY OUR NAME HAS CHANGED

Ownership and management remain unchanged. As a mutual institution, we continue to be owned by you, our customers. Our board of directors, officers and staff remain unchanged.

NO EXCHANGE OF PASSBOOK

or other documents required or necessary.

INSURED SECURITY FOR YOUR FUNDS

Deposits at Heritage Savings are insured by the Federal Savings and Loan Insurance Corporation, an agency of the U.S. Government. There is no stronger insurance for your savings.

As a graphic symbol of Heritage Savings and Loan Association, we have adopted the woodcut representing landmarks of significance to our local heritage. As the first savings institution in our area, and being owned and operated by local people, we are indeed tied closely to the local heritage.

CHENEY MILL (left foreground) The nation's first silk manufacturing was done at this Manchester Mill in the eighteenth century. Since then, Cheney Brothers have perhaps been our best known local manufacturer. In 1905 Frank Cheney became a president of this Savings and Loan Association.

NATHAN HALE HOMESTEAD (bottom right) The homestead of the early American patriot, Nathan Hale, is a nationally known landmark. It is located in Coventry.

CENTER CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH (rear center) Standing atop the hill in the center of Manchester, this church is regarded as an outstanding example of church architecture of its era.

PITKIN GLASS WORKS (rear, to left of church) The Glass Works is the earliest manufacturing concern of significance in Manchester.

A HOMESTEAD (rear, extreme left) Homes are an important part of our local heritage. A home is a fitting element on our symbol since we were the original home financing institution in this area. Nationally, savings and loan associations finance more homes than all other types of financial institutions combined.

Bike Thefts Reported on Increase

By MAL BARLOW

Reports of bike thefts are coming more frequently now as we are in the middle of the summer, according to Russell Holyfield, community relations officer of the Manchester Police.

"It is a problem, a severe problem," he said. "Most 10-speeds cost about $100 or more. That makes bike stealing third-degree larceny in most cases."

More people than ever are riding bikes. Not many record the serial numbers, making recovery by police more difficult.

In the safety talks Holyfield gives to groups of young people in town, he stresses methods of protecting your bike. He recommends a twisted wire loop coated with plastic and having a sturdy locking device. Chains can be cut too easily.

It is best to run the wire or chain through the front wheel, the frame and the rear wheel. That rear wheel on a 10-speed is the most valuable part of the bike and is often stolen, leaving the front wheel and frame behind.

Laws Riders Break

Holyfield cited several laws most often broken by bike riders. They are:

- You must ride single unless the bike is built for two.
- Obey all stop signs and traffic lights.
- You cannot hitch rides on motor vehicles.
- If you ride at night, you must have a headlight and a rear reflector.

Manchester Police have made arrests for bike violations recently. They also give written warnings. Riders under age 16 have a letter sent to their parents from Chief James Reardon noting their offense.

Recent Bike Thefts

Bike thefts appear to have increased recently with thieves getting bolder and more determined.

- Kelley Monahan of 12 Horace St. reported Monday that her 10-speed, 26-inch bike colored white and valued at $100 was stolen that afternoon from where it had been chained to the fence at Globe Hollow Pool.
- Douglas Daisler of Glastonbury reported Monday his Columbia 10-speed bike colored white and valued at $95 was stolen that afternoon from where it also was chained to the fence at Globe Hollow.
- Brad Chisholm of 400 E. Center St. reported Monday his 24-inch Apollo 5-speed valued at $80 was stolen from the side of his house.
- Kenneth Jones of 195 McKee St. reported Monday the theft of his brown Huffy three-speed valued at $70 from where it was parked in front of Westway Pharmacy on Hartford Rd. as he made a "quick" purchase.
- A bike was found by Paul Cropeau of 5 Lockwood St. behind Spree. It was turned over to police who returned it to its owner.
- Judy Burby of 62 Durant St. reported Monday the theft of her Columbia 10-speed colored white and valued at $80 which she had parked in front of the Town Hall. But she found police had picked it up as a lost bike. It was returned to her.
- Ken and Shaun Stanton, both of 288 Timrod Rd. and both carriers for the Hartford Courant, reported their bikes stolen Saturday at 12:40 p.m. from in front of the Main St. building housing the local Courant office. Both bikes were 10-speed, Ross Unions, each valued at $110. One was green and the other yellow.
- At the same time, again at the Courant office, the Rixie 10-speed bike, blue with a black seat and valued at $110 of Lori Veal of 41 Santina Dr. was stolen.
- Joseph Tonaki, 10, of 215 Henry St. reported his 10-speed bike, colored gold and valued at $90, stolen sometime over the weekend from the side of his building.
- John Lemelin of 41 Teresa Rd. reported his three-speed green Spider bike stolen sometime between 9 and 10 a.m. Sunday from where it was parked at St. James School.
- A Vernon St. resident Sunday morning reported finding a green, boy's 10-speed bike at the corner of Scott Dr. and Vernon St.

Icy Step

Neither snow nor rain nor heat nor gloom of night ever kept George from delivering the mail at the Jenkins house. But an icy step finally did him in. He skidded, went sprawling, and dislocated his shoulder.

In the course, George filed a damage suit against Jenkins.

"They have a special problem at their house," he pointed out in court. "The roof spills rainwater across the front steps, and in cold weather this creates an unusually

Man Bites Frog

BALLYCUMBER, Ireland (UPI) — John McNamara, 42, won $24 and the title of All-Ireland Live Frog Swallowing Champion Sunday. He gulped five live frogs in 65 seconds.

Watched by 5,000 spectators in the County Offaly village of Ballycumber, McNamara beat five other competitors.

The frogs were swallowed with mouthfuls of champagne. "I have never done this kind of thing before," McNamara said. "I feel all right — in fact I've never felt better. More people should do it."

Two competitors backed out at the last minute. Another was disqualified — for chewing.

Playground Notes

Slack casting of ice. I didn't know about the situation until after I fell.

This "special problem," which Jenkins did not deny, was held enough basis to establish legal liability. The court said a homeowner must take precautions against hazards that a visitor is not likely to notice by himself.

What kind of precautions? Perhaps sprinkling salt or spreading shovels on the ice.

Or perhaps providing adequate lighting. Thus, another homeowner was held liable for neglecting to cast a light on the porch light, after having ordered a taxicab to come to the house at 8 p.m.

True, the cab driver realized that the steps might be icy from an afternoon storm. Still, handicapped by the darkness, he slipped anyway. And a court later granted his claim for damages. The court said that while the homeowner could not be blamed for the ice, he could indeed be blamed for allowing so little regard for the cab's safety.

But both of these cases involved some degree of fault on the part of the homeowner. If he is faultless, he is generally free from liability as well.

The claimant in another case was a newboy who slipped while delivering the evening paper. But the visibility was all right and the step he slipped on, though icy, was no worse than the other steps on the block.

Result: no liability. The court said a homeowner owed "only that care which an ordinarily prudent person in like circumstances would exercise"—but no more.

Finast will no longer increase the price of food once placed on our shelves.

On Wednesday, July 24, 1974, all Finast Supermarkets began a new pricing policy on Grocery, Meat and Produce items.

1. When Finast is forced to make a price increase, cans and packages already price marked on the shelves will be sold at the old lower price. When items are restocked on the shelves, the new, higher priced items will be placed behind the lower priced items.

2. Weekly specials or "sale items" are priced lower than regular prices. Any remaining after the sale event, will be repriced upward.

3. As regular prices go down, Finast will immediately reduce the price on shelf stock, and the lower price will always be honored at the register. When a can or a package shows more than one price, the customer pays the lowest price for that can or package.

4. Baked goods, baby food, fair trade, and items controlled by state laws are exempt from this new policy.

5. Until current stocks are sold there will be some items of our many thousands with more than one price marking on the can or package. Please bear with us during this transition.

The Community Spirit of '76

by John Sibun

A local regiment of the Black Watch (otherwise known as the Royal Highland Regt. of Foot.) has its headquarters in the rolling hills of Andover, Conn. It is not a question of "The British Are Coming," they are already here to help make the Bicentennial years a meaningful, colorful and an educational experience for all those who come in contact with them.

There is no more famous regiment in the British Army than the 42nd, and while other units have been disbanded, this, the oldest, Highland regiment continues to serve the Crown. From the H.Q. depot in Scotland, the mother regiment sent troops to the American Colonies in the 18th century. The killed soldiers saw action first in the "French and Indian Wars" and later in the Revolutionary War.

The Andover branch of this regiment came into being in 1962 with a more peaceful "invasion" in mind and the prime mover was Richard Clark of that town. Soon after its organization, the local unit joined "The Brigade of the American Revolution" which had been formed to help meet the demand, that many felt was there, to recreate and communicate to the public the colorful pageantry of the period.

Who are the part-time Highlanders? The vocations of these men are as diverse as teaching, welding and truck driving and they come from six states. However, on a weekend, when the clock has been turned back, these men are indistinguishable from their original counterparts.

The Andover-based contingent has raised its Regimental Colors at many sites on the Eastern Seaboard including some areas where the mother regiment camped in the 1700's. Sometimes, at such a camp, an event of historic interest is reenacted, as at Brandywine, Pa. in 1773. It was here that Lt. Clark's Black Watch began wearing the red hosiery in its bonnet. This commemoration marked the fact that it was at Brandywine, during the Revolution, the defeated Americans vowed, as they left the field of battle, that they would meet the Watch again. The Highlanders immediately placed a red feather in their bonnets so that the Rebels would not mistake them for anyone else at the next encounter.

Though, without the feather, it would be hard not to recognize this fighting man with his distinctive sombre tarian kilt. Clutching a "Brown Bess" musket (with the bayonet, was taller than the average soldier) and emitting blood curdling yells heard world-wide across battle fields for 200 years, there was no mistaking a soldier of the 42nd.

Every detail of today's uniform has been authenticated and each member hand-makes his own, as he does the musket used in shooting competitions. The unit is led in line of march by its own pipers and drummers who also provide the background music when the troops engage in drill practice.

For these public demonstrations "His Majesty's Manual for Drill and Discipline," published in 1764, is used.

So all in all, for these modern Black Watchers, the undertaking is a labor of love. The fees charged for an appearance are used to enhance their endeavors, which returns to the public in the form of additional authentic pageantry. Publications, from Virginia to Massachusetts, have lauded the "splendid magnificence" that this local group has added to every function it has attended. Our awareness and enjoy-

Hands Across The Sea

American Host Family Style

By Betty Ryder
Women's Editor

A teacher from West Germany has discovered bubble gum, but she has not mastered it. Slim, blonde Elizabeth Hoeningger of Ludwigsburg, admits, as she purses her lips attempting to blow a bubble, "I can't do it."

Elizabeth is a teacher turned student, at least for a few weeks this summer. The family of 69 Richmond Dr., she is one of 250 foreign teachers visiting the United States to learn about American family life. The trip is sponsored by the American Host Family (AHF) program.

The enthusiastic young woman was very impressed with New York City, which was the group's first stop upon arrival. They were housed at the Hotel Commodore, headquarters for AHF, and were greeted by Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Murphy, program coordinators, who are also teachers.

"You can see films of New York, but there's nothing like seeing it for yourself," Elizabeth said.

"I was a little surprised to see that the women are not made-up (cosmetics) and dressed up as much as I thought they would be."

Prior to coming to Manchester, she was guest of a retired couple in Stony Creek, Conn. where she spent a week. "It was very enjoyable," she said. "They are a very interesting couple."

Since arriving in Manchester, Elizabeth has enjoyed her stay with the Steppers.

"We went shopping in a supermarket," Mrs. Stepper said, "and Elizabeth is a terror with a shopping cart. She moved so fast."

What amazed the English-speaking teacher was the number of items in the store. "You must have to read all about the items or see them on television otherwise it would take you all day to make selections, there are so many from which you choose."

Elizabeth has been amused by some of our slang expressions such as "sneakers" which she calls "tennis shoes," and the expression "kidding me" took a little explaining.

At the Stepper home she found the garbage disposal fascinating and while she said in Germany they have modern kitchens, "They are not as high level as you have."

A commercial teacher, instructing Grades 11 and 12 in shorthand, typing, the German language and business German, Elizabeth said that West Germany compresses nine little states and each state has its own system of education. In the school in which she teaches there are 2,000 students; 35 in each of her classes.

She said, "Parents take part in the educational portion of school, but have no say as to how the money is spent. Schools and colleges are controlled by the government and a college student does not pay for his education. He is, however, responsible for his room and board and books, etc. All teachers are paid by the government for this country."

A secretary for several years before she decided to become a teacher, Elizabeth made the decision because as she says, "A secretary always has a boss but a teacher is more or less on her own. Besides I like to be with people. My students are 15 to 17 years old and I enjoy them."

Elizabeth, who has been teaching for three years, selected a subject to teach with which she already had a head start - secretarial courses and after two years of study, assumed her present post.

When asked if they televise games in her country, she said, "We only have subscription (pay) TV and nothing begins until 8 p.m. on weekdays and on Saturdays." (Incidentally, in Germany the cost is only about $3 per month for pay TV.)

Eva Stepper, herself a warm, friendly woman, said Elizabeth was surprised with our local card shops.

"She said, 'You have cards for everything and many for the same occasion. Why? You don't like to write!'"

While the purpose of her trip is primarily to learn the habits of American family life as a participating member of a family, the exhibitor visitor did get to visit Mystic Seaport, see a play at Manchester Community College, tour the Mark Twain Homestead in Hartford, and sit in at a business class at the college.

Comparing home life in Germany with that of the U.S., Elizabeth said, "We eat our big meal at noon, and our lighter one in the evening - just the opposite from your habits."

"We have no fireplaces," she said. "When asked what happens when the electric power goes out in the winter, she smiled and said, 'It hasn't happened.'"

When Elizabeth first heard of the AHF program she sent her application indicating her interest. Meanwhile, the Steppers who had read an article in The Herald in which the AHF was seeking host families, sent in their application stating they would be happy to host a foreign teacher.

The Murphys went to West Germany, interviewed Elizabeth and then notified the Steppers that they had located a teacher with similar interests.

After exchanging a few letters, plans were made for Elizabeth's trip. She met the other teachers in Amsterdam and headed for this country.

Many teachers selected different parts of the U.S. to visit, some the Midwest, others the West Coast.

Elizabeth said, "I picked the East Coast because the history of your country began in the east. But now I'd like to see more."

Elizabeth, a well-traveled woman, Elizabeth has toured extensively in Europe, spent time in Russia, Finland and Denmark, and is now hopeful of returning to see more of this country.

She will be visiting with another host family, a woman and her three children who reside in Lacombe, N.H. where she will spend two weeks.

"I am looking forward to meeting her, she is a secretary, and I am anxious to exchange ideas on our work."

Elizabeth was enchanted with the tag and garage sales in the area. "It was a real treat," she said. "We don't have anything like that in Germany."

As mementos of her visit, the Stepper boys presented her with little gifts, which she was eager to show off. From the twins she received a commemorative button depicting the Apollo crew and inscribed "First Men on the Moon," and a blue and white plate showing the capitol in Washington, D.C.

Elizabeth is pleased her visit marked the beginning of a lady's hand with flowers which she had admired at a flea market they visited.

The Steppers say they have learned much about Germany from their guest, and hope she has become familiar with home life - American style.

Elizabeth wants the family to visit her in West Germany and while Mrs. Stepper is a little dubious as to whether she and her husband might make the trip, she said "Who knows, maybe one day our boys will."

The warmth that flowed through new-found friends was very obvious at her Stepper home. The active twins making clay pottery to proudly display to their guest, and Elizabeth showing her love for children by paying close attention to their every explanation as to how a particular piece was made.

Hands were extended across the sea, through the American Host Family program.

Mill Has Many Needs

LINCOLN, N.H. (UPI) - Arthur Normand is looking for a $2 million loan, his own 73-mile railroad, and 400 tons of waste paper a day to expand operations of the Profile Paper Co., the sole industry in this town of 1,500 persons.

Normand needs the loan to remodel a mill (pulp is in short supply) into a de-inking plant. The de-inking plant would recycle used high-grade business papers. The waste paper would provide fiber for the de-ink plant. The railroad would provide cheap transportation for the waste paper - and the finished products to be sold.

"The Boston & Maine Railroad has agreed to sell us the line from Lincoln to Concord," Normand said. "We hope to have the tracks restored before cold weather."

"We opened up this mill with limited financing from venture capital bank in Connecticut, with high interest. It doesn't leave us any room for expansion. We have to get in with banks that have the funds at rates we can afford - banks that lean toward working with paper mills. There are none in New Hampshire," he said.

When the de-inking plant opens, he said, he plans to start producing 100 tons of paper a day, working up to 400 tons daily.

The plant now employs 120 persons. He said he could add

Also, Frances Casinghino, East Hartford; William Kilby, Brookline Rd.; Coventry; Christine Waltenus, 15 Edith Rd.; Vernon; Joann Cortese, 1535 Sullivan Ave.; South Windsor.

The number of weekly newspapers in Georgia increased from 59 in 1869 to 225 in 1890.

MMH Heating Requirements Dip

In a survey by the Connecticut Hospital Association comparing fuel and electricity consumption from Jan. 1 to March 31, 1974, to the same period in 1973, Manchester Memorial Hospital showed an increase in oil use and a decrease in electricity.

Edward M. Kenney, hospital administrator, said although the hospital did increase its use of oil from 182,436 gallons to 206,057 gallons for the two time periods under consideration, the nature of the oil used in 1974 was such that the BTU output was not as great for a given amount.

"The 13 per cent increase in actual gallons of oil used during that three-month period," he said, "unfortunately resulted in only a 5.5 per cent increase in the number of BTUs produced."

He said that fact, when combined with the 8 per cent increase in degree days for this area in 1974 as compared to 1973, resulted in a total decrease of some 2.5 per cent in heat requirements for the hospital.

"Of even greater significance," said Kenney, "is the hospital's 8 per cent decrease in the number of kilowatts of electricity used in 1974."

during the three-month period in 1974, as compared to the same period in 1973, a reduction from 1,772,647 kilowatts to 1,625,861 kilowatts."

The 41 hospitals responding to the survey in general reported a decreased consumption of fuel averaging more than 5 per cent and decreased consumption of electricity averaging more than 9 per cent during the past winter.

Reductions in the use of fuel resulted from lower temperatures in corridors, public and administrative areas in the winter as well as from efforts to increase the efficiency of boiler units and heat distribution systems, according to CHA President Herbert A. Anderson. Anderson noted hot water temperature had been lowered and steam pressure reduced by many of the hospitals responding to the survey.

Reductions in the use of electricity resulted from reduced corridor and public area lighting, reduced exterior lighting, except where required for security reasons, and reduced wattage of light bulbs, Anderson said.

The report showed only 6 hospitals out of 41 used more electricity in 1974 than during the comparable period of last year. The range of savings reported was from 8 to 15 per cent.

Dysentery Cases. Are High in State

HARTFORD (UPI) — Eighteen cases of dysentery were reported in Connecticut last week, the highest weekly total in a year, according to the state Department of Health.

The highest weekly total in past year, 102, was reported last August at a state institution during an outbreak of the disease, also known as shigellosis, the department said.

The department said the illness can be avoided by careful washing of the hands after using a toilet.

The department also reported 10 cases of lead poisoning during the week, the highest since last September.

Low Bid $18,288 For Film System

Graphic Microfilm Inc. of Hartford is the apparent low bidder for furnishing and installing a microfilm processor-camera, a card-to-card duplicator and a dry-silver reader-printer for the Manchester engineering department. Its total bid is $18,288 — for a 3M system.

The Hartford office of the 3M Co., bidding on the same system, offered a price of $18,795. The Farmington office of the Eastman-Kodak Co., the only other bidder, offered a price of $21,254 — for an Eastman-Kodak system.

The bids are to be analyzed before an award is granted. Graphic Microfilm was low bidder on each of the items being purchased.
