Town Committee's Selections For Delegations To Conventions Approved; Bingham Has Clear Sailing For Nomination Again—Results Through State.

A straight Republican organization state of delegates was nominated in the caucus of that party here last night. There was not a dissenting voice as 250 Republicans approved of the slates proposed by the Republican town committee.

Favorable to Bingham The state convention slates is favorable to United States Senator Hiram Bingham as a candidate to succeed himself and will no doubt favor the nomination of former Governor John H. Trumbull to oppose Governor Cross.

Judge Hyde promptly opened the caucus at eight o'clock and he was named to preside. Louis Lester Hohenthal was named clerk. The business of the caucus was election of the delegates to the state, senatorial and congressional conventions.

William B. Rogers placed in nomination delegates to the Congressional convention; Thomas J. Rogers, Ernest Kjellson, John L. Jenney, and Mrs. Mabel Burgess Rogers. They were unanimously endorsed.

The resignation is sought in a letter to State Chairman Edward Martin, demanding that the Republican state organization ask the Senator to withdraw as a candidate in the November elections.

Senator Davis said last night in Cleveland, where he is attending a convention of the Loyal Order of Moose, of which he is director-general that he would make no statement until some time next week.

May Decree Nationalization of Key Industries in Germany, With Forced Loans.

Berlin, Aug. 26.—(AP)—Nationalization of several key industries and further taxation of German capital to finance a gigantic labor creation project were discussed today as possible plans to Chancellor Franz von Papen's government.

Hints of Compulsory Loan There also were hints that the government is contemplating a plan to finance a labor creation project by a general tax of three per cent against German capital, or by a three per cent compulsory loan from private citizens to the government.

In the political field, meanwhile, there were reports that the government hoped for a disorderly deadlock when the new Reichstag convenes next Tuesday, thereby permitting a dissolution decree that would leave the government in the position of practical dictatorship.

Calls On Business Leaders To Co-operate In Counter Offensive—Declares For Shorter Work Week But Says It Is Not For Government To Enforce—Mills Presents Six-Point Program For Economic Rehabilitation; Others Speak At Big Conference At Washington.

Washington, Aug. 26.—(AP)—President Hoover today recommended to a national gathering of outstanding business men plans for sharing jobs now available, so as to decrease unemployment, as the step which would do most at this time to "accelerate our progress."

Standing before more than 200 members of the business and industrial committees created in each Federal Reserve district and summoned to the national capital by the president linked his job-sharing plea with suggestions for "a better distribution of credit."

Major Crisis Weathered President Hoover's address to the business chiefs here was convinced the nation had overcome "the major responsibility to restore labor and agriculture to higher levels. He likened the present victory over depression to the victory at Chateau Thierry.

Speaking to an audience composed one of the most inclusive gatherings of national banking and business leaders in history the president proposed specifically that credit be extended to vital projects and that arrangements be made between employer and employee for shorter hours and wider distribution of jobs.

He promised every co-operation of the government in the new drive and cited new agencies available for fresh economic attack but he emphasized it was now time for the bankers and business leaders to go to work in earnest.

Fort On Home Loans Fort, speaking a little later, appealed for support in putting into operation the New Home Loan banking system which he promised to be a going function by October 15 with $134,000,000 available for home builders and owners.

Then, one by one the heads of the government agencies directly involved in the new economic drive for jobs and credit spoke to the meeting, including such financial and business leaders as Myron Taylor of the United States Steel Corporation; Daniel Willard, of the railroad

EAST HARTFORD MAN DIES AFTER A CRASH

Frazer was alone, driving from New Haven to East Hartford, when the accident occurred. Officials said wheel tracks indicated he had crossed to the left side of the road, struck the trees and turned over.

the details of the labor creation scheme and the economic program as a whole, which probably will be made effective in the middle of next week by emergency decrees.

Political interest has shifted from the dramatic events centering in the Berlin death sentences against five Fascist political leaders, to the government's economic program, which the Cabinet meant to complete shortly before noon today.

The newspaper Berliner Zeitung said today that the government was considering a floating employment project to be financed by a compulsory loan.

Two newspapers carried the story and Hitler's associates in the National Socialist Party spent most of the morning describing the rumor as utter nonsense.

The wish is father to the thought," said Major Hans Wehrstedt, head of the Nazi publicity office in Berlin. "Hitler never felt called to the left side of the road, struck the trees and turned over."

The party headquarters in Munich called the story of his breakdown an "absolute lie." Ernst Hamitzangl, the publicity chief there, said Hitler had gone on a long fishing trip.

MRS. MCCORMICK DIES, FAMILY AT HER SIDE

o'clock (C. S. T.) Death came peacefully. All members of her family were at her bedside.

In the group at the end came was Harold F. McCormick, whose devotion to the dying woman attested the friendship he always had shown since their divorce in 1921.

There, too, was Mrs. McCormick's only son, Fowler, who alone had never completely broken the family ties. Present also were her elder daughter, Muriel, now Mrs. Elsiea Dyer Hubbard of Middletown, Conn.; her third and youngest child, Mrs. Max Oser, the former Mathilde McCormick; Mrs. Fowler McCormick, the former Frits Hillman; Mrs. Hillman's son, Alexander "Hillman," and Major Hubbard, Muriel's husband.

Arrangements for the funeral had not been completed today. It was considered extremely unlikely that John D. Rockefeller, Sr., now in his third year, would be able to attend the last rites. John D. Rockefeller, Jr., who visited his sister recently, was notified immediately of her death, and he is expected to come.

Operation Too Late
Had Mrs. McCormick lived until next Wednesday she would have been 60 years old. For several years she had suffered from cancer. She underwent an operation two years ago. It was revealed at the time, however, that the surgery had not been resorted to in time.

Her death marked the close of a social dictatorship. Her social decisions were final.

Since divorce broke her matrimonial ties with Harold F. McCormick, even though she charged desertion, she never in her mansion on Lake Shore Drive was kept in seclusion. Every year on her birthday there was delivered to her a perfect yellow rose, with his card attached.

There were those in Chicago who thought it might be an awkward moment for Mrs. McCormick and her former husband when she met him for the first time after his marriage to the Polish singer, Ganna Walska, from whom he later was divorced. The meeting occurred at the John McCormick Institute for Infectious Diseases, where a session of the board of directors was under way.

At Ease in Meeting
"How do you do, Harold?" she greeted him. "I'm glad to see you."

"I'm glad to see you, too, Edith," he replied.

They were the only unruffled ones in the room.

It was the opinion of Krenn, Mrs. McCormick's business adviser, that financial worries contributed to her breakdown. Once La Salle street, that thoroughfare of Chicago's high finance, estimated that Mrs. McCormick's wealth exceeded $40,000,000. That fortune, the gift of her father, is now but a fraction of that sum. She was the organizer of vast Chicago and suburban real estate holdings and with the decline in values she sacrificed much of her Standard Oil and other stocks to aid those who had purchased property from her.

Troubles Adjusted
The sadness of Mrs. McCormick's fatal illness was tempered by the knowledge before she died that family schisms had disappeared. She and her daughter, Mrs. Oser, had been estranged because of the latter's marriage to the Swiss riding

ASKS MILLS TO RULE ON FLAT RATE TAX

R. I. Representative Forwards Complaints On Policy of Power Co. Collections.

Pawtucket, R. I., Aug. 26.—(AP)—Contending that the new revenue tax on electricity is being improperly assessed by power companies, Representative Francis B. Condon today forwarded several complaints to secretary of the treasury Ogden L. Mills and asked a ruling. Condon said the 3 per cent tax was being assessed on the $1 minimum charge made by the companies in instances where the charge for actual consumption of electrical energy was below that figure.

Chief Case of No Consumption
Condon referred to assessment of the 3 per cent tax on the $1 minimum charge in one instance in which the meter reading showed no electrical energy had been used.

Condon asked Mills to determine if the tax collected in such cases was being turned over to the government.

At San Sebastian: Monarchists and Republicans clashed in the streets. Civil Guards got the upper hand just as the Monarchists were about to be lynched.

General Canjurjo and two companions were found guilty of leading the rebellion of Seville early this month which spread to various cities and caused bloodshed. His life-long companion in arms, General Herranza, was sentenced to 30 years, and Lieut. Colonel Infantes received 12 years. The general's son, Justo Sanjurjo, was freed.

San May Be Deported
As soon as the supreme court had reached its verdict the cabinet, after a stormy day's session, commuted and commuted the general's death sentence.

Captain Justo Sanjurjo was given his freedom by the verdict but his property was confiscated, his stockbroker's license cancelled, his officer's rank removed, and he is now detained under orders of the government and it is expected he will be deported.

NEW MANCHU STATE MORE THAN TWICE SIZE OF JAPAN

about three-fourths that of European France.

The area of continental United States is only about six times that of Manchukuo and America's population is roughly four times that of the proposed new Asiatic state.

Count Uchida maintained in his recent speech, as all spokesmen for Japan have maintained that Japan has no thought of annexing Manchukuo but will recognize and support the new government to insure order in Manchuria and the protection of Japan's interests and rights in that territory.

Of Manchukuo's population of 36,000,000 more than 28,000,000 are Chinese. There are approximately 600,000 Koreans, less than 300,000 Japanese, more than 100,000 Russians and a scattering of other foreigners.

Japan now is estimated to have 70,000 soldiers in the new state, but has not been able to keep the railways operating regularly because of the raids of bandits and disgruntled Chinese.

Nanking, China, Aug. 26.—(AP)—Nanking officialdom today regarded Japan's outline of her foreign policy as reflecting the fear that hostile world opinion will be marshalled against her as a result of her Manchurian policy.

The Nanking government leaders pointed out the approaching session of the League of Nations assembly as indicating these fears.

The Chinese feel Tokyo had decided to "remain defiant as long as possible and attempt to tie the hands of the League of Nations through recognition of Manchukuo."

Chinese officials feel that when the League Assembly meets there will be considered not only China's protest but the insistence of interested powers that Japan "not be allowed to scrap League of Nations resolutions."

COMMUNISTS TO RALLY IN CENTER PARK TONIGHT

Candidate For Congress To Be Speaker Here — Circular States Program.

Ronald H. Loomis, Communist candidate for Congress in the First Congressional District will speak at Center Park at 7 o'clock tonight at a campaign meeting of the Communist Party. In a circular distributed in Manchester today, the Communists attack both major parties and also the Socialists, and ask the "workers of Manchester" to attend this rally.

The circular also carries six reasons for voting the Communist ticket, namely, unemployment and social insurance at the expense of the wage and employer, against Hoover's wage-cutting policy, emergency relief for the impoverished farmers without restrictions by the government and banks; cessation of impoverished farmers from taxes, and of forced collection of rents and debts; special rights for Negroes and self-determination for the Black Belt; against capitalist terror against all forms of suppression of workers' political rights, against imperialist war, for the defense of the Chinese people and the Soviet Union.

ATTORNEYS FOR POLICE
ATTACK PROSECUTION

Fight To Discredit Testimony of Long Island Law Official in "Third Degree" Trial.

Mineola, N. Y., Aug. 26.—(AP)—Lawyers defending five policemen in Nassau County's "third degree" killing fought today to show their clients were guilty of beating the life out of Hyman Stark, youthful prisoner, accused of beating a detective's mother in a robbery. An attack on prosecution testimony given by Assistant District Attorney Littleton, featured yesterday's session of the trial. Littleton said that Deputy Chief Frank J. Tappen, one of the five accused of manslaughter, came out of the police chamber where Stark was held and remarked: "That's the toughest I ever saw I put one foot on his neck and the other on his belly and rocked back and forth and it didn't shake him." "Did he say whom he was talking about?" demanded defense attorney Charles R. Weeks. "No," Littleton said. "Did he say when or where it had taken place?" "No." "He said it in a rather facetious tone, didn't he?" "Yes," you attached no importance to it at the time." "No, I didn't know what it meant." Questioned closely by another defense lawyer, Littleton said he made no reference to the alleged statement by Tappen until his third appearance in the John Doe inquiry which preceded the trial, it came back to his mind, he said, when he heard statements regarding injuries to Stark's throat and saw Tappen limping as the result of a turned ankle.

Queer Twists
In Day's News

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

London—Idea for Milady's jewel box: an Englishman carrying $1,000 worth of gold to a jeweler's to sell feared the tin box might be stolen. So he put a sign on it: "This box contains dangerous germs for experimental work." Nobody stole it. Pine Bluff, Ark.—This community is proud of its fastest son, Bill Carr. Welcomed home by the biggest turnout ever, the lad who broke the world's record for the 400 meter dash at the olympics received the Pine Bluff Commercial's cup emblematic of the "best public citizen rendered during 1932 by a citizen of Pine Bluff." Tijuana, Mexico—An edict to close saloons at 11:30 p. m., caused ructions in this town, where many resorts threw the key away years ago. One proprietor ordered the janitor to lock up. "I'll have to go home after the door," said the bewildered man. "I've been using it for years on my chicken coop." Gallup, N. M.—The Hopi Indians are praising the potency of their chief medicine man. While the medicine men chanted ceremonial prayers for rain at Toreva, thunder crashed, and it poured so hard a bridge was washed out. New York—A slap-for-slap drama enlivened Broadway's night court. Luis Genovese denied slapping Frank Brown, 8. "If he slapped you, show me how he did it," said Magistrate Greenspan. Frank implanted a healthy smack on Genovese's face. "Now," said the magistrate, "I guess you're even, Frank, and I'll suspend sentence." Windsor, Ont.—The perils of speed boat racing are not so terrible, thinks Kaye Don, after facing a friendly mob of autograph and handshake hounds here. He was "mobbed" by a crowd after making three speeches and being hailed as an Irishman who drove an English boat on a Scotch lake faster than any man ever drove a boat before.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS
(Cracking Jaw)
Question: Mr. Norton R. writes: "I suffer from a peculiar affliction and an extremely painful one. The jawbone becomes dislocated or so it feels. The pain is intense until it adjusts itself. After that, the area around the ear is sensitive and I cannot chew food or open the mouth with freedom. The trouble clears up for a time, although a cracking noise can be heard and felt most of the time."
Answer: A cracking of the joints is usually caused by loose ligaments or a lack of synovial fluid around the joints. Sometimes what appears to be a cracking of the jaw can be caused by the clogging of the eustachian tube leading to the mouth and ears, which is stretched when the mouth is used, or the jaw is moved, and produces a cracking. The presence of the sensitive area around the ear would tend to indicate that this condition might be the cause. I would suggest that you follow my Cleansing Diet Course, which will be mailed to you upon receipt of a large self-addressed envelope and a three-cent stamp.

(Hour-glass Stomach)
Question: O. O. asks: "What are the symptoms of an hour-glass stomach? What sort of diet do you prescribe for an hour-glass stomach? What causes the condition and how can it be cured?"
Answer: An hour-glass stomach is not an especially serious condition, as many patients have this. It simply means that the stomach is divided into two parts by a constriction in the center. This is usually a muscular constriction. However, if the stomach ulcers have been present for a long time, then the scar tissue from the ulcers might assist in the closure. If no other symptoms are present, then all that you need to do is to follow a well-balanced diet similar to that given in my health column every Friday in this paper.

BOLIVIA ASSETS HERE CHACO CLAIMS ARE LEGAL
Geneva, Aug. 26.—(AP)—Bolivia sent the League of Nations another note today in connection with its dispute with Paraguay over the Gran Chaco. The communication reiterates that Bolivia seeks an outlet through the Chaco to the sea not only as a necessity but as a right.
"Bolivia never upheld the theory that possibly creates the law," said the note. "It is the law which creates and imposes upon a country the right to possess what belongs to it. This is Bolivia's case."

 FRIDAY, AUGUST 26.

It is exceedingly foolish—not to say crazy—for the property owning side to throw overboard all regard for and dependence upon the good old law.
 Out there in Franklin county there is no question of mine wages any more, but a very serious question about anarchy. And the deputies who made that wholesale assault sprang the question.

HAND PICKING 'EM
 How very surprising it is to learn that when Governor Roosevelt speaks at Sea Girt on Saturday almost entirely, it is announced, on the subject of prohibition, he will speak to such a relatively restricted audience. To be sure, Democratic managers have predicted that there will be 200,000 persons at the New Jersey resort to hear him. But that is no kind of an audience for a major Presidential candidate to talk to in these days of the radio and millions of listeners, and while the speech will not be exactly limited to the 200,000 on the spot but will be sent out on the air it is now stated that there will be no national hook-up and only those radio fans within the influence of station WOR will get it.
 The poor man! Is it that the withdrawal of Mr. Raskob from politics and from political contributing has left the party with a war chest too slender to pay for big broadcasts? Well, well! What a handicap the poor and virtuous are always under!

Or—unworthy thought—is it by any chance that Mr. Roosevelt and his cagy advisers have no thought to send those utterances to be delivered in the Applejack State hurrying through space and into the ears of the folks in Tennessee and down in Jack Garner's Lone Star ball-wick?
 After all, you can do a bit of handpicking of your audiences when necessary, even in 1932 and even when you stand up or sit down before a mike. We just wonder whether Franklin Delano happened to think of that. And that if you can work it one way you can work it the other—run down to Dallas, maybe and make another speech on prohibition, that New Jersey and New York and Connecticut can't hear.
 It's a great game, running for President for a two-way party.

FIVE OUT OF LUCK
 It would not be very surprising if those five Hitler followers convicted at Beuthen of the murder of a Communist were permitted by the Von Papen government to go to their death. Not because the Von Papen government cares a hoot in the dark about a dead Communist but because the time has seemingly just about arrived to put the swastick Hitler in his place—to call his bluff.
 That gentleman played rather foolishly into the hands of Hauptmann Von Schleicher when he dramatically dared the government to carry out the Beuthen executions. The subtle Von Schleicher seems to have been leading Hitler on to just such a climax, encouraging him to believe that he was big enough to demand a practical dictatorship over Germany when, as a matter of fact, he was nothing of the kind. Then, at the crucial moment, he has hit him with a bladder, just to show him where he gets off.
 The Von Papen crowd—or more properly the Von Schleicher crowd—can use Hitler and Hitlerism in their business. But first they must show the Fascist leader his limitations. The present matter of the Beuthen convictions looks like that kind of a demonstration. Hitler will be permitted to rave—but his five followers will die. And Hitler will do nothing about it because there is, after all, nothing he can do about it with Germany's whole armament in the hands of Schleicher.
 Then will be the time for the Junkers to say to Hitler: "Be nice, now, and you can have a piece of the pie. A smallish piece. So long as you keep on being nice."
 Oh, yes; Hitler will be in the German government some day. But he won't be the German government—not ever. He isn't big enough.

WHISTLING COWS
 Out in the cow country of Nebraska, Dr. Peter Johanna Christiansen has perfected an invention which seems likely to prove a boon both to cow owners and alfalfa growers.
 A cow's digestive tract is quite a complicated business, for a cow has four stomachs. But despite the extra equipment with which nature has endowed the cow, her eye is generally bigger than her four stomachs and the result is that bloating, often fatal, sometimes follows a hearty meal on alfalfa.
 Now Dr. Christiansen has fixed it so that the cows can eat their alfalfa and have their health, too. By means of a perforated cylinder, fitted with a ball valve and spring, inserted into the cow's stomach, bloating is stopped before it starts. The alfalfa gas is allowed to escape—with a whistling sound—as rapidly as it forms. The thing works automatically, the valve opening when pressure reaches a given stage.

 Farmers who have their sleep disturbed by the whistling will at least have the comfort of knowing that man has provided something for his cows which even nature forgot about, and that the "safety valve" is taking care of what might have been a very strenuous night for Betsy.

That the invention has infinite possibilities is obvious. By simply blending the notes of the various whistles in his herd, a farmer may have harmonious music to cheer him as he goes about his daily toll.
 And when the first enterprising Nebraskan organizes the first genuine all-cow whistling choir, his fortune will be made.

CHILD PRODIGES
 Pamela Bianco who at 13 years of age exhibited paintings in London and now at 22 is a well-known artist, is the daughter of another "child prodigy." Her mother, Margery Williams Bianco, wrote five novels before she was 23, four of which were published. Mrs. Bianco is still a writer.
 What makes this interesting is the fact that the world so rarely hears of child prodigies accomplishing anything at all after the period of youthful brilliance dims.
 It is much commoner to hear of prodigies who once amazed their elders by unusual feats of intellect completely falling in later life to become adjusted to the business of normal living. Tragedies of child poets, child musicians and youngsters enrolled in colleges at 14 or 15 years frequently appear in the day's news. In fact most parents infinitely prefer that their children should show an ordinary aptitude for games, play and school work than for them to exhibit those unusual abilities which cause them to be labeled "prodigies." Youthful precociousness when it is so pronounced that youngsters attempt to compete with adults is regarded as a dangerous thing.

Now and then there may be exceptions to this rule but on the whole it is sound and proven doctrine. Childhood and the concerns of childhood are far too precious to be sacrificed for things which may just as well be left to later years.

IN NEW YORK
 Gals From Home
 New York, Aug. 26.—Perhaps your best friend wouldn't tell you, but chances are that you may have lived right next door to the "girl whose skin you'd love to touch."
 The gangling youngster who played "jacks" on the schoolhouse steps, is like as not to be the "girl with the most beautiful hands." And the young lady who "inhales," as well as the other beauty who "keeps that sociological complexion" may have sprung your invitation to that high school prom out in Indiana, Texas, Oklahoma, Iowa, Ohio, or way states.

In other words, a hasty check of the new Model's Guild roster shows that a vast percentage of the nation's most widely photographed and painted models come from your town—and yours, and yours!
 The "most famous pair of hands" for instance, come from Ohio, and are used by Miss Helen Resler.
 And "the most famous grandmother" hails from North Carolina and is Mrs. George Synder. She has, at one time or another, been the "Mother's Day" mother of the advertisements and the charming old grandma to be found knitting in a national advertising campaign.

Scranton, Pa., produced Connie Gardner (heads, hands and figure); Salt Lake City is the home town of Edna Edwards; Pittsburgh has a maternal claim on Betty Coffroth and Betty McKelvey; Okaloosa, Ia., produced that famous "pretty" Jeanne Flag; Linda March is from Riverton, Ill.; Eye Milligan from New Canada, Conn.; Mrs. George Macy and her lovely daughter, Nan Brooks Macy, from Birmingham, Ala.
 And thus through a list of hundreds!

Glorification
 Such is the illusory scheme of things that, in their status as anonymous beauties of the lip-stick, face powder, perfume and lingerie ads they become part of New York's alluring parade. Even in anonymity they attract an army of national admirers—any one of whom might be a one-time neighbor. Presented in the decorative manner of the magazines, gents from over the countryside seek them; try to reach them by letter, telephone and telegram.
 Thus, too, it is with the glorified chorine. Percentage proves her to have arrived in New York from the prairies, mountains, farms and villages. Yet, what with the hypnotics of soft lights, tinsel and drapery, she becomes a symbol of Broadway. Which, if you don't mind, is why old codgers like myself chuckle a bit now and then when the tired buyer from Ishpeming finds himself sending orchids to the lass he once failed to appreciate back home.

Really Now?
 One of Broadway's more meticulously scientific penmen advises us that the thrilling tiger-pyhton fight in "Bring 'Em Back Alive" is little more than another mirror trick. Tigers and pythons, he writes,

Health and Diet Advice
 By Dr. Frank McCoy

THE PROBLEM OF DIETING CHILDREN

Recently I had dinner with some friends and I was surprised to see their small son ask for a second and third helping of spinach. Spinach has for years been known as the pet aversion of youngsters. Upon asking the parents how they had trained the child to be so fond of spinach, they said that it was due to a character in a comic strip who performed seemingly impossible feats of strength and courage and who frequently said that he was strong because he ate spinach like his mother told him to when he was a little boy. It seems to me that the artist who created this comic strip had hit the secret of training children to like good food.

Children have a curious way of not wanting things which are forced on them and wanting things which are withheld from them, so that often the best intentions of parents are naturally thwarted. The child does not want the foods which are dished up to him and may even develop a dislike for them. Sometimes children will even develop a dislike for foods before they are tasted simply because the parents says, "Now, you must eat some of this because it is good for you." There is no reason to get angry at a child because it exhibits the same perverse traits which are present in human nature, but there are ways to get around the difficulty and children can be trained to like the things which are good for them and avoid those which are not.

Children have a natural wise provision to guard us against poisonous food by making us wary of foods which taste, look, or smell differently from those we are accustomed to. This may be observed by watching a baby. It requires some minutes or hours to teach a new-born baby to eat anything but sweet milk. If sour milk is used, though it is quite as wholesome, the baby will howl. Gradually the baby may be trained to like other flavors such as orange juice, tomato juice or scraped apple, but each new flavor requires a definite period of getting acquainted. This process continues throughout life; we taste a thing cautiously, and, if it does not harm us, we may try it again until finally, after trying it often enough, we acquire a liking for its flavor. On our own part, we overcome a child's dislike for a certain food, such as carrots, by mixing a small amount of the carrots with a large amount of some food which the child likes, beginning very gradually at first with either finely minced carrots or just the juice of the carrots, and then gradually adding large portions. At first this should be done unknown to the child and in this way the dislike for the flavor will be gradually overcome.

It is a poor policy to say, "If you do not eat just the juice of the carrots, you can't have any ice cream." Scolding, of course, accomplishes just what one wishes to avoid, for the child learns to associate the scolding with the particular food he is scolded about. It is a good plan to take advantage of the child's desire to excel other boys in games by telling him that good foods will make him stronger. One can make favorable suggestions about food when talking with someone else at the table so that the child can overhear; this is even better than trying to force the child directly. For instance, one can say that Gene Tunney drank lots of milk and that made him a big strong man so that he won the world's boxing championship. Indirect statements such as this are of great value. They give the child a helping that is obviously so small and let him ask for more rather than force large helpings upon him. Remember that "little trait of human nature which makes people desire to do things which are forbidden." Do not neglect to pile on the praise when the child is trying to do right and continue to praise him each time until he has formed a habit of doing so.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS
 (Improving Hearing)
 Question: G. O. writes: "For 20 years I have had a most embarrassing form of partial deafness: Not real deaf, but just hard of hearing. A peculiarity is that I can hear a drop on a tin floor, but cannot hear a grandfather clock tick unless close to it. Playing the piano seems to improve my hearing, which leads me to think emotional excitement in some way acts on this condition. This started with a head cold, but I very seldom have colds now, and no catarrh whatever."
 Answer: I am sure your hearing would improve with a fasting and diet treatment designed to get rid of catarrh of the middle-ear, as it may be only in the middle ear so that you do not notice it, as far as any discharge from the nose is concerned. Vibration, such as is produced through piano playing, is often found to stimulate the ears and improve hearing. There are certain machines which are now being used for producing vibrating vibrations to the ear drums. The treatment is applied both on the outside of the ear drum and through the nose and mouth, affecting the ear drum from the inner side. Try to find a physician who has such equipment for treating the ears.

wouldn't be caught staging a battle without the intrusion of a Hollywood director. Nor would a python fight a crocodile.
 Naive fellow that I am, such cries of frame-up bother me, since good things come all too seldom in the cinema.
 And I learn that the bums of Bryant Park are fast getting to dislike George Washington. Thanks to his bi-centennial, their park has not only been cut out from under them, but such space as is not given to memorial buildings is used for band concerts and fiestas.
 All of which disturbs their park bench slumbers.

for LOVE or MONEY by CORLEY

BEGIN HERE TODAY. MONA TOWNSEND, married six months and widowed, inherits her husband's millions providing she does not renege. Her marriage, arranged by Townsend's lawyer, who was Miss Carr's employer, was a strange affair, leaving her free at the end of a year to become her husband's wife in actuality or secure a divorce. Mona, in love with her husband's nephew, BARRY TOWNSEND, agreed to the marriage when she thought Barry was lost to her. Barry is in South America where he and STEVE SACCOARELLI are partners in a diamond mine. MONA's brother, BUD, works for her. LOTTIE CARR, fashion model, is Mona's closest friend. Mona feels Barry is entitled to a share of his uncle's fortune but there is no legal way for her to arrange this. She employs Lottie as her secretary and companion and they decide to sail for South America. NOW GO ON WITH THE STORY CHAPTER XXXIII. There was only a week in which to prepare for the journey. It was a busy seven days. Lottie gave notice to her employer that she was leaving and did it in such a way that Henri, bursting into aggrieved tears, demanded that she pack up her belongings and go immediately. Lottie did that. She had no sooner reached her apartment than the telephone rang. "I'm not at home," she told Sallie. "It's for me it's Henri. He probably wants to see me to come back." The voice at the other end of the wire was Henri's. "But Miss Carr can never be reached at home in the day time," Sallie explained. "Miss Carr is employed."

ROOSEVELT PASSES HAT TO COUNTRY VIA RADIO

Democratic Candidate Appeals For Many Small Gifts To the War Chest of the Party. New York, Aug. 26. (AP)—Democratic chestains, seeking necessary funds for the national campaign chest, hope the mail man will bring them a stream of small contributions as the result of an appeal by Gov. Franklin D. Roosevelt. The Democratic Presidential nominee, speaking to a nation-wide radio audience, asked for funds last night at Albany. The financial committee has set $1,500,000 tentatively to be raised for the campaign, a sum much smaller than was spent on some political campaigns of the past. "The Democratic party," Mr. Roosevelt said, "fortunately has no favorite names which are to be returned fold through tariff increments. Moreover, it is my opinion, and I think it must be the opinion of my hearers, that a Democratic fund ought to be raised in a representative way; that an aggregate of small contributions is immensely more valuable than a similar sum given by great financial interests."

ROCKVILLE FEDERAL INVESTIGATORS WORK ON STILL CASE

Find It Difficult Uncovering Information About Cardillo Plant But Have Some. Although little could be learned of the developments in the local still case on West street in which Louis Cardillo and his son, Paul, were arrested some months ago when one of the largest stills ever operated in the state was found by the State police, it is reported that such evidence has been secured by Federal men who have been working here quietly. The Federal Grand Jury is to sit in September when facts in the case will be presented. It has not been learned whether the authorities have been able to link the men together or up with the case. Many people have been questioned and it is admitted that the actual owners of the place did much of the work through blinds. Bills were paid with cash. Fake names were given for electric service and other work. Nothing was done under cover and the investigators have had plenty of work to do to get what information is in their possession. Changes in Supervisors of the schools of South Windsor and Tolland have been made this year. Arthur L. Young of Ellington, state supervisor of schools in Ellington, Tolland and Somers for the past nine years will now have supervision over South Windsor, Ellington and Somers schools and not Tolland. Levi Garrison of Willimantic, who was former supervisor of the Tolland school will add that to his territory again. These supervisors are assigned to the schools by the State Department of Education. The change comes as a promotion to Mr. Young. The superintendent of schools at South Windsor has been released, together with five teachers as for the past few years it has not been in good financial condition. There are but 175 pupils at the Tolland school and there are 550 at the South Windsor school. Teachers Return From Trip. Miss Modesto Dinkay, teacher at the Maple street school, Mrs. Annie B. Andrews, Miss Alice Clough and Miss Lillian Randall, teachers in the East District school, have just returned from an 8,000-mile trip to California. The group left here on June 24. The trip took them to Mexico, Canada, Grand Canyon, Yosemite Valley, Yellowstone Park, the Petrified and Red Wood Forests and Niagara Falls. At Del Rio by the way they met Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Stevens, formerly of Rockville, who are residing in Texas where Mr. Stevens owns a music store. They also visited friends in Colorado and spent a week in the Rocky Mountains. In their travels the group touched all borders of the United States. Grange Parades Costumes. Ellington Grange, at a recent meeting, voted to purchase the costumes of the late Lolla Church, noted pageant director and author. These will be added to the Grange wardrobe and will be used for future productions of the Grange. The costumes are already in the possession of the organization and it is the intention of renting them out to organizations needing them for amateur theatricals. Small Tobacco Wages. Tobacco growers who came to the city last morning looking for work are offering $1 a day to men, that is the rate of 10 cents an hour. Children who have been receiving $1.25 to $1.50 a day have had their wages cut. It was learned on Thursday that one man took the offer to work for $1 and purchased a 10-cent sandwich to eat for lunch during the day. Receives Purple Heart. John Bock of Cottage street, a member of the American Legion, has received notification from Adjutant-General of the War Department that he has been awarded an order of the Purple Heart. Mr. Bock was twice wounded in the World War. Liebman Heads Potato Growers. Harry Liebman of Ellington has been elected president of the new organization of Rockville, Ellington, Manchester and Buckland potato growers. The new organization is being incorporated to the amount of $5,000, divided into 700 shares of $10 each. Other officers elected are: Vice-president, Russell Stee of South Windsor; secretary, Frank Williams, South Manchester; treasurer, P. F. Chamberlain of East Windsor. The executive committee will consist of the officers and Louis Grant of Manchester. The directors are: Louis L. Grant of Buckland, P. F. Chamberlain of Broad Brook, Harry Liebman of Ellington, Frank V. Williams of Buckland, Max Lavitt of Ellington, Nathan Miller of Rockville, Donald J. Grant of Buckland, John D. DeCarli of Ellington, Frank F. Clark of Buckland and Joseph Miller of Rockville. Walter Schrumpp, Sr., 70 of 44 Ward street, died at the Rockville City Hospital on Thursday afternoon following a long illness. He was one of Rockville's oldest citizens and the cause of his death is being received with regret. Mr. Schrumpp was born in Germany and has resided in Rockville for the past 68 years, coming here with his parents. He was employed by the Hockanum Mills Company for more than 40 years. He was a member of Damon Lodge, Knights of Pythias and the German Sick Society, and attended Union Congregational church. Although never seeking public office, Mr. Schrumpp was always interested in politics and city affairs. He served as deputy registrar for

28 ESQUIMO ADVENTURERS RETURN SAFELY TO LAND. Point Barrow, Alaska, Aug. 26. (AP)—Carried 80 miles on an arctic ice floe, a party of 28 Eskimos were safe ashore today after spending four days on the ice pack, and on the abandoned fur trader, the Baychimo. After reaching the Baychimo safely last Sunday, they sank, as eastern wind sprang up, breaking up the ice on which they had trodden to the vessel. Only by splitting up into small parties and hunting for seals and bears, when their food supplies were exhausted and waiting for the wind to die down, were they able to return to shore. Many husbands favor changing the name of a popular card game to toll bridge. NOTES NOVA SCOTIA. JUREST DIES AT NINETY. Halifax, N. S., Aug. 26. (AP)—Nicholas Hogan Meagher, retired justice of the Supreme Court of Nova Scotia, died here today. He was 90 years of age. Stricken on August 23, while on a train enroute from Montreal to Halifax, he weakened rapidly after his arrival here. Nicholas Meagher was one of Nova Scotia's outstanding lawyers and jurists for many years. He retired from the bench in 1916, at the age of 74. He was a devout Roman Catholic and was created a Knight Commander of the Order of St. Gregory in 1925. OUBMET IS ILL. Boston, Aug. 26. (AP)—Francis Oubmet, National amateur golf champion, lay ill at his home today threatened with pneumonia. A cold which he caught Tuesday at the Winchester Country Club while playing the opening round of his 36 hole match against Gene Sarazen developed into a more serious condition and the champion was under the care of two nurses and his personal physician. There seemed little likelihood of his playing in the Walker cup matches next week, unless his condition improves considerably within the next few days. TO COMPLETE PLANS FOR THE OPENING OF THE HIGH SCHOOL. Mrs. Richard Blankenburg of Ward street entertained the members of the Vernon Neighborhood Club at her home on Thursday. Mrs. E. H. FAVORS SEEBOT WEEK

Utica, N. Y., Aug. 26. (AP)—Governor Roosevelt considers short hours of labor and a shorter work week "practical" means of unemployment relief, he told the State Federation of Labor Convention in a message yesterday. The governor wrote "definite steps" should be taken at once, because it meant "the making of additional jobs by fewer hours of work per man."

BIG ATTRACTIONS AT SANDY BEACH

New Policy At Ballroom Will Bring Biggest Orchestras Available To This Section. Sandy Beach Ballroom at Crystal Lake is opening a new policy at this popular resort tomorrow evening that will last several weeks until the end of the season and will bring to Sandy Beach several of the leading dance orchestras of the country in a series of big time dance band attractions. A record crowd is expected to attend these week-end big time dance events at Sandy Beach, Crystal Lake.

15,000 DEAD IN BRAZIL'S WAR, ARGENTINA HEARS

Buenos Aires, Aug. 26. (AP)—Dispatches from Santos quoting a "well informed person" just received from Porto Alegre, Brazil, to the effect that 15,000 men have been sacrificed in the Brazilian civil war. The informant added that the rebels of Sao Paulo were powerfully entrenched on all fronts. The end of the fight was not in sight, this source said, because both the Federals and the rebels had plenty of troops and ample funds. Rio de Janeiro advices said the rebels had refused peace terms providing for general amnesty and adoption of a provisional constitution pending convention of a constituent assembly. Forte Alegre, Brazil, dispatches said six rebel planes had bombarded Federal headquarters at Gaupara, killing three soldiers and wounding eight. Rio de Janeiro, Brazil, Aug. 26. # DODGERS PENNANT HOPES FADE AS CUBS WIN

SENSATIONAL PLAY MARKS NET TOURNAY

Allison, Van Ryn Out-Battle Lott, Shields To Take Five-Set Match; On Verge of Defeat Many Times.

Brookline, Mass., Aug. 26.—(AP)—Wilder Allison and Johnny Van Ryn, defending champions in the 51st annual national doubles tennis championship at Longwood, were outclassed by a wide margin yesterday but the grim courage that has given them almost all of the world's prized team titles enabled them to overtake and then out-battle George Lott and Frank Shields in a three-hour semi-final battle.

It was a sensational tennis duel. Twice in the final set the champions were on the verge of defeat. Many terrific drives were baffled by Lott's crafty lob but they never surrendered and finally broke through for a 6-2, 2-6, 9-11, 6-4, 13-11 victory. On Saturday they will try to retain their titles against the winners of today's international semi-final between Henri Cochet and Marcel Bernard of France, and the crack California team, Ellsworth Vines and Keith Gledhill.

Break Allison's Serve
Lott and Shields were in fine form when they opened the deciding play. They managed to break down Allison's service in the fourth game for a 4-1 lead and the match appeared settled. Shields, however, evened matters by yielding his deuce in the seventh game, his uncertain back-handers, ending in the net. The play then saw-shaved, the challengers doing the seeing while the champions took care of the sawing, until the 23rd game when Shields tossed his service game away by matching his partner's net and out. A game to the good, Allison then ran out the match by serving a love game.

Allison made one of the bravest rallies in the history of tennis to save off defeat in the eighth game of the final. Trailing love-40 on his service, he scored five points in succession to place the game out of the fire and pull the set at five games all.

The victors were outscored 87 points to 77 but they held their nerves down to 189 against 151 for Lott and Shields. The latter was personally responsible for 88 of his team's miscues.

Shields Brilliant
The tall New Yorker, however, was the high point-scoring of the match with 47 placements and six aces on his terrific service. Allison totaled 42 points, Van Ryn 36 and Lott, who opened his grass campaign only last week at Newport, R. I., managed to pile up 30 points.

The other three national team tournaments were reduced to the semi-final rounds without upsets. The American singles champions, Vines and Fred Jacobs, teamed for the mixed doubles, advanced on a default. The others to gain that bracket were Mrs. Marjorie Morrill Painter, Dedham, and Lott and Virginia Rice, Boston, and Cochet. The other quarter final was put off until tonight.

J. E. D. and Arnold Jones of Providence, R. I., defending champions in the father-son play, continued to dominate their field, as did the 1931 veterans' titles, Dr. William Rosenbaum and Fred C. Baggs of New York.

YALE'S NEW SPORTS BOSS TAKES CHARGE

Malcolm Farmer Leaves Hardware Field To Assume Charge of Athletic System.

New Haven, Aug. 26.—(AP)—Malcolm Farmer has given up the manufacture of hardware to take charge of Yale's athletic system but he feels right at home on his new job. Farmer brings three years experience as a football player to his task of directing Yale's athletic system through a period of reorganization. He gained his experience as a fullback on the Eli team before his graduation in 1930.

Officially entitled to be called professor in his new post, Farmer has been christened "Mac" by his associates. He said he had one aim as athletic director and that is to "keep Yale athletics in the top-notch condition that has always been maintained."

"I want to work things out in the best possible manner for the undergraduates and for all others concerned," Farmer gave up a good position in a hardware manufacturing firm to return to his alma mater.

FARM BOY RISES TO TRAPSHOOTING FAME AND FORTUNE

Outshoots 700 of Country's Best Marksmen At Vandalia; Is Only 17 Years Old.

Vandalia, O., Aug. 26.—(AP)—Like a hero of an Horatio Alger book, 17-year-old Bobby Olds, Lansing, Mich., farm boy rose to trapshooting fame and fortune yesterday by out-shooting 700 of the country's best marksmen to win the preliminary grand American handicapped.

Standing on the 21 yard line, the handicapped assigned him because he has not shot at 800 registered targets this year, he blazed away to break 69 out of 100 targets and win $1000 of the $4000 purse that went with the winning of the preliminary.

Ted Renfro of Dell, Mont., and George Ransom, of Springfield, Ill., tied for second place with 98's, Renfro hitting from 25 yards, winning second money in a shootout, 24 to 22. Ransom fired from 21 yards.

Three marksmen tied for fourth place with 87 each. C. E. Miller, 31 yards of Mount Gilead, O.; David Lowery, 19 yards, of Newburg, N. Y.; and Karl Maust, 25 yards of Detroit, Mich.

Ill-fortune a few months ago caused Old's father to lose his farm and when school was out last spring, the boy set out to earn his own way.

He sold vegetables and melons until the onion crop was ready for harvesting. Then he went to work in the fields at 75 cents a day. In his spare time, he loaded traps for the North Lansing Gun Club. Shooters there took an interest in him and started him shooting.

With $30 in his pockets, Olds announced he was going to the Grand American trapshoot. Some Lansing shooters furnished him transportation and paid his entrance fee. Last night the list had a check for $1000 and a splendid chance to increase the amount to near the $3,800 mark.

CRIPPLE TO ENTER AQUATIC MARATHON

New Britain Boy Trains For 15 Mile Swim At Toronto; Is Paralyzed.

New Britain, Aug. 25.—(AP)—Although both of his legs are paralyzed, William J. O'Keefe, 23, a New Britain high school pupil, will enter the 15-mile marathon swim at Toronto, Canada, on August 31. He is now at Humber Bay, Ont., training for the test.

O'Keefe, engaged in an endurance race from Milford to Fort Jefferson, L. I., a distance of 28 miles last summer. After he had battled rough water and an adverse tide for 26 miles, he withdrew on the advice of Miss Constance Leigh, superintendent of the Newton Home for Crippled Children, who was in a boat accompanying him.

O'Keefe's participation in the Canadian marathon is being sponsored by the State Order of Fratres Fideli, an organization of physically handicapped men. He says he will use the money for a college education if he wins one of the seven prizes, the highest being $7,500.

EAST SIDE GRIDDERS TO PRACTICE TONIGHT

The East Side football team, which had such a splendid season last year, again expects to put a fast stepping team on the field. They will have a dependable coach to help work the team into a smooth working organization.

All members of last year's team and any willing candidates between the ages of 17-20 are asked to report at the Charter Oak street grounds at 6:15 sharp, tonight.

REFUSE TO GRANT NURMI PERMISSION TO RUN AS AMATEUR

Is Barred From Exhibition and Competitive Races During Suspension; Was To Run in Boston.

New York, Aug. 26.—(AP)—Hugo Quist, personal friend and former manager of Paavo Nurmi, Finnish track star, said today Nurmi had been invited to run in a 10-mile exhibition race at Salem, N. H., Sunday but Amateur Athletic Union officials said sanction for Nurmi to run had been requested and refused.

The exhibition race was planned in connection with the Boston Olympic Club marathon at Salem, in which Juan Zabala, Argentine Olympic champion, is entered. Zabala left by plane at 10:30 a. m. (E. D. T.) yesterday for Boston to get into training.

Nurmi is under suspension by the International Athletic Federation and his entry was refused for the Olympic games.

Daniel J. Ferris, secretary of the A. A. U., said he had received a request for sanction of Nurmi's appearance which he had referred to E. J. Edstrom, president of the I. A. F. Edstrom advised him Nurmi could not run, either in regular competition or in an exhibition, Ferris said, and he had relayed that information to Boston.

"So long as Nurmi is under suspension by the International Federation," Ferris said, "he cannot run in any country whose amateur body is connected with the I. A. F. That even bars him from competition in Finland."

Nurmi was suspended on the charge he had received excessive expense allowances for appearances in Poland and Germany.

YOUTH WINS MEDAL IN GOLF TOURNEY

Posts 72 On Waterbury Course; Seven Leading Players Withdraw After Qualifying.

Waterbury, Aug. 26.—(AP)—A corking 72 which won him medal honors and the withdrawal of seven of Connecticut's leading golfers from the competition left Robert Busby, of Bridgeport the outstanding candidate today for the championship in the Country Club's invitation tournament.

The 18-year-old Dartmouth sophomore negotiated the course in two hours yesterday to beat a field of 149 golfers for the medal. Today he teed off against A. Merriman, Jr., Taft School student in a first round match.

Seven members of the Connecticut squad scheduled to play against Rhode Island in Providence in the tri-state matches withdrew from the tourney after qualifying. They were Burt Reiml and Charley Clark, who shot 74's to tie for second place with Bruno Pardee of New Haven, Dow Ahern, Don Scoll, Spencer Brainard, Bobby Grant, state and New England amateur champion and Captain Frank Ross.

Ed. F. Warner of Pine Orchard, the eighth member of the squad, also withdrew after posting an 82, a card that would have eliminated him if his team mates had continued in the tournament.

BASEBALL

READY FOR SERIES

The West Sides and the Aces are all primed for the opening game for the town championship, to be played at the West Side Sunday afternoon. It is expected that Mattson and Godek will be the opposing hurlers in the first game. Much interest is being aroused over the series and undoubtedly other local teams will come forward to challenge the winner of this series.

BATTLE TO TIE

The Echoes and Crescents battled to a 9-9 deadlock at the West Side last night when the game was called in the fourth inning on account of darkness. The Echoes got two runs in the first inning and one in the second. They sent Gustafson to the showers in the fourth and Falowski finished the game but wasn't very effective. The Echoes scored six runs to make a total of 9.

The Crescents made three in the first and came back strong in the fourth to duplicate the Echoes' feat of scoring six runs and tying the score. Pete Hansen drove the tying run across the platter for the Crescents but was called out when caught off third base. "Fitt" Mahoney starred for the Echoes while "Eddie" Boyce and Bert McConkey banged out two hits apiece for the Crescents.

Peoria, Ill., Aug. 26.—(AP)—The women's golf championship tourney today had been reduced to four survivors, and Mrs. Opal Hill of Kansas City, the defending titleholder, still was favored to hold her crown.

She had to overcome a terrific bid by Jean Armstrong of Chicago, yesterday, but won out on the 21st hole. Her opponent today is Mrs. Tom Walden of Tulsa, Okla.

Plenty of Thrillers In Pike's Peak Climb

Colorado Springs, Colo., Aug. 26.—The annual Memorial Day 500-mile automobile race at Indianapolis may be a severe test for both drivers and cars, but the 124 miles race up Pike's Peak every Labor Day is said to be the most grueling event in the country.

Only the last stretch of the road is used for the race, supervised annually by the American Automobile Association. But this last stretch is the most difficult of all. Starting at 9240 feet, the road climbs to 14,109 feet in the 13 miles, negotiating 154 hairpin turns and cutbacks.

Last year's race was a thriller. Glen Shultz, who won the race seven years out of the last nine, and holder of the all-time super-charged record of 17:41, was the favorite to win with his Shultz-Stuts 32-valve speedster. But the winner turned out to be Chuck Myers, who piloted a Hunt-Jenkins dark horse to victory.

Not a Chance! Oh Yeah!
Myers' victory was doubly impressive because he had a lead of 10 seconds and because he set a new all-time record—17 minutes 10.8 seconds. Then, too, he followed 11 other cars up the mountain after the pounding of their wheels had loosened the road bed considerably and made it difficult for his machine's wheels to hold.

Myers had anticipated this, however, and had cut crosswise slots in his tires to the cord. This, he explained, would give him better traction up the climb.

To start off with, Myers was put at a handicap when Shultz whirled his car to the summit in another record time—17:26—cutting 16 seconds off his previous mark. Myers took the news stolidly, however, set his face in a firm look of determination, and got ready to take off.

When his time came, he flashed out of the pit and onto the road. Watchers at the halfway mark saw a blue and silver bug flash along the tangled ribbon of road to claw its way around the sharp curves and through the short straightways.

The Winnah!
At the quarter mark he was four seconds ahead of Shultz and his Studebaker-powered special was still roaring powerfully. Up the front range, through the Cove, beyond timberline, over the crest of the Rampart Range, up the "Top of the World," Little Pike's Peak, and skirting the bottomless pit he tore, crossing the finish line in a side-wise skid to check the pocket-like zoom. Time—17 minutes 10.8 seconds, averaging 48.6 miles an hour.

It should be remembered that such terrific speed was run over a course where ordinary tourists travel at little more than 10 miles an hour and where the road in some places is little more than a shelf on the side of the mountain.

BISSELL ADVANCES TO QUARTER-FINALS

Earl Eliminates Britton, 6-2, 6-2; Carl Johnson Wins; Matches Tonight.

Four more matches have been played in the men's singles town tennis tournament, the results of which advanced two players to the quarter-final. Bissell easily eliminated James Britton and will play the sensational Robert H. Smith. Carl Johnson rallied to defeat Herman Goodstone, 6-3, 0-6 and 6-4. Bissell won 6-2, 6-2.

Madonald triumphed over Fred Balboni and will meet the winner of the Stowe-Hand match, scheduled to be played on the Jesanis court tonight. The score was 6-4, 6-2. In the last preliminary match, Larry Paisley defeated George Elliott. The scores have not been reported. Paisley will meet Tom Hawley, one of the two seeded players remaining in the tourney.

In the women's tourney, Frances Oswald won from Mary Antonio, 6-4, 4-6 and 6-3. She will meet Eleanor Huebner. All first round matches have now been played in the tourney.

Hawley will meet Paisley on the Jesanis court at Glastonbury at night, following the Stowe-Hand match. It is expected that Ty Holland, defending champion, will play Eddie Marley tonight.

Glastonbury Beats
SUB-ALPINE NINE, 6-1
Beat Glastonbury hit Al Smith hard, gathering 11 hits to beat the Sub-Alpines A. C. 6 to 1 last night at Charter Oak street. The best of the Alpines could do was get one run in the third on four singles.

Tinocchi and E. Phau hit hard for Glastonbury while Chick Fraser led the Alpines.

KAYE DON APPEARS CERTAIN WINNER OF HARMSWORTH CUP

Prize Has Rested in America 12 Years; Tremendous Speed Expected in Race Sept. 3.

New York, Aug. 26.—Kaye Don, gallant English speed addict, has come to this country intent upon removing the Harmsworth trophy, a prize that has rested in America for 12 years. And there is every indication that he will be successful.

The other day, in a speed trial on Lake St. Clair, Don drove his boat along at 115 miles an hour, and, as the clockers say, he was only "breating." What his boat, the Miss England III will do when really pushed remains to be seen, but its world record of 118-plus miles an hour is established and accepted.

Don is meeting Gar Wood, who with his veteran mechanic, Orin Johnson, will be "in the coop" of Miss America X, a new speedboat whose qualities remain a secret with owner and builder.

The two will race, beginning Sept. 3, for the best two out of three heats on Lake St. Clair near Detroit.

Whether the American boat can do 120 miles an hour is unpublished. Wood has made his tests without announcing the timing. It is certain it will have to go fast to win, and if Gar Wood does win, he will travel over the water faster than he ever has done before.

Until last year, America had enjoyed possession of the Harmsworth trophy since 1920 without serious competition. In 1920, Wood's first Miss America defeated the English defender, Maple Leaf VII. Wood's boat traveled 61 and a fraction miles an hour.

Since then the speed has been steadily increasing. In the first heat of last year's race, for instance, Kaye Don's boat traveled more than 92 miles an hour for four of the six laps and his 110 miles an hour on the straightaway.

The first heat of that 1931 race was unprecedented for speed. Wood's Miss America IX hit 91 miles an hour on one complete lap, but could not gain on the challenger.

But, after the first heat, it will be remembered that Kaye Don was tricked into crossing the starting line before the gun. His boat was disqualified. So was Gar Wood's Miss America IX, which had crossed his across the line. The result was that Miss America VIII, piloted by Gar's brother, George Wood, simply had to breeze around the course in the last two heats to retain the trophy.

Don threw a terrific scare into the defenders last year. Gar Wood admitted that he deliberately tricked the British pilot, though later he denied it.

Now Don has a new and faster boat, a craft that has proved itself able to screech along in the water at 120 miles an hour.

If Wood hopes to beat Miss England III without resort to stratagem, he will have to whip Miss America X along at a speed that invites death on every turn.

Whether or not he can do it will be decided only when he tries.

Cleveland, Aug. 26.—(AP)—Many of the biggest thrills of the National Air Races, opening here tomorrow, will be provided as in previous years by "Uncle Sam's own"—the crack fliers of the Army, Navy, Marine Corps and National Guard.

And of all the thrills these military men show, probably none gives the crowds so big a thrill as the roaring, far-splitting, death-defying power dives from high in the air, downward at 200 miles an hour, until the planes almost hit the ground.

AIR RACES OPEN WITH ACROBATICS

"Uncle Sam's Own" To Provide Many of Biggest Thrills At National Meet.

The largest fleet of the military planes will be 88 Boeing fighters from Selfridge Field. Possibly the group most familiar will be the "J. therocks" of the Marine Corps, represented by their nine Curtiss "hell divers."

A distinguished group of European fliers will provide some of the best of the Aeronautical Acrobatics and "comery" flying. The foreign team includes flight Commander R. L. R. Atcherly of Great Britain, Lieut. Andrea Zotti of Italy, Lieut. Jean Assollant of France, Lieut. Placido D'Abreu, of Portugal, Col. Jerzy Kosowski of Poland, and Herr Emil Kropf of Germany.

Chicago Extends Lead With Easy Triumph, 9-3

Mark Koenig Comes Back To Star In Crucial Series; Bush Allows Only Seven Hits; Pirates Drop Double-Header; Ruth, Gehrig Hit Homers.

By GAYLE TALBOT
Mark Koenig, veteran shortstop for the Chicago, Cubs reclaimed from 'big league oblivion' three weeks ago to steady their infield, is proving himself the biggest $10,000 worth of baseball player to appear on the scene this season.

His eyesight completely restored by an operation, Koenig has come back to play magnificent ball for the Cubs in their drive for the National League pennant. He never was a greater hitter, but they claim he is holding even more brilliantly than in 1927, when he was with the champion Yanks.

In Great Form
With Koenig in the lineup a steady influence on the youthful Eddy Herman at second base the Cubs have won 9 of their last 10 games. The veteran who was brought back from the Pacific Coast League, where he had been sent to finish out his playing span, has won several games with his bat, but his fielding has been of the greatest value.

Cubs Win Again
He handled ten chances perfectly yesterday as the Cubs repulsed Brooklyn again, 9-3, and extended their lead to 6½ games. In addition, he contributed a pair of singles to a 13-hit attack on three Dodger pitchers. Guy Bush, just about paralyzed, Brooklyn's flag hopes by yielding only seven hits.

The Pittsburgh Pirates also dropped further behind when the Phillies bombarded them twice, 11-8 and 6-5, the latter game going ten innings.

In the only other National League game the Giants socked Bill Hallahan and two other St. Louis hurlers for 17 hits and a 6-5 win.

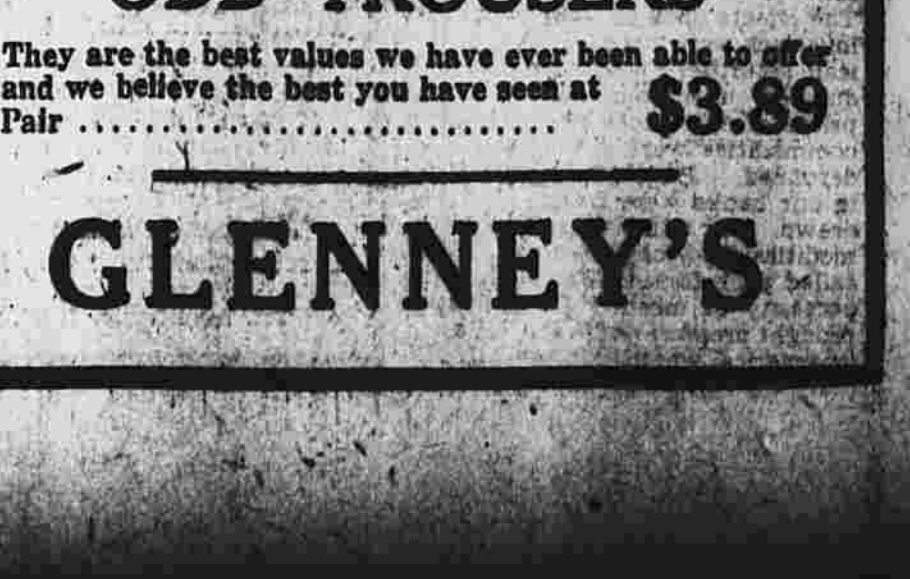

Gomez Wins 21st
Lou Gehrig's 28th home run of the year with tone out in the ninth inning clipped Cleveland, 4-3, and gave Lefty Gomez of the Yanks his 21st victory. Babe Ruth previously had hit his 36th with Combs on base.

Another game was decided by a circuit drive at Boston. Benny Tate of the Red Sox pounding one over the fence with one on to beat the Chicago White Sox 6-4.

The Athletics went on a batting rampage behind Tony Freitas to overwhelm the St. Louis Browns, 15 to 5. Jimmie Foxx pounded his 46th homer to maintain his lead over Babe Ruth.

Washington collected 16 safeties off three Detroit fingers to win handily, 5 to 5.

The Brooklyn Dodgers won only seven out of their first 19 games with the Phillies this season.

TEXT OF PRESIDENT HOOVER'S ADDRESS TO BUSINESS CHIEFS

Washington, Aug. 26—(AP)—The text of President Hoover's address to the conference of the Federal reserve district banking and industrial committees follows:

"We have asked you, the members of the twelve Federal reserve district banking and industrial committees, to confer together and with the officials of the government agencies which are engaged in the problems of the depression. The purpose of the conference is to better organize private initiative and to coordinate it with governmental activities so as to further aid in the progress of recovery of business, agriculture and employment. The committees of the different Federal reserve districts have already been of great service in the solution of many local problems.

"Many constructive projects have been advanced by them. We wish to expand the ideas and solutions developed in the various districts to other cities where they may be adaptable, to co-ordinate private and governmental agencies, to initiate steps for organization of groups to undertake special and immediate problems in credit, in industry, in agriculture, in employment, in the different districts. In other words, this is a meeting not to pass resolutions on economic questions but to give you the opportunity to organize for action. It is not proposed that you shall have authority from the government but that you should join in stimulation of organized private initiative of America.

Overcome Major Crisis

"The reason for calling this conference at this particular moment is that we are convinced that we have overcome the major financial crisis—a crisis in severity unparalleled in the history of the world—and that with its relaxation confidence and hope have reappeared in the world. We are now able to take further steps in solution of the industrial and agricultural problems with which we are still confronted.

"To have overcome this stupendous crisis is not, alone a tribute to the courage of American people but a proof of our resources. A moment in review of the magnitude of the forces we have overcome should strengthen our confidence for the future and the steps we now propose.

"You will recollect that after a year of world-wide depression we came into the first quarter of 1931 with strong evidence of our recovery. During those early months of 1931 the failure of banks decreased by 70 per cent from the previous quarter. The hoarding of currency practically disappeared. The signs of resumption of industrial activity and employment gave us the right to hope that the country was fighting itself. Then there came to us a concentration of catastrophes from abroad such as we have not experienced in the whole of our economic history. The economic and political demoralization in foreign countries, weakened by the great war and the treaties, together with the general depression itself, loosened a host of new forces of destruction.

Source in Vienna

"The first evidence of the impending financial collapse came in the first of August, when the demoralization in Vienna in April a year ago. In rapid succession were the difficulties of the national banks of Austria, of Yugoslavia, and finally of the Reichsbank, in the month of May. The general panic began in Germany in June and finally culminated in drastic governmental decrees suspending exchanges, closing of all banks, and accompanied by the failure of important institutions. Similar suspensions took place in other important areas in central Europe.

The difficulties were further increased by the revolution in Spain and revolutions in Peru and other South American countries, the latter adding many further details upon foreign obligations. In the first of August, evidence of distress in the Bank of England was indicated by heavy borrowing from abroad, further emphasized at the end of August by the large foreign loans by the British government in an effort to protect exchanges. But the strain proved to be temporary. The gold standard was abandoned by England at the end of September, followed in October and November by similar action in Sweden, Norway, Denmark, Finland, Austria, India and Egypt, with restrictions upon exchange in many other countries which equally disrupted international payments and foreign trade.

Far East Conflict

In September the conflict in the Far East began, and was followed by the suspension of the gold standard in Japan in December and the disturbing military operations of last winter. During the early months of this year we witnessed more revolutions in smaller countries and further defaults upon their obligations.

In even normal times any one of these many shocks to economic stability would have seriously impaired our economic life and created falls of prices and unemployment. The effects upon us of each of these invasions were instantaneous. American securities held abroad were dumped upon our markets. The prices of our stocks and bonds and commodities were continuously undermined. Huge foreign deposits in our banks were frantically withdrawn. Our own borrowers on commodities and on securities were called upon for more margins. The necessity of meeting these drains brought pressure on every borrower in America, whether it be a bank or with its possibilities, so as to coordinate your activities with it.

"We need a better distribution of credit. Credit is available but in many sections it is flowing inadequately in directions which would stimulate consumption of goods and employment. It needs resolution to use our banking and governmental resources and co-ordination to make them effective.

"There can be no question that there are in certain sections large numbers of businesses, particularly small business, which have been unable to find the credit facilities to buy raw material and to employ labor on goods which they can sell. There are difficulties in livestock and farm credits. There are foreclosures of home and farm mortgages because of inability to secure renewals. Yet credit is available if it be properly directed.

Sharing of Work

"In the furtherance of business recovery it is clearly necessary that there be co-ordination of effort in hastening the return of unemployed to employment in their natural industries. It is doubtful whether any action we could take at this time would greatly accelerate our progress, serve the welfare of our unemployed millions, or so quickly give us as a nation the benefit of widespread spending power as further spread of equitable plans of sharing the available work.

"As a matter of national policy, the shortening of hours is necessary not alone to meet the need of the moment but it may be necessary to take up the slack in the future from the vast and sudden advance in labor saving devices. As the result of conferences similar to this nearly three years ago many industries realigned their operations by shorter hours to retain hundreds of thousands of workers who would otherwise have been dismissed. Nevertheless the still further spreading of available work in industrial, commercial and service activities, especially with every recovery of employment, would be a vital contribution. Your committee in the 12th district recently inaugurated a drive for this spread of work. Already it is a great success.

Not Government Function

"Many methods have been proposed by labor and industrial leaders to systematically shorten hours.

While I heartily favor the purpose of these plans, I agree with both the employers and the leaders of labor whom I have consulted that its direction is not properly the function of government, except as applied to the operation of government service.

"Moreover with all the various phases of employment and operation to be met in private business results must be achieved through co-operation on the part of employers and employees suited to each locality and industry. I suggest you should consider the effective part which you can play in further forwarding organization to this end.

Agriculture's Right

"I do not need to remind you that the distressing problems of agriculture are not alone the problems of the farmer and the government. Its relief is one of the primary foundations of all progress in our country, and upon it does the progress of your business depend. It is as much your problem as it is the problem of the farmer, and co-operation of your committees with the leaders of agriculture and the agencies which affect their welfare cannot but be helpful.

"The other speakers will compass these many questions in detail, and I have but one final word. Now as will be the result of the multitude of activities of our citizens and the sustained confidence of our people in its great future. The problem before this conference is not to settle great questions of the future, or to establish artificialities, but rather by practical steps today or organization contribute to make more effective the activities of every agency which can promote the recovery of the nation.

Like Chateau Thierry

"The great war against depression is being fought on many fronts in many parts of the world. One of the most stupendous actions of this great front has been the long battle of the last eighteen months to carry our financial structure safely through the world-wide collapse. That battle may be likened to the great battle of Chateau Thierry. That attack on our line has been stopped. But I warn you that the war is not over, we must now re-form our forces for the battle of Boissons."

PINCHOT DEMANDS DAVIS QUIT TICKET

"I am pleased to say that the bill is not only a pleasant one," he added. "It is alleged that he not only broke the law by engaging in an illegal lottery, but that he also received at least $100,000 from the proceeds of the lottery, and thus converted to his own use funds that should properly have gone to children and others in need."

The governor was careful to point out "It is not enough to say that Davis has not yet been proven guilty. The Republican Party cannot afford to run a candidate who is under suspicion."

A week ago, Senator Davis was among a large number indicted by a Federal Grand Jury in New York for reputed participation in an alleged lottery conducted by the national Order of Moose. Several defendants have pleaded not guilty to the indictment. Davis is to enter his plea next Tuesday.

KILLED BY MONOXIDE AFTER ONCE ESCAPING

Ansonia, Aug. 26.—(AP)—Charles Matthews, 54, was found dead by his wife in the garage at their home 79 Division street late last night, a victim of carbon monoxide gas. Last March Mr. Matthews was found in the garage unconscious by his wife. He recovered.

Mrs. Matthews had been out for a time and returning, she found the house locked. Investigated the garage where she found her husband. Dr. F. N. Loomis, the medical examiner, found that Mr. Matthews had started the motor of the car after replacing a spark plug and being overcome by the exhaust, fell and received bruises on the head from striking the floor.

general recovery. Recovery from depression begins when things wear out and must be replaced or repaired. Real estate repairs to preserve the value of property will be the first help the building industry can get. The funds must be found."

Paul Bestor, commissioner of the Farm Loan Board, said the board had been assured by the Federal land banks that they have ample funds for loaning purposes and that it is their policy to accept all eligible and desirable loans offered through solvent national farm loan associations.

He said the twelve Federal land banks had outstanding farm mortgage loans of $1,145,000,000 and called attention that the Reconstruction Finance Corporation was ready to loan $30,000,000 to the banks if needed.

Reserve System Ready

Eugene Meyer, governor of the Federal Reserve Board, gave assurance that the Federal Reserve System stood ready to meet the needs of American commerce, industry and agriculture.

Meyer said the Federal Reserve System through the Glass-Steagall bill had been able to meet the situation caused by contracted credit and that this legislation had been a vital factor in easing the conditions in American banking circles.

He recalled that the bill made government bonds eligible for rediscount purposes and in that way the situation brought about by the outflow of gold to foreign countries and the hoarding in this country was met.

Washington, Aug. 26.—(AP)—Alto Pomerene, the Democratic chairman of the Reconstruction Finance Corporation, voiced belief today that "this return of confidence is here to stay" and assailed critics of corporation loans.

Addressing the group financial and business leaders assembled for the President's economic conference, Pomerene said 37 per cent of the bank depositors in the United States had been benefited by the loans made by the corporation.

"There has been criticism by some who are always ready and willing to criticize, no matter what the government may do. That criticism has been made for banks and railroads but nothing done for the individual," he said. "How strange that any thinking man should make such a statement."

In the six months before the corporation began its work, he said, a total of 1,460 banks failed. In the six months after it began work, he added, only 604 such institutions have closed their doors, with a total of 89 banks failing during the present month.

He said that in towns of 5,000 or less 69.8 per cent of the corporation loans to banks have been made.

Pomerene added that the loans to railroads, insurance companies and mortgage investment companies also had aided private citizens by permitting continuation of employment and securing policies.

Pomerene said if he had the power he would compel merchants and manufacturers to buy one-third more goods this year than they bought last year and that he would compel over liquid banks to be more generous in their loans.

MUCH SOUGHT ESPOSITO BOY IS IN HONOLULU

Foster-Daughter Takes Child To Its Father After Lad Is Spirited Away From Ottawa.

New Haven, Aug. 26.—(AP)—Although holding a warrant for the girl, police awaited a report from the Department of Justice before taking action against Mary Moran Esposito, who has been located in Honolulu with 9 year old Joseph Esposito whom she is charged with concealing.

The missing girl reached Honolulu yesterday, joined the boy's father, Dr. Joseph V. Esposito, former State Senator from New Haven. The boy disappeared from Ottawa, Canada, several weeks ago, was subsequently located here, and again disappeared with Miss Esposito, his foster-sister. Police charge he was kidnaped in Ottawa, where he had gone with his mother, by an older brother, Othello, 17, as a result of family difficulties.

Othello, who was arrested here, is expected to go on trial in Superior Court during the September term on a charge of abducting a child under 3 years from his parents.

After the child and his sister disappeared, police issued a warrant for her, but were unable to locate her until they received word of her arrival in Honolulu. Mrs. Frances Both, assistant city attorney, said the case was turned over to the Department of Justice two days after the boy's disappearance.

LENNOX LEADS IN DEBBY

Indianapolis, Aug. 26.—(AP)—Fred Dorsett of Augusta, Ga., led the eastern wing of the Cross Country Air Derby into the Municipal Airport here today. He arrived from East St. Louis shortly before 11 a. m., (Central Standard Time) and was followed a few seconds later by J. C. Huffnagel of Cincinnati, O. Helmut Mack of Pittsburgh landed third and behind her was Chappy Lennox of New Haven, Conn., who leads the eastern division in point standing. Lennox's standing here was 1,032.03 points.

Today that picture has greatly changed. We can look with assurance upon the cessation of foreign withdrawals from our country simply because they have substantially removed their holdings and we have successfully accommodated ourselves to it. Our strength has proved equal to the shock although many casualties. Confidence is returning. A return flow of gold from abroad has begun. Europeans are again investing in our markets.

"With the large prevention of bank failures and with relief from foreign pressure and its constantly renewed fears, the domestic hoarding of currency has ceased and is now returning at the rate of nearly $20,000,000 a week. The demands for banking assistance from the reconstruction corporation have diminished by $170,000,000 from the previous quarter. Our financial foundations are unimpaired as indicated by the fact that measured in amount of their trusts, 98 percent of our banking and fiduciary obligations to the public are intact. Seventy million insurance policies and twenty-five million depositors have been saved from jeopardy.

"It is not alone our country that is making a successful fight for the return of stability. Foreign countries have not been idle in placing their own houses in order. The Lausanne agreement has contributed to return of confidence. But while we thus see growing improvement in the financial sector, we must continue the battle upon the industrial and agricultural fronts.

"There is, however, a new setting of the depression, which offers opportunity through this confidence to set up machinery for wider spread cooperation of private forces and to coordinate them with our government agencies for aid and action in industrial and agricultural fields.

Definite Projects

"Definite projects will be laid before you affecting the better distribution of credit, of employment and commodities. What I wish is that banking and industry and business generally should in this new setting assume further initiative and responsibility; and they should cooperate with agriculture and labor and the government agencies to organize and develop every possible avenue of coordinated effort on the economic front.

"Your committee have in different districts already made positive contributions; these tried methods need spread and more definite national organization; they need coordination with our governmental programs. You can assist to make that great program more effective. In so doing you will bring hope and added security to every farmhouse and every village town.

"It is not proposed to engage in artificialities. Nor is it proposed that you attempt to settle here in a day great economic problems of the future. It is simply proposed that you organize for action in the problems immediately before you. Great future problems will occur to you as they are in the minds of all of us. You will no doubt seek the cooperation of national groups of business, agriculture and labor to put such questions on the road to investigation and consideration.

"I should like to suggest to you some general directions of thought.

Non-Partisan Basis

"We have a powerful governmental program in action for aid to recovery formulated and organized upon a non-partisan basis. I am in hopes you will familiarize yourselves delegates, it is believed, to make his nomination sure. District Rally Following the election of delegates was moved by Judge Thomas Ferguson that the delegates be allowed to name their own alternates. This was voted. Judge Hyde then called attention of those present to the district rally of Republicans to be held in East Hartford at the Sunset Ridge Country Club on Saturday September 10. This will be free to all who care to attend and Judge Hyde urged all Republicans to plan to be present.

Hear Old Timers With the business of the caucus completed Willard E. Rogers suggested that some of the old timers in politics tell about their experiences. Judge Hyde called upon Judge Raymond A. Johnson to tell what has been and is being done around the state in the political line. Judge Johnson responded in a splendid and temporary talk on politics and the interests of the Republican party in particular. He said that this is a vital election the country and state are facing and he noted in his trips about the state a keen interest on the part of Republicans. He praised President Hoover's acceptance speech and hailed it as an excellent document upon which to base the campaign.

Judge Johnson stressed particularly the excellent record of the Republican party in this state. He said he believed the Republicans were being attacked too modest about the record financially, that has been made. He cited the fact that this state came under the Republican administration in 1915 with a debt of $13,000,000 as a bequest from the previous Democratic administrations. Today the State of Connecticut has sufficient in its sinking fund to meet every outstanding note when it becomes due. In other words the state is actually out of debt and at the same time the institutions have been improved and the state in general is in a far better condition than when the Democrats were thrown out.

Col. Cheney Col. W. C. Cheney said he was always ready and willing to give what aid he could to the Republican party. He said it was his belief that the voters should give the aid they can to those who are doing their utmost to keep the party alive. Willard B. Rogers was next called upon and he immediately launched into a criticism of Dr. Edward G. Dolan for his continual references to a "whispering campaign." He said the first Republic he ever heard about a whispering campaign or attacks upon Candidate Roosevelt's physical handicaps was what the Democrats themselves have said. Mr. Rogers said that since the Democrats have brought forth this issue of physical fitness he would say and he wouldn't whisper it, that the job of President of the United States is not for one who hasn't both physical and mental fitness.

Willing to Debate Mr. Rogers said that he was willing to debate Dr. Dolan on some of the issues of the campaign especially with regard to state issues. He hinted that Dr. Dolan didn't have as much influence with the Democrats and especially with Governor Cross as the local dentist indicates in some of his speeches. He said that Connecticut is better off than any other state and as far as town conditions are concerned he said that business seems to be on the upward turn.

Judge Hyde remarked that the meeting had been particularly harmonious and asked Sherwood G. Bowers, as a representative of the Taxpayers' League, if he would care to speak. Mr. Bowers said that he was glad that some of the local leaders were willing to cut some of the town appropriations and noted that even some of them are asking for the privilege of sitting in and helping the Selectmen.

Tax Collectors Thomas J. Rogers was called upon and said that the Selectmen are having a difficult time in making ends meet but that a substantial amount had been paid on taxes bringing the percentage of taxes collected up to 85 per cent which will help greatly. He said tax collections are the biggest difficulty. Following his talk the meeting adjourned.

THROUGH THE STATE By The Associated Press Although unopposed, delegates to the Republican State Convention in New Haven, September 6 and 7 are expected to vote almost unanimously for the renomination of United States Senator Hiram Bingham.

In spite of threats by the Senator's dry opponents, State-wide caucuses last night elected favorable slates with only scattered surges of opposition. Differences over minor and local offices provided the principal disputes but none of them assumed major proportions.

Governor Not Considered With other points on the State ticket still highly conjectural the gubernatorial nomination and nominations for other State offices were given no consideration.

Newington and Unionville were the only towns where Bingham's dry opponents waged a fight. But in both towns delegates believed to be favorable to the renomination of the senior senator were elected.

In Unionville Robert E. Tarr, a defeated candidate for the delegation, moved one of the victorious delegates be instructed to vote for Bingham. After the motion was amended to apply to both delegates, the drys mustered their strength to defeat it 37 to 20 on a ballot vote, taken without use of the check list. Charles A. Hackney and William C. Duff, the elected delegates, are described as favorable to Bingham. In Newington a resolution to instruct the delegates against the senator was overwhelmingly defeated.

No Opposition Cornwall and Winchester, which had been regarded as centers of strength for the anti-Bingham forces, held quiet caucuses with no opposition at either point to the election of Bingham delegates. The crowd attracted by the expectation of a caucus fight made the Winchester gathering one of the largest in the State. Four delegates, two each from East Lyme and Chaplin, were instructed to support Bingham.

Three caucuses instructed their delegations for state senatorial candidates while in Windsor the voters took a step regarded as equivalent to instruction for support of Colonel Clarence W. Seymour for nomination for congressman from the First District. A fight in Middletown resulted in the election of a slate favoring the nomination of representative George H. Lowenthal as State senator instead of Senator Don Cambria, a candidate for renomination.

Hanbury Gets Home Town Newington instructed its fourth district delegates to support Representative George W. Hanbury for the nomination for senator from the Fourth District. Hanbury is opposed by Representative Kenneth W. Cramer of Wetherfield. The Derby delegation was instructed to support Henry M. Bradley, Jr., in the 17th senatorial district, and Monroe delegates will vote for Rodney P. Shepard of Newtown in the 26th.

In Windsor, Vine R. Parmelee, law partner of Colonel Seymour, was elected the delegate to the congressional convention and then given authority to name his associates.

The South Windsor caucus went on record as favoring some form of taxation other than a direct real estate levy. Seymour a Candidate Colonel Clarence W. Seymour of West Hartford today confirmed a report he would seek the Republican nomination for Congress in the First District. He lost to Congressman Lonergan two years ago by about 700 votes. On the Democratic side it was said that if Lonergan connects with the nomination for United States Senator, the Congressional berth will be sought by former State Senator Herman Koppelman.

Lonergan has expressed confidence of winning in the State convention and those siding his canvass asserted today he is likely to carry the Fairfield county delegation against Professor Harry Morgan Ayres of Westport, who will be put forward by those who stand with National Committeeman Archibald McNeill. Lonergan's campaign is under the direction of Thomas J. Spellacy.

In the 27th Senatorial district where Representative Joseph P. Lawrence is seeking the Democratic nomination against Senator H. Allen Barton of Greenwich and where the interest is keen, the claim is that Lawrence will control the delegation.

Barton Opposed Yesterday Senator Barton said he would not be the candidate for judge of probate nomination in Greenwich. Opposition to Barton is said to be based on his attitude on several matters before the Senate at the last session. He favored a bill which would have permitted distribution by physicians of birth control information, and on this ground he is mainly opposed.

MINERS RENEW PLANS FOR ILLINOIS INVASION

This Time the Units Will Be Smaller and Quicker, Strike Leaders Declare.

Quilspie, Ill., Aug. 26.—(AP)—A new invasion of southern Illinois coal fields in protest against the new $5 a day basic wage scale, by a select group of quick moving pickets was planned today by striking miners whose "peaceful" caravan was headed back at the Franklin county line by gunfire and clubs of deputy sheriffs.

The miners' policy committee announced mass meetings were being held in sub-districts throughout the state today to map the new drive, which leaders said, would be staged with the assistance of fellow diggers from Kentucky, Indiana and Oklahoma.

The date for the new move will be set within a few days and the miners will advance "on several fronts," leaders declared.

The column of thousands of diggers which was thrown into a panic when Franklin county deputies opened fire on it at Mulketown Wednesday was too unwieldy, they said, and the new invasion will be with smaller, swifter and more compact units.

HEAVY INDUSTRIES LAG BEHIND IN THE RECOVERY

Most Favorable Reports Come From Light Manufacturing, Says Bradstreet's Review.

New York, Aug. 26.—(AP)—Except for the heavy industries, which remain generally dull, the business trend continued distinctly upward in the past week, the weekly merchant reviews said today.

Bradstreet's said the most favorable reports came from the wholesale and light manufacturing lines, where the definitely better sentiment of the last weeks has been translated into real activity.

"Retail trade," continued this review, "also appears to be gaining slightly, although conditions in this field continue spotty. In general collections still are very slow, but they apparently have picked up in promptness from the early summer. The stronger prices of commodities and securities continue to sustain optimism at a high degree."

GOES TO LAKE SIDE FOR HUNDRETH SUMMER.

Norwalk, Aug. 26.—(AP)—Rev. Augustus F. Beard, D. D., oldest Yale alumnus and dean of the Congregational clergymen, has closed his home here so he can enjoy his 100th summer by lakeside. Dr. Beard, who was 96 years of age last May is vacationing at Lake Mohawk, N. Y., with his daughter, Miss Elizabeth Beard. The long trip was made by automobile.

OVER 400 WITNESS TOTS' DOLL SHOW

Muriel McConkey Is First Prize Winner—23 Carriages Entered.

More than four hundred men, women and children witnessed the doll show at the West Side playground yesterday afternoon. Twenty-three children entered decorated doll carriages and after much discussion, Muriel McConkey, 11 years old, of 51 West street, was awarded first prize. The winning carriage was decorated in yellow and green.

Nineteen girls entered dolls that they had dressed at the playground. The prize for the best, dressed doll went to Eileen Grimley, 11 years old, of 174 Cooper street. The prize which leaders said, would be staged with the assistance of fellow diggers from Kentucky, Indiana and Oklahoma.

The judges were Miss Mary Cheney, Mrs. Edward Werner and Mrs. W. E. Mitchell.

Following the judging, there was an exhibition of handwork and folk dancing by playground girls. Florida Pisaní recited a poem about the playground festival, composed by herself.

The entries in the carriage and doll events were as follows: Astrid Skoog, age 10, 129 Cooper Hill street; Marjorie McAdam, age 11, 24 Griswold street; Mary Taylor, age 11, 16 Griswold street; Peggy Torrence, age 11, 146 Walnut street; Eunice Brown, age 10, 26 Bank street; Elyllie Marja, age 11, 126 Sumner street; Mary Fogarty, age 11, 5 Bank street; Eileen Grimley, age 11, 174 Cooper street; Beatrice Breen, age 11, 148 Cooper Hill street; Jessie Bristol, age 5, 5 West street; Annie Thurner, age 9, 64 West street; Martha Todford, age 10, 9 Bank street; Gladys McNeill, age 11, 153 Walnut street; Alysne Gardner, age 10, 14 Elm Terrace; Muriel McConkey, age 10, 51 West street; Hazel Zempsap, age 9, 4 West street; Helen Colgrave, age 11, 108 Cooper Hill street; Grace Benson, age 11, 119 Cooper Hill street; Norma Foley, age 11, 12 Griswold street; Phyllis Langer, age 8, 91 Ridge street; Elizabeth Vennard, age 11, 21 Server street; Elizabeth Mayer, age 11, 121 Wetherell street; Shirley Perrett, age 5, 30 Griswold street.

RAY STATE COMMISSION BARS ELY'S ONLY RIVAL

Boston, Aug. 26.—(AP)—The State ballot law commission today decided to bar the name of Frank J. Harney of Ely, candidate for the Democratic nomination for governor, from the ballot.

The commission's action came after a hearing in which it heard evidence presented by several scores of persons who testified that signatures on Harney's papers purporting to be those of voters were forged.

Elimination of Harney from the Democratic gubernatorial nomination contest left a clear field for Governor Joseph B. Ely who will seek re-election.

MOVIE THEATER MEN PROTEST ARTHUR PLAN

Declare Successor To Fox In This State Seeks To Force Small Ones To Wall.

Waterbury, Aug. 26.—(AP)—Mayor Frank Hayes and Harry Arthur, president of the Arthur Theatres Corporation, which now controls the Fox-Poll theaters in this state, are to have a conference at City Hall this afternoon in regard to the protest of small theater owners concerning contracts the Arthur corporation is making with film companies.

The independent operators in Waterbury and about the state say the Arthur corporation is buying pictures on condition that they will not run elsewhere.

"The little fellows" say such action will force them out of business. If the test in Waterbury succeeds, small theater operators in other cities feel the Arthur corporation will make it a state-wide proposition. For that reason the small theater owners of the state have engaged Attorney Levy to present their side of the case to Mayor Hayes today.

"Naturally I can't say anything until I have heard both sides of the case," said the mayor today.

CEREAL RELIEVED HIS CONSTIPATION

Kellogg's ALL-BRAN Brought New Health

Every one who has suffered from constipation should read Mr. F. M. Fisher's letter:

"For many years I suffered from constipation and used, for relief, all kinds of laxatives. After a few days' treatment, I would only find my condition the same as before and at times worse. "Some time ago I started to use Kellogg's ALL-BRAN regularly, once a day as directed. Since doing this, I have found that I do not need any other medicine to procure the desired result, and it keeps me in a very healthful condition."—Mr. F. M. Fisher, 852 Evergreen Place, Ridgewood, N. J.

Constipation is caused by lack of two things in the diet: "Bulk" to exercise the intestines; Vitamin B to tone the intestinal tract. ALL-BRAN supplies both—and also iron for the blood.

How much safer this is than rickling pills and drugs—so often harmful. Just eat two tablespoonfuls daily—in serious cases, with every meal. If your intestinal trouble is not relieved in this way, see your doctor.

Equally tasty as a cereal, or used in cooking. Get the red-and-green package at your grocer's. Made by Kellogg in Battle Creek.

ROGERS PLANS TO QUIT POLICE BOARD IN FALL

He has served as police commissioner three terms of three years each. He served as a member of the Board of Selectmen for nine years and served two terms in the General Assembly. This will be the first year in the past 20 in which Mr. Rogers has not been serving Manchester in some political office. He feels that he has done his share of public service. None of the offices has been remunerative to any degree and rather the long period in office has been costly for Mr. Rogers.

Leaves Police Open The withdrawal of Commissioner Rogers leaves the way open for speculation as to who may become the new commissioner. No doubt the Democratic town committee will seek to have someone from their ranks named, as the other two commissioners, C. R. Burr and Col. Harry B. Bissell, are Republicans.

LEE-BOCHKON PLANE NOT YET REPORTED

at 5:02 o'clock and expected to reach their goal in 30 hours.

OSLO IS ANXIOUS. Oslo, Norway, Aug. 26.—(AP)—Hope that Clyde Lee and John Bochkon might succeed in flying their "Green Mountain Boy" across the Atlantic began to dim today as afternoon faded into evening and there still was no word of them.

It was feared the bad weather which prevailed over the eastern Atlantic might have spelled failure. There were low lying clouds and some fog from noon on. Officials said because of those conditions it might be the fliers had down over England without being seen.

TO RESCUE OF SOLBERG St. John's, Newfoundland, Aug. 26.—(AP)—A steamer started today for Darby's harbor to pick up Thor Solberg and Carl Petersen who crashed there on Tuesday night, ending their projected trans-Atlantic flight to Oslo.

Since the accident the two fliers have been stranded on Mersheen island in Flocatia Bay. The steamer will take aboard their plane and bring it here for repairs.

COONEY STILL LOST, SEARCH IS FUTILE

Woods Fail To Produce Aged Man After Thorough Hunt Through Them.

Another day has passed and still there is no trace of the missing Robert Cooney, 80 years old Summer street man, who disappeared last Tuesday after leaving a note which indicated he intended to end his life. Police are still working on the case but the vigorous search which marked the first few days, has been discontinued in view of the apparent futility of finding the aged man.

He was last seen when he stopped at the Nelson Buck store on South Main street for a bottle of soda. It is now the belief of investigators that Cooney turned off into the woods soon after leaving the store. The fact that Robert Richmond, who passed the store soon afterward, did not see the man, seems to bear out this possibility. The woods are quite thick and extensive on both sides of South Main street which makes it very difficult to search thoroughly.

Police recall that it was eight years ago the remains of Mrs. Mina Bissell was found after her disappearance in Wapping.

DILLON WINS SUIT FOR INSURANCE FUND

Judge Cornell Rules That John Hancock Company Must Pay Him Amount Due.

Judge John A. Cornell, Jr., filed a decision in Hartford County Superior Court yesterday which awarded nearly $5,000 to Stewart Dillon, Sr., in his suit against the John Hancock Mutual Life Insurance Company of Boston. The suit was brought last year when the company failed to pay a balance due on the policy issued to the late Hilma Dillon, his wife, who died Nov. 22, 1930. The award was for $4,299.63 and an additional $25.

The policy had been issued as of Sept. 8, 1919, with an annual premium payable each September. When the 1930 payment became due, there was a dividend of $34.96 accrued on the policy and this was used as a payment on the policy, credit for the dividend being applied instead of cash. The insurance company objected to payment of the face policy, less some $700 that had been borrowed against it, claiming that the contract called for a yearly payment in advance.

BRITISH LAUNCH NEW DRIVE

On Aug. 26, 1918, British troops launched a terrific new offensive on a 30-mile front from the River Scarpe to Lihons, and crossed the Hindenburg line at several points.

Their attack was preceded by artillery fire lasting several hours and equalizing in intensity any barrage ever laid down.

German forces were compelled to retreat all along the front, but did so only after desperate fighting, with tremendous losses on both sides.

French troops continued their drive to encircle Roye, and took Fresnoy and St. Mar. Roye was expected to fall at any moment, although it was defended by the best soldiers in the German army.

SPORT SLANTS... ZALAN GOULD

It's an old American as well as a popular custom generally to put the officials on the pan, but it will be a long time before the international linguists who managed the Olympic track and field sports live down the "boners" they pulled during the eight-day carnival of record-breaking in the Olympic stadium at Los Angeles.

Talk about Merkle and Zimmerman! They can't be mentioned in the same class with the gent who let the steepchase boys run themselves groggy for an extra lap, missed at least a half dozen close finishes in the sport distance races, ran out in front of Jim Baush while he was doing his dejection tricks in the pole vault, missed a Frenchman's mighty discus heave entirely because they were so absorbed by the antics of his trade.

On top of all this serio-comedy there was the disputed 5,000-meter final in which Ralph Hill, the lanky American boy, was outkicked and palpably fouled in the stretch by Finland's Lehtinen, desperately trying to keep his lead.

There was a Japanese inspector on the last turn-for this race charged with the responsibility of checking just such developments, but after noting what happened he forthwith disappeared with a bang. Since he understood little or no English, the calls for him made over the loud-speaker, did not produce immediate results.

The likelihood is that a formal American protest, accompanied by the requisite number of witnesses from the International Amateur Athletic federation to have disqualified Lehtinen, but the U. S. A. as well as Hill himself adopted the sporting attitude.

Hill won a "moral victory" anyway, in making the best showing any American distance runner has exhibited in international competition in many years.

His performance was a tribute to one of the most determined individual efforts of the games. Hill, except among those who knew how conscientiously he had trained himself for the longer distance, was not known as a runner.

At that, "Jarring Jim" Baush struck a portly, over-the-hill blow for Hill when he outscored Finland's two great decathlon stars in the two-day all-around battle. The defeat of "Aldi" Jarvinen, Finland's favorite athlete since Paavo Nurmi's prime, was the biggest single blow of the games for the little Scandinavian country.

Remove stems and cut tomatoes in quarters. Peel and slice onions. Cook vegetables until soft and rub through a sieve. Return to kettle with spices tied in cheesecloth bag and boil until reduced one-third. Add sugar, salt, white pepper and cayenne pepper and vinegar. HOOKS AND SLIDES by William Braucher

That well-known little bird that goes blip-blop carrying tid-bits of gossip from town to town was chirping merrily in our neighborhood the other day.

"Where have you been all summer," said the little fellow, "that you haven't printed the big news about the trades Mr. Connie Mack is going to make. Your ignorance is alarming."

An honest confession is good for the soul. I confessed that I had been trying to get the water out of my ears ever since plunging on Decoration Day, and still wasn't able to hear very well.

"What's going on?" "There's plenty going on," replied my feathered friend. "For one thing, George Barnshaw is going to be traded. And of all things, Mickey Cochrane is going to be traded. Don't tell me you haven't heard all about it!"

"Hag! What's this?" "Traded" replied my correspondent, "to whom, and for what?" "Traded to the White Sox," replied talkative birdie. "Well, not so much traded as sold. Mr. Mack hasn't been making money this year the way the Shibes over at Philadelphia are accustomed to see him make it. The club is in the red, and is losing caste. Would you believe it when I tell you that a large part of the A's following in Philly has swung over to the Phils?"

"How much money does Mr. Mack expect to make by selling Simmons, Cochrane, and Barnshaw to the White Sox?" "The Price Tags

"Well, you know as much about ground cinnamon, 1 teaspoon allspice, 1 teaspoon cloves, 1 teaspoon white pepper, 1/2 teaspoon cayenne pepper, and all skins. Cut in slices. Remove seeds and pith from peppers and mince flesh. Peel and mince onions. Put all ingredients into preserving kettle and cook slowly until thick, about two hours. Four into hot sterilized jars and seal.

Tomato Omelet... Dinner: Casserole of lamb, mashed potatoes, creamed carrots, shredded cabbage and lettuce salad, brown Betty, milk, coffee.

BUT THE PROOF? Petersburg, Ind.—This may be a fish story, but John Marashe claims that he caught two catfish on a single hook. The first fish he plucked, took the bait but it slipped through his gill. Catfish No. 2 gulped down the bait and hook as Marashe was pulling up the first one. Each fish weighed five pounds, he said.

Return to kettle with spices tied in cheesecloth bag and boil until reduced one-third. Add sugar, salt, white pepper and cayenne pepper and vinegar. Daily Health Service

COAL OIL POISONING... By Dr. MORRIS FISHER, Editor, Journal of the American Medical Association, and of Hygieia, the Home Magazine.

Occasionally children drink kerosene or coal oil by mistake, and as a result may develop poisoning.

Dr. Julian P. Price has reported four cases of children who drank kerosene, one with but any serious effects; one with immediate collapse from which he recovered; one who developed fever, difficulty in breathing, and later recovered, and one who died.

Immediately he began to cough and attracted the attention of the nurse who rushed him to the office of the family doctor.

When coal oil is first taken into the stomach, there is a burning feeling in the mouth, throat and stomach, colic in the abdomen, vomiting and thirst. If the poison of the coal oil has been absorbed, the patient develops a rapid, shallow breathing, feeble pulse and cyanosis, then becomes unconscious and not infrequently dies.

In grown up persons who take a small amount of coal oil or who work for a long time in an atmosphere where where inhale a great deal of coal oil, symptoms develop like those of a mild fog which is called a "naphtha fog."

The first symptoms are a sense of excitement and lack of self-control; later, however, there is depression, headache, nausea, roaring in the ears, irritation in the throat and a trembling in the hands and arms.

Thus far medicine knows no specific antidote for coal oil poisoning. Therefore, under such circumstances the first thing to do is to wash out the stomach and to give a mild laxative.

The stimulants are used in order to sustain life and the patient is watched constantly so as to lead him such support as can be given by medicine for the organs that need it.

One physician suggested the withdrawing of a considerable amount of blood from the veins and the transfusion of additional blood to take the place of the blood that has had its oxygen carrying power destroyed by the coal oil poisoning. This method is, however, still experimental.

George Bernard Shaw says he has been very much overworked. So far as we are concerned, he has our permission to take a long and extended rest, beginning now.

SENSE AND NONSENSE

"Changing Conditions." A girl may love you from the bottom of her heart, but there's always room for some other guy at the top.

Sunday School Teacher—William, can you tell me what we must do before we can expect forgiveness of sin?
William—Yes, sir. We must sin.

The average man who attends the movies, cannot understand why the husbands of the actresses should desire to be divorced from them.

Dumb—Funny how Fred is so lucky at cards and then loses his winnings at the race tracks.
Notedumb—Not so funny! They won't let him shuffle the horses.

A bussard does a man much more service than a humming bird, but it isn't nearly as popular.

Wife—The couple next door seem to be very devoted. He kisses her every time they meet. Why don't you do that?
Husband—I don't know her well enough yet.

NEVERTHELESS But for Thomas A. Edison we wouldn't have had the moving picture, the talking machine, or the telephone—but he was a great man nevertheless.

An angry telephone patron who was charged extra for a call, roared:
Telephone Patron—Outrageous! Why in my home city of Chicago one can talk to h—ll and back for ten cents.

Telephone Operator (chirping)—Well, that's inside the city limits.

The day is no doubt coming when the fellow who has horse sense will be considered terribly old-fashioned.

Wife—Oh, I'm so sleepy. Is everything shut up for the night, dear?
Husband—That depends on you. Everything else is.

"My idea of a cheapskate is a guy who'd reverse the charges on a long distance call to the poorhouse," said Awful Oswald, the Brushville pest, as he picked up another cigarette stub, and asked for a light.

When I married you I didn't know you were such a coward. I thought you were a brave man.
Husband—And so did everybody else.

Convalescent (in hospital, to a friend)—Thanks very much for the brandy peaches. Although the doctor wouldn't let me eat the peaches, I enjoyed the spirit in which they were sent.

Many people have found out that the only way to end divorce is to marry the second wife first . . . Before letting your conscience be your guide, it is a good idea to be sure you have one.

Men who stand around waiting for something to turn up, should begin with their sleeves.

Movie Director—Can you act?
Applicant—Act? Why on the stage last week I died so naturally my life insurance agent, who was in the audience, fainted.

Police Book Agent—Have you a Charles Dickens in your home?
Lady of the House (snapping)—No.

Book Agent—Or a Robert Louis Stevenson? Or a Eugene Field?
Lady—No, no, we haven't, and what's more, we don't run a boarding house. If you're looking for those people, you might ask across the street.

Medical Examiner—And what did your grandfather die of?
Patient—I don't remember, but I am sure it was nothing serious.

Too many young couples come to look upon marriage as an endurance contest.

Fruit—So Harper went into marriage with both eyes closed?
Jewett—Yes, her brother closed one and her father closed the other one.

FROM CONTENTED COWS

Nelson, B. C.—Most cows are satisfied with hay, but one that resists federal intrusion called George Fieldhouse considerable financial embarrassment. Returning home recently, he discovered he had lost his wallet, containing four ten-dollar and two two-dollar bills. Retrieving his steps, he came across a cow contentedly munching his money. He managed to save only one 10-dollar bill and a two-dollar bill.

BAT WON OUT

Knoxville, Tenn.—Little E. W. and E. J. Daniels, 9 and 11 years old respectively, came out second best in a battle with a rat. Hearing a noise under the floor of their home, E. W., the younger, reached his hand through a hole to grab the rat. Then he yelled, and jerked it away. He had been bitten. His brother then tried it, with the same result. The children were treated at the hospital. The rat got away.

FLAPPER FANNY SAYS

Many a supposedly killing story is greeted by dead silence.

The rabies quarantine which has been in effect in Manchester for the past three months was extended another 90 days today by the Commissioner of Domestic Animals, from August 26 to Nov. 26 due to a fresh outbreak of the disease.

After examination by the State Board of Health laboratories, a positive report was made to the Commissioner, who is in charge of the various quarantines now in effect throughout the state.

Mr. and Mrs. Baker and son will be subjected to the 14-day anti-rabies treatment, which has also been given to 24 persons here during the past four months.

It was reported at the Baker home this morning that the dog had been confined during the period of quarantine and the family were at a loss to know how it had contracted the disease.
