Larry Lewis Still Dashing At Age 102

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Every morning when the weather permits, Larry Lewis gets up and jogs the 8.7-mile perimeter of nearby Golden Gate Park. That Larry, who has driven 100 miles to the St. Francis Hotel where he is a banquet waiter, and puts in a full day hustling food-filled trays around.

His work finished, Larry hops the five-mile home and does the chores for his aging wife, Beatie, 72.

All this is not bad for a man who will never be 100 again.

Moreover, Larry, who is 102 and can prove it, seems to be getting better with age. Each June 25, his birthday, he runs the 100-yard dash against a stopwatch. He did last year in 17.3 seconds, which was half a second faster than he managed in 1968.

What makes Larry tick? Not even his doctor knows.

Part of the answer may be that Larry doesn't smoke, drinks nothing but three gallons of water a day and lives on oatmeal, beef or broiled.

His ruddy face is only slightly lined, he has a strong hand and his speech is lively.

"He's incredible," says his physician, Dr. Barry Paul. "Larry could easily pass for a man of 60 or 70."

Larry's age is attested by records of the Masonic lodge of which he has been a member for 75 years.

His memory is keen. Born in Phoenix, Ariz., in 1867, he recalls that his childhood playmates were mostly Navajo and Apache Indians.

To Larry it seems like only yesterday—it was 1882—when he joined P.T. Barnum's circus, eventually becoming a wire walker and straitjacket escape artist.

Larry has outlived a stepmother and 11 brothers. His mother survived to the age of 97.

A teacher until he was 78, he finally got married in 1948. His first wife died in 1960 at 87.

A car hit Larry in June 1965, fracturing his skull and severing his several injured his back.

"With the help of the good Lord," says Larry, "I was back on my feet in 25 days."

Susan Atkins And Manson Meet Joyfully

LOS ANGELES (AP)—The girl authorities say supplied the basis of charges against Charles Manson, the leader of a strange cult, met joyfully with her estranged husband, Sharon Tate, and six other others had an apparently happy reunion with the hippie-type cult leader in jail.

Susan Denise Atkins, 21, accused in the slaying along with Manson and four other members of his "family," seemed ebullient after their meeting Thursday.

Asked by newsmen whether she had told her to change the story she related to the grand jury which indicted them, she replied:

"Charles doesn't give orders. Charles doesn't command."

Mrs. Atkins' attorney, Richard Caballero, described the reunion as "a joyous one" which burst into laughter when their eyes met for the first time in five months. Caballero related that they were happy to see one another. They just kept laughing.

The meeting, which lasted more than an hour, was the first since Manson last saw any of his family in Los Angeles on Oct. 16, 1969, when he was arrested on their charges.

Atkins' remarks made by the press, attractive police reports, two watches and a ring in the drawer were not taken.

After the jail conference Thursday, Miss Atkins was briskly through a crowd of newsmen to a sheriff's car waiting to return her to Sylmar Institute, a women's prison.

Miss Atkins was faced blue all day in a worn dark blue sweater and white sneakers.

Caballero said he and Manson who is acting as his own attorney—differed markedly on the defense should be conducted but he did not go into details.

Caballero said, however, that if the differences could not be resolved, he would have no alternative but to step aside as Miss Atkins' attorney.

The jail meeting was permitted because Manson, as his own attorney, has the right to interview prospective witnesses.

Dempsy Names Six Advisors On Welfare

HARTFORD, Conn. (AP)—Gov. John Dempsy put the Citizens' Advisory Committee on Welfare back in business today by filling the six vacancies left by a mass resignation.

Six of the seven members of the committee resigned as Jan. 1 in protest over the way the General Assembly in December recommended a welfare budget for the present fiscal biennium.

They called the cuts "deliberate withdrawal of funds for the health and wellbeing of thousands of citizens."

Dempsy named as replacements: Mr. Joseph R. Lacy, chairman of the Roman Catholic Archdiocese of Hartford; Arthur M. Rogers of Wolcott, an executive of Seville Manufacturing Co. of Waterbury; Michael Grant, a Bridgeport pharmacist; Robert O. Brown of Ludlow; and Joseph J. Zimmerman, president of the Connecticut Mutual Life Insurance Co.; David C. Hewitt of Simsbury, chairman of the Hartford National Bank & Trust Co.; and Leigh B. Trecker of West Hartford, retired dean of the University of Connecticut's School of Social Work; David D. Komar, retired dean of the University of Connecticut's School of Social Work; and Dr. Ira V. Hancock, retired professor of public health at Yale University.

Justice Burger In Hospital With Flu Symptoms

WASHINGTON (AP)—Chief Justice Warren E. Burger was at the U.S. Naval Hospital at Bethesda today under treatment for what a Supreme Court spokesman called "a viral infection."

Burger, 68, was admitted last Thursday to the hospital after a family physician who examined him at home and found flu symptoms and a temperature of 102 degrees.

Banning F. Whittington, court press officer, said the chief justice probably would remain at the hospital for a few days.

Burger left the bench unexpectedly shortly before noon after announcing that he would participate in the Oklahoma-Indiana dispute about to be heard on the basis of a transcript and legal briefs.

The chief justice left the court about 2 p.m., Whittington said, and went home where his family physician advised that he be taken to Bethesda.

Fire in Danbury Heavily Damages School-Bus Area

DANBURY, Conn. (AP)—A two-alarm fire caused heavy damage Thursday night to a storage warehouse owned by County Bus Lines but none of the company's operative school buses were touched, fire officials said.

The blaze broke out shortly after 7 p.m., and burned for about one-and-a-half hours before firemen brought it under control. Spent parts, a racing car of undetermined value and a wrecked school bus were destroyed, officials said.

Fire Marshal Alton Spencer said the fire may have been caused by a cigarette. He was continuing his investigation into the cause.

One volunteer fireman injured his leg when he jumped at the fire's edge as it arrived at the bus garage.

Sheinwold on Bridge

TURN AWAY FROM ALL YOU WANT

By ALFRED SHEINWOLD

Playing bridge is sometimes like walking through the looking glass. To get what you want you have to go off in the opposite direction. If you reach directly for anything, you can't possibly get it.

South dealer.

Both sides vulnerable.

Opening lead—Nine of Spades.

West opens the nine of spades, and you see that your contract is a cinch if you can ruff a heart in dummy. But you can't get a ruff if you go after it.

Suppose you take the ace of hearts and lead a diamond in your hand in order to draw the ace of hearts in dummy and lead a low diamond at the second trick, losing the king to get it.

Now if West returns a trump, you overtake with the king in your hand in order to draw the ace of hearts in dummy and lead a low diamond at the second trick, losing the king to get it.

Daily Question

Partner opens with one heart, and the next player passes. You hold: Spades, 8; Hearts, Q-J-9-8; Diamonds, 10-9-4; Clubs, A-Q-10-3.

What do you say?

Answer: Bid three hearts. The hand is a bit too good for a jump to four hearts. If partner wants to make a slam try you don't want to discourage him.

State to Hold Public Hearing On De Facto Segregation

(Continued from Page One) Such schools have minority group enrollments more than 20 percent higher than the average for the school system.

Initial steps have been taken on several points of the plan. But no action has started on black studies program or adult learning centers, and the Project Concern busing program has registered only a small increase.

Acceptance of city students by suburban schools is at the discretion of the suburbs, which in the Waterbury area have been reluctant.

Most successful has been the plan to increase minority enrollment in the parochial schools of the city. About 200 Negro and Puerto Rican students were added this fall.

The Justice Department says the plan is not to be implemented through deliberate rulings or through de facto segregation based on housing patterns.

Several hundred of the 1967-68 and 1968-69 annual reports are available in the Municipal Building.

Results of laboratory studies such as blood counts taken to describe as normal. Doctors reported his general condition late Thursday was stable and said there had been "no medical developments which would cause concern."

He predicted "attempts to make any drastic changes in Hartford's five middle-class schools would have the effect of deterring suburbanites from moving into these areas and further compounding the problem."

LBJ Spent Last Night Comfortably

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP) — President Lyndon B. Johnson spent a "very good night," Army doctors reported today.

They advised there had been "no episode of severe pain" in the past 24 hours.

Brooke General Hospital's doctors said Johnson's premature contractions—extra heartbeats—"have been so rare," that the continuous electrocardiogram monitoring was discontinued Thursday.

They said his spirits are good today and his cold is "just a minor problem."

In a hospital bulletin, the doctors said they plan to allow the former chief executive "very limited activity today, depending on how he feels."

Frederick said that, by publishing it in the newspaper, the report will cost the town about one-fourth of the cost of previous reports.

Judge Rules Coffone Capable Of Standing Trial

BRIDGEPORT, Conn. (AP) — A Superior Court judge listened to two court-appointed psychiatrists Thursday, then ended a closed hearing with the ruling that Louis Coffone is capable of standing trial for the slaying of a Wilton housewife.

The judge, Thomas O'Sullivan, ruled the public couldn't hear the testimony after public defender Herbert Hundcock said his client wouldn't be able to get a fair trial if "hostility pervades the jury and the general atmosphere."

The psychiatrist, who testified that Coffone's mental state was Robert Miller, superintendent of the Fairfield Hills Hospital and Manand K. Arshel, superintendent of Connecticut Valley Hospital.

After his testimony, O'Sullivan held that Coffone is able to understand the proceedings against him and assist in his own defense. Trial was set for April 14.

Burdock also asked for a change of venue from Bridgeport to New Haven "so that the defendant may obtain a fair and impartial trial."

Coffone pleaded innocent Thursday to two additional charges of robbery with violence on Jan. 4, after Mrs. Carol Diack was strangled in Wilton.

Coffone, 31, of Stamford, was arrested in Louisiana several days after Mrs. Diack's death.

Missionary a Peaceful Man But a Hawk on Vietnam War

By WILLES JOHNSON Associated Press Writer DA NANG, Vietnam (AP)—The missionary, 67, was sitting in his study when he heard the sound of a plane flying overhead. "That was from the river," he guessed. "Something bigger than a grenade."

The door flew open and the 28-year-old beardless son, Leslie, pulled a heavily whiskered face around the corner. Excitement hurried his words: "Did you hear that? It was plastic, all right—maybe at the Select."

"It sounded like something from the river," they said. "That was plastic. I know what plastic sounds like. I was at the Select when they blew it up last summer."

That was an exaggeration. He had only knocked off a bit of plaster at the restaurant's terrace. The youngster who tried to throw it among the diners lacked the strength and it fell back down.

Yeast Breads...Our American Heritage

In bread-making, as in most things, America has borrowed profusely from other lands. Over the years Old World far-flung have become translated into something uniquely our own. Certainly no other country has done more to advance the cause of home baking.

The Rev. Mr. Smith says, "We were building a work-it should sit so near the window, and we kept it."

Sheet Metal Union Shuns Rail Session

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Sheet Metal Workers Union, blocking settlement of the national railroad dispute, refused today to come to a bargaining session called by the union administration under a strike delay ordered by Congress.

Survivors, besides his parents, include a brother, Wayne Keaton of Broad Brook; and a nephew, William Keaton of Main St., is in charge of arrangements which are incomplete.

While we have personal respect and affection for Mr. Keaton, it is our judgment that the events of the past 48 hours have effectively destroyed his ability to carry out his duties.

Congress Wednesday turned down President Nixon's request to order settlement in the 15-month-wide wage and job jurisdiction dispute, and imposed instead a 37-day ban against any strike or industry lockout until April 11.

O'Brien said an impartial mediator should be called in to replace government officials in trying to resolve the dispute.

A government spokesman said some consideration has been given to calling in an outside mediator, but no action had yet been taken.

The meeting involved John Quincy, chief industry negotiator, and the union's chief negotiator, William W. Welpinger.

The Wisconsin Democrat, a vehement critic of defense spending, said the payments requested by Lockheed are "out of line" and the decision to pay them is "unjustified."

Lockheed reported a $28.6 million loss for 1969 and said it will have critical financial problems if the Pentagon delays payments of up to $44.2 million on contracts for 20 transports to St. Louis.

The Army canceled its $1 billion contract for the CH-53A helicopter, saying Lockheed failed to meet specifications and production schedules.

Lockheed asked $71 million on a subcontracting contract, $48.2 million on the Cheyenne helicopter program and $25 million on the Sikorsky program.

Lockheed president A.C. Kitching said in a statement the firm will continue to work on the programs while awaiting a reply from the Pentagon.

"Pending the Pentagon's reply, we will continue to work on the programs, and, of course, all other military and commercial programs will be unaffected."

Lockheed and practically every other aerospace contractor is seriously undercapitalized, with most assets far below the level of its military business, he said.

After 41 Years in Country: 'Here I Sit in Desolation' At Entry Ramp to U.S. 101

VENTURA, CALIF. (AP) — Aren't they afraid? "People told us over and over that we would be thrown out of the country," Karen says, "but we haven't seen any kind of deportation order."

Two 40-year-old Canadians are leaving the warmth of their Southern California winter sunshine, disillusioned and weary. They had been in the U.S. for 41 years.

"It's too crowded," one says, "fingering his beard." "People here have too much money...there's too much pollution...the only attraction is the ocean."

They talk about the people who give them rides. "Mostly," he says, "it's long-haired freaks, LSD." "I've never really had a ride," she says.

They are sure enough, after 1 1/2 hours of waiting, a VW van bulging with people arrives.

Two girls, Karen and Ruthe, are on the ramp are talking to the driver.

"Here he's all night. When I was in Seal Beach," she says, "I was never really with anyone."

"I can't help it how I look," Ruthe says. "The women stick their tongues out at us."

"No food, no water, no dope," she says. "I can't help it how I look."

Wisconsin Law On Abortion Unconstitutional

MADISON, Wis. (AP) — Wisconsin's prohibition against abortion during early pregnancy was ruled unconstitutional Thursday by a panel of three federal judges.

The judges held that a woman's right to carry an embryo during the early months of pregnancy may not be invaded by the state without a more compelling public necessity than is reflected in the statute in question, the judges said.

The ruling avoided the question of when an embryo becomes a human being, and did not overturn the portion of the state law that prohibits abortion of a "quickened child."

Quickeners refers to the initial movement of the fetus felt in the uterus, usually about four months of pregnancy.

The judges said the law's interest in protecting embryos was not sufficient to deny a woman the right to decide whether to carry an unquickened embryo.

Medical reasons for prohibiting abortion in early pregnancy were the panel said.

"We are persuaded that a medical abortion during early pregnancy is not inherently dangerous to the mother," it said.

On the contrary, there may be a danger to the mother, including "rubella of thalidomide, pregnancy and one stemming from either rape or incest."

Lockheed Plea Brings Fear Of Defense Industry Ruin

WASHINGTON (AP) — The largest military contractor for the U.S. government has pleaded guilty to a breakdown in Pentagon policies that could bring the collapse of the defense industry, Sen. William Proxmire says.

Quincy Shipyard Plans to Employ More Builders

QUINCY, Mass. (AP) — General Dynamics Corp. says its Quincy shipyard will hire 600 more skilled shipbuilders by June 1.

The announcement Thursday by Lloyd Bergerson, a General Dynamics vice president and the Quincy yard's general manager, tended to ease somewhat the anxiety over the loss of 1,300 jobs at the Boston Naval Shipyard.

Bergerson said 600 extra workmen are needed for work on a backlog of 12 Navy and merchant ships.

At the same time, he said General Dynamics plans some 200 new hires in other divisions, administrative and engineering personnel at the Quincy yard.

Among the honored guests, Quincy's union president, Edward J. O'Brien, said he was pleased with the announcement.

He said the union would be glad to help in any way possible to get the shipyard back on its feet.

Joblessness At Highest In 4 1/2 Years

WASHINGTON (AP)—The unemployment rate climbed to its highest level in 4 1/2 years last month, indicating a further slowdown in the nation's economy under the Nixon administration's efforts to combat inflation.

The February jobless rate was 4.2 per cent, up from 3.9 per cent the preceding month and at its highest level since October 1965, the Labor Department reported today.

The increase hit hardest among full-time adult workers and in the manufacturing industry, where employment has been falling off steadily since last August, the department said.

A total of 2.8 million members of the nation's work force were out of work in February, up from 2.4 million in January—a 13 per cent increase, after seasonal adjustment, of 250,000. About one-third of the increase in unemployment was caused by production cutbacks in the automobile industry.

Workers in durable goods manufacturing have been especially hit by the employment slowdown, with their unemployment rate climbing to 4.7 last month—nearly double the post-war Korean war level of 2.5 per cent reached in February 1965.

Most of the increase in unemployment took place among adult workers—about 150,000 for men and 130,000 for women—while joblessness among teenagers holding steady for the month.

The unemployment rate for adult men increased from 2.5 to 2.8 per cent in January—the highest level since October 1965. The increase affected men in all major age groups, but especially those between 20 and 24, whose unemployment rate climbed from 3.1 to 3.7 per cent last month.

Killian Files Statement: State Opposes Redistricting Before Census Completed

HARTFORD, Conn. (AP)—Renewing this year of Connecticut's six congressional districts would be "obsoletes" as soon as it was accomplished, the state attorney general said today.

Killian filed a statement with the U.S. District Court opposing a lawsuit seeking redistricting. The suit, filed by Bridgeport Republican Tom Gamin on behalf of two Bridgeport residents, claims that the 1964 redistricting law is unconstitutional because it was not passed by the state legislature in 1960.

Killian opposed the redistricting on the basis of 1960 census figures while the 1970 census is already going on.

Redistricting will have to be accomplished by the General Assembly next year, he noted, after the 1970 census figures were available.

Killian argued for dismissal of the suit because of the delay and a great deal of work and cost which would be incurred if the suit were to succeed. He said that the suit would be a "great deal of work and cost" to the state and would disrupt the election schedule.

City of Danbury To Get $376,000 In Insurance

DANBURY, Conn. (AP)—The city of Danbury will receive $376,000 in insurance on its bonded-out police station, it was disclosed today.

City officials say it will take about $500,000 to build a new station to replace the old brick building ruined by the Feb. 13 explosion.

The bomb was one of three that exploded in downtown Danbury that day during a brief reign of terror by dozens of whom robbed a bank of $25,000.

The $376,000 payment does not cover equipment and furnishings, which were insured by another firm.

A campaign has been launched for private contributions to help build a new station, and city officials have asked for emergency financial help from the federal government.

Police operations were moved to the War Memorial building after the bombing and are now being set up in a vacant store across the street from the old station.

The Republican caucus last night elected a 74-member town committee and named delegates to the five conventions to be held prior to the November elections.

Named as delegates to the state convention to be held in Hartford are Arthur Callahan, Thomas Carlin, Ruth Corbin, Francis Frichard, Dorothy Fretter and Milton Tedford.

The caucus also passed a resolution endorsing the Connecticut State Police and the Connecticut State Police Officers Association. The resolution also called for the resignation of the state police chief and the state police officers association president.

Killian Files Statement: State Opposes Redistricting Before Census Completed

HARTFORD, Conn. (AP)—Renewing this year of Connecticut's six congressional districts would be "obsoletes" as soon as it was accomplished, the state attorney general said today.

Killian filed a statement with the U.S. District Court opposing a lawsuit seeking redistricting. The suit, filed by Bridgeport Republican Tom Gamin on behalf of two Bridgeport residents, claims that the 1964 redistricting law is unconstitutional because it was not passed by the state legislature in 1960.

Killian opposed the redistricting on the basis of 1960 census figures while the 1970 census is already going on.

Redistricting will have to be accomplished by the General Assembly next year, he noted, after the 1970 census figures were available.

Killian argued for dismissal of the suit because of the delay and a great deal of work and cost which would be incurred if the suit were to succeed. He said that the suit would be a "great deal of work and cost" to the state and would disrupt the election schedule.

Columbia Town Meeting Wednesday; Delay Due to Tax Work

The annual town meeting, nearly two weeks late because of delays in tax assessments, will be held next Wednesday in Porter School gym at 8 p.m.

The tax will be based on the assessed grand list of some $11,365,000.

Also, on the agenda is a vote for an addition to the town hall to serve as office space for town employees. The building committee will ask for an appropriation not exceeding $80,000, it has been said.

The money would be taken from the reserve fund for capital and non-recurring expenses and will not affect the mill rate.

The meeting will be asked to act on two ordinances, one to regulate control of open burning and the other to provide for the town to assume expenses for the annual Fourth of July parade, a celebration paid for, up to now, by the local Lions Club.

The Red Cross Bloodmobile will visit the Columbia Chapter March 12 from 1:40 to 8:30 p.m. at St. Columba's Church, according to Mrs. John Groman, captain of the day.

Mrs. Carl Gouline, recruitment chairman, said there is a need for new donors as well as the regulars in the past year. 21 regular donors have been lost because of various reasons and few new donors have been added, she said. Walk-ins are welcome and appointments may be made by Mrs. Gouline, or any member of the telephone committee.

The telephone committee includes Mrs. Nicola Albanese, Mrs. Richard Curland, Mrs. William Fletcher, Mrs. Richard Krustoff, Miss Kathy Koford, Mrs. Donald Pearce, Mrs. Walter Schroder, Mrs. Robert Tuttle and Mrs. Alfred Vestra.

Rec. Council

Mrs. Franklin Prugue has been re-elected chairman of the Rec. Council and other officers, re-elected at the recent meeting of the group, include Robert Baldwin, vice chairman; Miss Jean Natch, secretary; Mrs. Jerry Dunnoch, treasurer; and Mrs. Eugene Roberts, executive committee member.

The meeting adopted a budget of $4,200 for the coming year. Income for the council amounts to $5,025, leaving a small deficit, which officials say is "normal and will be worked out."

Pick up a good second car from Volkswagen.

Sombody traded in a Rolls-Royce for a Volkswagen? Yes, somebody traded in a Rolls-Royce for a Volkswagen. It happened in Texas, of course. But even in average states some pretty fancy cars show up in a VW dealer's used car lot.

And some not so fancy cars. And some quite practical cars, like Volkswagens. Which are convenient. First it goes through a rigorous 16-point inspection. If anything needs fixing, it gets fixed. And only then does a Volkswagen dealer place placement of every major working part!

For thirty days or one thousand miles. But no that guarantee on the windshield automatically.

So, when a VW dealer says that a used car is on good on the inside or it looks on the outside, you don't have to trust him. He'll put it all down in writing for you.
