

The Old Codger's Cogitations

It is not natural for partridge to be so wild as they are in Connecticut. They have learned since the human population has taken over so much of their country that their very existence depends on avoiding humans.

Supporters of the bill, which cleared the House of Representatives easily but passed by only two votes in the Senate, stressed the death penalty's deterrent factors.

Others, however, said the act still leaves final imposition of the penalty too much to the discretion of a jury, thereby retaining the arbitrary factor that caused the high court to strike down the penalty.

The act establishes a two-step process for imposing the penalty. First, a jury must find a defendant guilty. It then must decide if there are any mitigating or aggravating factors in the case.

Mitigating factors, such as if the defendant were under 18, or extreme duress, had relatively little involvement in the crime or had his mental capacity significantly impaired, would rule out the possibility of death being imposed.

Death would be mandatory, however, if there were no mitigating factors but at least one aggravating factor such as a murder being committed for pay, during flight from a felony or in a particularly heinous manner.

Such papers were defined as "all documents produced or received by the President or any member of the White House staff in connection with his official duties."

Sen. Sam J. Ervin Jr., chairman of the committee, told a reporter that on the face of it, he has no quarrel with the guidelines, but "the guidelines that will govern our committee will be guidelines determined by our committee."

"Haig, a 48-year-old graduate of West Point, became a popular figure at the White House when he demonstrated both executive and diplomatic talents during his four years with Kissinger."

"Like Kissinger, Haig shares an aura of close involvement in historic foreign policy events while having played no role in what Nixon has called 'shady tactics' that have been when by the all-embracing Watergate label."

He said the special renege sharing plan, Fletcher and Fellows said, is that it would allow states to decide how much money they would spend in each of six areas for which funds would be provided.

Currently, states receive separate grants for elementary and secondary education, vocational education, special education, grants for the handicapped, adult education and for the children of federal employees.

The president's plan would eliminate the individual grants and give each state a single block grant to cover all six areas.

Fellows and Fletcher said the plan has educators in each building political arguments to try to put pressure on state officials to get the most money for their own area.

If things continue in the direction they are going the division among educators could be greater than it ever was when they were competing directly for federal funds, the men said.

GET RID OF HIGH CARD WHEN IT BLOCKS YOU
By ALFRED SHEINWOLD.

South was glad to find the queen of diamonds in the dummy, since otherwise the opponents might have taken a heart and three diamonds. His joy was short-lived, however, for that same queen of diamonds later conspired with the opponents to defeat the contract.

Opening lead - Queen of Hearts

West opened the queen of hearts holding the trick, and continued with the jack of hearts. West could have defeated the contract immediately by leading the king of diamonds at the second trick. Then he could have continued with another diamond to the ace and a diamond ruff. West couldn't dream that this risky play would work out so well.

South ruffed the second heart, drew three rounds of trumps and led a low diamond. West hopped up with the king of diamonds and led a third heart, forcing declarer to use up his next last trump.

South next led another diamond to dummy's queen, and East shrewdly allowed the queen of diamonds to hold the trick. This was the conspiracy that defeated the contract.

South had to get back to his hand, but he had to use his last trump to do so. The diamonds were still unestablished and South could win only his six trumps and dummy's fatal queen of diamonds.

Down three.

South should have made his contract. On the first round of diamonds he should have led a low diamond. This enables him to lead the jack of diamonds when his regains the lead, and if East refuses the trick, South can continue with another diamond.

News for Senior Citizens

by Wally Fortin

Hi everybody! Another week's gone and with this past one was quite a busy one for our seniors.

First of all our exceptionally talented seniors put on a super performance to a packed house with their first "Senior Revue." It went over very well, and I've heard nothing but good things about the show ever since.

So it's hearty congratulations to all the performers, workers, and Hector LaCace, director, of the show. It was a tremendous task, and lots of hard work, but the results certainly proved it was well worth it. One of our members, Bernadette Noel, was awarded a prize for selling over 125 tickets for the show.

Form Club

One good thing that happened since the show was that some of the performers decided to get together and form a little club called the Sunshiners. Tommy O'Neill was elected the head of this group which will be making visits and performing at various convalescent homes and other places. I think that is really great, and it took the heart out of me to get the ticket out and into action.

While the big show was going on, there was some action back at the Senior Center as we had seven tables for set back with the following winners: Robert Schubert, 124; Bertha Durkin, 127; Josephine Schuetz, 134; Ann Fisher, 121; Jennie Fogarty, 121; Nina Reuther, 120; and Caroline Fredrickson, 118.

Monday popped in, and we had a record turnout of 102 members on hand for our Kitchen Social Bingo. It was real great to see such a fine crowd, and believe me if they continue to come and play like that our place won't be big enough to hold them.

In the afternoon we had a nice turnout of 50 players for pinocle with the following winners: Esther Audette, 710; Mary Nackowski, 685; Ann Husarik, 678; Grace Windsor, 673; Karl White, 667; Paul A. Schmitz, 661; Marjorie McLain, 654; Ann Thompson, 649; Leo Steinmeyer, 646; Marie Heberstet, 633; Frances Pike, 622; Lyla Steele, 619; and Wilfred Messier, 618.

Tuesday came in, and this is one day that we advance in our plan and prepare our programs for the rest of the week. In fact, it's really about the only time we have to make our arrangements and contacts for entertainment, etc.

League Ends

While that's going on, the big action is at the Park Lane where the Senior Bowling League finished up its winter season. Here are the final results:

Men's Class A, Clarence Peterson took the high triple with a 319 score and Merrill Dickinson took the high single with a 150 score.

Men's Class B, the high triple scorer was Carl Gustafson and the high single scorer was Lou Weber with a 153.

Women's Class A, Mary Chaves took the high honors in the high triple with 421 and Bertha Durkin took the high single with a 150 score.

Women's Class B, Jennie Trivigno took both honors with a 356 for the high triple and a 157 for the high single.

Hawaiian Evening

Next it was time for our Hawaiian evening, where we showed many colored slides which made everyone of the 180 present wanting to take off for Hawaii right away. Many of our members came dressed in their Hawaiian outfits, and they paraded around the hall, led by Niles "Hawaiian" Carlson.

Then we had some entertainment by our members, singing by the Hawaiian Sisters, Helen Burford, Ida Cormier and Beatrice Maher, accompanied by Ida Cormier at the piano.

Next Ann Incandella, Mary Chaves, Agnes Leduc and Joseph Ryan gave us their impressions of the Hawaiian Hula. The ladies had on their grass skirts, and believe me for only being in Hawaii one week these guys really caught on to the "swing" of things.

Then Helen Burford and her harmonica, accompanied by Joseph Ryan on the piano, led the gang in a sing-along of the old favorites. They all did a wonderful job, especially when nothing was actually planned in advance.

We then had Niles "two camera" Carlson show some of the slides he had taken, and that ended a memorable and enjoyable evening.

Wednesday, arts and crafts started the day, and by the way this Wednesday for crafts you'll be making those dolls out of cones, and you're reminded to bring the necessary materials.

About 10:30 a.m. we started a set on square dancing Eastern style. Boy, one has to be really lively to step out to this style of music. It takes a little more concentration, however, it's a lot of fun trying. What we could use is someone who is really familiar with square dancing to drop by and give us a much needed hand.

Fun-Day

After a delicious roast chicken dinner we moved upstairs for our Fun-Day. We were told that Geraldine Fitzpatrick had a special surprise for her home, 107 Spruce St., as is Erna Bauldwin at her home 87M Bluefield Rd. Hazel Stebbins has entered the hospital for some checkups.

I then told the members that the week of May 14 through 25 we will be our "Big Week to Remember," and we feel we should have an exciting and interesting week planned.

For example, Monday we'll start off with a golf tournament, location to be announced. We'll have special prizes for Social Bingo, special prizes, for pinocle, and then the big special will be that evening. We will hold a big dance, and will honor our Senior Center's number one member, Nellie Moran. That's just the first, so you can see what I mean about a "Big Week." More on this next week.

I also told the members that we now have a finance committee whose duty it will be to assist me in handling our fund-raising projects. Up until now, I have assumed the responsibility for all this with the assistance from two members who have been serving as treasurer and assistant treasurer, Mr. James Spasato and Mrs. Georgina Vince. Along with these two, the committee consists of Oella Carroll, Sue Schellingling, Walter Kanski and Tommy O'Neill.

This committee will sure relieve me of that extra work, and I'm sure it will be a big help to the Center. I was planning on starting this group in September; however, when looking over the exceptionally busy schedule for the next few months, I decided that they start their duties right away.

Golf League

By the way, we started our golf league this past Monday. It was our first day out as a group and for the next two weeks we will play to determine our discipos and then we will officially start the real action.

Last Thursday evening we held a meeting at the Center and the group elected officers. Joseph Depont is the president, Lyman Smith is secretary, and Al Bourat is treasurer.

It was decided by the members to play a different course each week for at least a month and then they would decide whether to continue or to go to one course. We are also looking for more players and do invite seniors from the surrounding towns. If you're interested in playing all year you do so to report at the following course between 8 and 8:15.

Menus

Monday: Chicken rice soup, tuna salad sandwich, chilled fruit, cookie and beverage.

Tuesday: Cream of carrot soup, grilled ham and cheese sandwich, cupcakes, and a beverage.

Friday: Old-fashioned clam chowder, fishwich sandwich with tartar sauce, ice cream sundae, and a beverage.

Back again to "Big Week." I received a call from Mr. Harris of Watkins Bros. and he gave me permission to use his front window for our arts and crafts display. So the call is out to our members who will be attending our oil painting class, crewel embroidery class, and the arts and crafts in general, to bring in their favorite masterpieces or before May 21 because we will be placing them in the window Tuesday morning, May 22.

On hand Wednesday afternoon was our good friend and volunteer, Mary McKeever, with her handsome husband Ed. We ran card parties all over. Well, once again they have volunteered to run the card games for our Fun-Day night, May 25, as the final part of our "Big Week." She talked about the matter with Ed and he can't wait to be going all out to make this party an enjoyable one.

From there we saw a short movie on the Italian ship which is being built on the Virginia Isles on it looks like a beautiful ship with lots of action. We have a few more selected movies available, and you folks have until this Wednesday afternoon to get on down and see them. So, it's a great trip coming in November, to assure us of the better cabins we must register now.

On Monday, we will take a whole price, or a deposit of $15. We will also take as many as we can pretty near fill a bus.

Wow, all this information was part of our Fun-Day, and we ended the day going to the races and playing cards.

Thursday morning we had 52 players for pinocle with the following winners: Ted Richard, 587; Inez Mahoney, 577; John Derby, 577; Grace Baker, 577; Cis Wilson, 564; Ann Young, 561; Gladys Seiler, 544; Corrine Gibson, 543; Grace Windsor, 543; Ellen Bronke, 539; Mabel Wilson, 532; Bertha Duhring, 532; and Robert Schubert, 528.

In the afternoon we had three tables for bridge with the following winners: William Lucas, 3,970; Dorothy Andrew, 3,720; and Marianne Herdic, 3,060.

By the way, next Wednesday afternoon at our Fun-Day we'll have Dr. Barry Wichman, who is Manchester's representative to a conference in Washington, will also tell us about her experiences, and what she discussed regarding Senior Citizens. Sounds like a very informative afternoon, and we look forward to seeing you there.

Menus

Monday: Chicken rice soup, tuna salad sandwich, chilled fruit, cookie and beverage.

Back again to "Big Week." I received a call from Mr. Harris of Watkins Bros. and he gave me permission to use his front window for our arts and crafts display. So the call is out to our members who will be attending our oil painting class, crewel embroidery class, and the arts and crafts in general, to bring in their favorite masterpieces or before May 21 because we will be placing them in the window Tuesday morning, May 22.

On hand Wednesday afternoon was our good friend and volunteer, Mary McKeever, with her handsome husband Ed. We ran card parties all over. Well, once again they have volunteered to run the card games for our Fun-Day night, May 25, as the final part of our "Big Week." She talked about the matter with Ed and he can't wait to be going all out to make this party an enjoyable one.

From there we saw a short movie on the Italian ship which is being built on the Virginia Isles on it looks like a beautiful ship with lots of action. We have a few more selected movies available, and you folks have until this Wednesday afternoon to get on down and see them. So, it's a great trip coming in November, to assure us of the better cabins we must register now.

Trip Registration

Speaking of registering, come Monday morning at 8:30 a.m. we will start signing up for this Wildwood, N.J. trip. This is that extra special day, where you get your hotel room for four nights, meals for five days, a boat ride around the island, and other surprises, all for $68. This includes your bus fare as well.

On Monday, we will take a whole price, or a deposit of $15. We will also take as many as we can pretty near fill a bus.

The Rev. Gordon J. Christensen

The Hope of Jesus

Two days later there was a wedding in the town of Cana, in Galilee. Jesus's mother was there, and Jesus and his disciples had also been invited to the wedding. When all the wine had been drunk, Jesus' mother said to him, "They are out of wine."
"You must not tell me what to do, woman," Jesus replied. "My time has not yet come."
Jesus' mother then told the servants, "Do whatever he tells you."
The Jews have religious rules about washing, and for this purpose six stone water jars were there, each one large enough to hold between twenty and thirty gallons. Jesus said to the servants, "Fill these jars with water."
They filled them to the brim, and then he told them, "Now draw some water out and take it to the man in charge of the feast." They took it to him, and he tasted the water, which had turned into wine. He did not know where this wine had come from (but the servants who had drawn out the water knew); so he called the bridegroom and said to him, "Everyone else serves the best wine first, and after the guests have drunk a lot he serves the ordinary wine. But you have kept the best wine until now!"
Jesus performed this first of his mighty works in Cana of Galilee; there he revealed his glory, and his disciples believed in him.
"After this, Jesus and his mother, brothers, and disciples went to Capernaum, and stayed there a few days.

Jesus Goes to the Temple

It was almost time for the Jewish Feast of Passover, so Jesus went to Jerusalem. In the temple he found men selling cattle, sheep, and pigeons, and also the moneychangers sitting at their tables. He made a whip from cords and drove all the animals out of the temple, both the sheep and the cattle; he overturned the tables of the moneychangers and scattered their coins, and he ordered the men who sold the pigeons, "Take them out of here! Do not make my Father's house a market place!" His disciples remembered that the scripture says, "My devotion to your house, God, burns in me like a fire."
This selection of Holy Scripture consisting of John 2:1-17 in Today's English Version is a part of the New Testament of our Lord Jesus Christ.

CCIL Leader Central Nips Tribe on Homer

By Dean Yost

British-Americans Were First

Sports story in Tuesday's edition of the Hartford Courant, by Terry Price, who covers the Hartford Capitals in the Eastern Basketball Assn., noted that a picture of the regular season champions would be on display at basketball's Hall of Fame in Springfield, Mass.

The long ball hurt Manchester High's chances of knocking off the CCIL's No. 1 team, Bristol Central, yesterday afternoon at Memorial Field as the Rams posted a 6-4 triumph. The win was Central's seventh in eight outings while Manchester dipped to 5-3 over-all.

Central tagged Tribe starter and loser, Dave Bidwell for four runs on two long balls in the third to open up the contest.

Leadoff hitter Bob DeLuca reached first safely as third baseman Peck committed an error. Armand Raponey was also safe when the throw to second for a force play was late. Mark Blackstock followed with a sacrifice bunt.

Rashomon Different

June B. Tompkins
(Reviewer)

Some people may not have cared especially for the story. Some people may not have cared for the way in which it was presented. But, as with a rare piece of sculpture, the workmanship and detail can be appreciated even though the piece itself does not appeal to a personal taste.

Thus it was with "Rashomon," the Little Theatre of Manchester's presentation last night at East Catholic High School.

I found the change in usual drama style refreshing, and challenging. Overheard from one of the viewers after the show, "It is something different for Manchester."

The staging is a masterpiece of delicately designed movable screens on which have been etched bamboo trees and willows in lacy, oriental style. In fact, as scenes change, stagehands attired in black tights and dark blue short kimonos in the shadows to prepare the next scene.

On either side of the stage, projecting forward, are huge pillars suggesting the huge gate of Rashomon in the city of Kyoto, Japan, — a gate which harbors all the filth of one's imagination, living and dead. The time, about a thousand years ago.

The characters, nameless except for identity of profession, enact a tale woven from a series of short stories by Ryunosuke Akutagawa. The drama tells three conflicting versions of a rape-murder, given by the persons directly involved in the crime who are the assaulted wife, her husband, and the bandit.

Scenes shift from enactments of the three versions, to court scenes, to the interpreters of the truth who are a priest, a woodcutter and a wigmaker. The theme is borne out that one sees what one wants to see, and one tells what one wants others to believe.

The lowly ragged wigmaker, who ekes a living by pulling the hair from corpses to make his wig, is stunningly portrayed by Bob Bletchman. Bill Siddons as the priest, and Tod Dunphy as the woodcutter were the least impressive in their roles.

Clever costuming did much to enhance some of the roles. There were a couple of intense scenes which involved ancient Japanese sword duels.

The entire production staff, combined with Sarah A. Parham's disciplined direction, has created a true gem among LTM's collection of theatrical

J. Cuyler Hutchinson

David Yeomans

Correction

In yesterday's story about the election which will take place Monday in Andover, The Herald inadvertently transposed these two pictures of candidates. They are correctly identified here. Hutchinson is an incumbent Republican seeking reelection as selectman. Yeomans, a Democrat, is seeking election as first selectman.

Bolton GOP Plans Motorcade

Robert Dixon, Republican Town Committee chairman, announced today that a motorcade of most Republican candidates will take place Sunday beginning at 1 p.m. at Town Hall.

The motorcade will cover every street in town with balloons and gum provided for all town children.

The parade is under the direction of Dan Rattazzi and John Roberts.

Dixon, in a final summarized statement before the election, asks voters to compare the experience and competency of Republicans presently in office to their Democratic opposition.

John Mahon, Democrat Town Committee chairman, said his party's candidates in Monday's elections will provide experience, dedication and leadership necessary to resolve the town's problems ahead.

MANCHESTER PROPERTY OWNERS ASSOCIATION SUPPORTS EDUCATION!

IN FACT WOULD LIKE TO SEE MORE OF OUR TAX DOLLARS ACTUALLY SPENT ON EDUCATION — HERE IS WHERE THE PROBLEM LIES. FAR TOO MUCH ALLOCATED IS NOT SPENT ON EDUCATION!

For Example:

- 1972 Budget gave about $5,000 raise to new Supt., $18,000 for new position, and over $1,000 raise to other administrators which equals a $26,282 increase.
- 1973 Budget shows over $1,000 raise for 54 administrators.
- 1972 Budget listed 21 principals and vice principals.
- 1973 Budget lists 22 1/4 with one less school.

In two years time, $75,513 more will be spent on administrative salaries, yet they say they can't afford pencils and paper for the students!

SCHOOL POPULATION IS DECREASING EACH YEAR, BUT MORE TEACHERS ARE REQUESTED—10 1/2 THIS YEAR. LINCOLN SCHOOL WAS CLOSED, LEAVING 2 CUSTODIANS AVAILABLE, AND NOW THEY ASK FOR ANOTHER TWO.

COST PER PUPIL HAS GONE UP $212 IN TWO YEARS, BUT THE PUPILS ARE STILL UNDER SUPPLIED—WHY? THAT IS A 22 1/2% INCREASE!!!

It Is Time To Ask For Accountability!

CTV AUCTION

What do a woolly lamb, a German shepherd puppy, a fine oil painting, a water bed, flying lessons, and a weekend at a motel have in common?

Just this: They'll all go on the auctioneer's block this week along with hundreds of even more spectacular items for the benefit of public television. It's the second annual Connecticut Public Television (CPTV) fundraising auction, which started last night (May 4).

Between 3,000 and 4,000 items have been received and catalogued by volunteer auction workers. Donated auction goods are still coming in.

Here's a brief sampling of the items:

- A patio set worth $285.
- An oil painting of the Farmington River by Aaron Draper Shattuck, valued at $3,000.
- Two framed oil paintings by Xavier Cugat, valued at $100 each.
- "Corned Beef Orgy" — enough for 20 people.
- A Karate course; French lessons; one night's use of The Barn at Wesleyan Hills
- A water bed; six antique hats; an antique mirror with candlesticks.
- A shoe-shine given by Hartford Mayor George Athanson, who at one time in his younger days was a shoeshine boy.

CPTV Auction '73 is being broadcast "live" from the noncommercial network's Hartford studio every night, through May 12, from 6 p.m. to conclusion.

The auction telephone number is 278-7650. Instructions for bidding are on TV Page 2.

Last year's auction — the first for CPTV — raised $125,000. Proceeds help pay for the four-station network's operations.

CPTV Auction '73 will be carried on all four channels — 24 (Hartford), 49 (Bridgeport), 53 (Norwich), and 71 (New Haven).

CPTV Auction 73 —How to Play

The call for bids rotates among three tables (A, B, and C) with six items each, PLUS the Big Board, PLUS the Quickie Board.

The Big Board offers major items, and bidding can continue for more than one day. Tables A, B, and C move merchandise at the rate of one item per minute. The Quickie is for fun, the place where nonsense items go up for grabs.

WATCH — When you see an item you'd like to buy, write down its number and location (Table A, B, or C, the Big or Quickie Board). Decide on your bid, then call the auction number, 278-7650.

BID — When the volunteer auction operator answers, give the location and number of your item, its description and the amount you'd like to bid. Then give your name and telephone number where you can be reached within the next hour.

BUY — If your phone rings, answer it. It may be the auction confirmer calling to verify your bid. If you made the high bid and all is in order, the item is yours. You will be asked to Pick Up and pay at the CPTV studio within 24 hours.

You may pay for your item with Master Charge, CAP, personal check, or cash. Connecticut sales tax will be added where applicable.

Veteran players recommend making your first bid high; you may find the telephone lines busy when you try to call to raise your bid.

ABC Lists Summer Schedule

Three new original series will be presented by ABC-TV this summer, and the popular show from last summer, "The Corner Bar," will return for its second season.

The new series are two half-hour comedy programs — "Thicker Than Water" and "Love Thy Neighbor" — and an hour comedy variety show, "The Burns and Schreiber Comedy Hour."

In addition, the ABC summer schedule will move to two shows — "The Partridge Family" and "Odd Couple" — to time slots they will occupy this fall.

"Thicker Than Water" stars Julie Harris and Richard Long in the comic misadventures of a brother and sister running their father's pickle factory. The program is based on a British series, "Nearest and Dearest."

"Love Thy Neighbor," based on a British series of the same name, stars Harrison Page, Janet MacLachlan, Ron Masak, and Joyce Bullfant. The show takes a humorous look at what happens when a black couple moves into an all-white neighborhood.

The comedy hour, featuring Jack Burns and Avery Schreiber, will present contemporary comedy. "The Corner Bar" stars Anne Mearns and Gene Roche as the proprietors of a New York City tavern.

Starting dates for the shows are: "Thicker Than Water," Wednesday, June 13, at 8 p.m.; "Love Thy Neighbor," Friday, June 15, at 9:30 p.m.; "Burns and Schreiber Comedy Hour," Saturday, June 30, at 9 p.m.; and "The Corner Bar," Friday, Aug. 3, at 9:30 p.m.

"The Partridge Family" will move to Saturdays at 8 p.m., starting June 30. "Odd Couple" moves to Fridays at 8:30 p.m., starting June 15.

Mother's Day Is May 13

A special day to honor mothers is an old custom that goes far back in history. Early Christians set aside a special day to honor Mary, the mother of Christ. For many years "Mothering Sunday" was held in honor of St. Anne, the mother of the Virgin Mary. On this day children would "go a-mothering" and take flowers and presents, cakes and cookies to their mothers.

Anna Jarvis of Grafton, West Virginia and Philadelphia is given credit for starting Mother's Day as we know it. Several people had suggested that there be a Mother's Day, but Miss Jarvis was the first to work very hard for it.

Miss Jarvis also started the custom of wearing carnations on Mother's Day. The carnation was her mother's favorite flower. At first everybody wore a white carnation. Then people started wearing a red flower if their mother were living, and a white flower if she were dead.

The first national Mother's Day was proclaimed by President Wilson in 1915. It is observed the second Sunday in May.
