Members of the Class of 1917 of South Manchester High School who gathered Saturday night for a reunion at Willie's Steak House are, back row, left to right, Ernest McCormick, Mrs. Edith Clark Simonson, Mrs. Marie Leander Bunnell, Mrs. Evelyn Little Joyce, Philip B. Verplanck, Paul Clune, Roger Williams and Robert P. Hughes. Center row, left to right, Raymond Carrier, Mrs. Rose Shea Roche, Mrs. Maude Johnson Carlson, Mrs. Gertrude Gustafson Robinson, Herbert Runde, Clifford E. Scranton, Francis P. Handley and Charles E. Gotberg. Front row, left to right, Robert F. Doellner, Mrs. Annie Turkington McCabe, Mrs. Mary McMenemy Crockett, Mrs. Mary Anderson Elliot, Ralph W. Lamenzo, Miss Elsie C. Quish, Evan W. Nyquist, Mrs. June Wright Moynihan and husband, the Rev. Clifford M. Moynihan and Harold Olds. A total of 27 out of a possible 38 classmates were at the reunion, including Mrs. Annie McIntosh of Manchester, who was not in the photograph. Those attending, many who came with their husbands and wives, were from Connecticut, Oregon, Florida, Massachusetts and New York State. Guests of honor were Edson Bailey, former principal of Manchester High School and his wife; Miss Betty Olson, mathematics teacher and Miss Carrie Spafford, Latin teacher. The Rev. Mr. "Connie" Moynihan was toastmaster. Edson Bailey spoke and mentioned Fred "Zip" Verplanck, a legend in the history of Manchester schools. A moment of silent prayer was observed for 14 deceased classmates. Class members spoke briefly on their lives since graduation, and all suggested that another reunion be held.
