

Armed POWs Bar Return by Others Batchelor Reports

Seoul, Jan. 2 (AP)—A young Texas corporal—one of 23 American war prisoners who originally stayed with the Communists—said today there might be others who would come out if given protection from dagger-wielding fellow POWs. Cpl. Claude J. Batchelor, who changed his mind and asked yesterday to go home, called for an investigation of conditions inside the pro-Communist neutral zone compound and said Indian guards should search it for hidden weapons. Batchelor, of Kermit, Tex., is the second of the 23 Americans to ask repatriation. Tells Conflicting Story His story of life in the wire-enclosed compound near Panmunjom, told during a 40-minute press conference here, conflicted at many points with reports of the Indian Command on conditions in the stockade now holding 21 Americans, 1 British and 327 South Koreans. The 22-year-old corporal calmly faced a battery of newsmen, cameras and microphones as he made these points: 1. Both South Korean and American pro-Red prisoners in the camp are armed with daggers to intimidate any prisoner who wishes to escape. "It would be difficult at times for the Americans to get out." 2. Chinese communist leaders have "some contact" with prisoners in the neutral zone compound, despite Indian reports to the contrary. 3. "A lot of fellows there are quite mixed up and there might be others who would come out" if they had a chance. 4. All outgoing letters from the camp are written jointly and read to the other prisoners. 5. The prisoners are split into factions and the leaders of various groups sometimes fail to pass on information given them by Indian officials. "Indian spokesmen have said repeatedly there are no weapons in the compound and that it would be a simple matter for any prisoner wishing repatriation to contact a guard. Batchelor's calm and poised contrasted with the extreme nervousness of Cpl. Edward S. Dickenson of Big Stone Gap, Va., who was repatriated from the North Korean camp Oct. 22. Reached Month Ago Batchelor repeated his statement Friday that tender love letters from his Japanese wife, Kyoko, played a major role in his decision to return. He said growing suspicion of Communist motives finally persuaded him.

India to Fix Opinion on POW Issue

New Delhi, India, Jan. 2 (AP)—Prime Minister Nehru's government has not yet decided what position India will take Jan. 22 when the deadline for the retention of unrepatriated prisoners under the Korean armistice agreement is reached. Official sources report top Indian officials are giving fully as much attention to that problem as to the nationwide clamor against the proposed American military assistance to Pakistan. But they have not reached an agreement on how India will vote in the neutral nations' repatriation commission when the time comes for a final ruling. The possibility of shifting the decision to the United Nations through an emergency meeting of the General Assembly, which India's Mrs. Vijaya Lakshmi Pandit as Assembly President could summon, grows less with each passing day. In fact, most observers here believe if Nehru wanted the assembly to decide the problem he would have asked Mrs. Pandit, his sister, to make the emergency call before the new year began. It is known here the Indian Government has been told plainly that come what may, the United States has no intention of altering its position that the armistice agreement requires the prisoners be given civilian status within the repatriation compound on Jan. 22. The nature of the possible Indian attitude and action on the prisoner of war issue is being kept highly secret here. Nehru is on record as having said a political conference was an integral part of the armistice agreement and the necessity of retaining the prisoners does not arise until the conference meets. But there are some within the Indian government who are not inclined to agree.

Gillette Set For Curbs On Probers

Washington, Jan. 2 (AP)—Sen. Gillette (D-Ia) said today he will ask the Senate to curb broad investigative powers in the field of international relations now held by Sen. McCarthy (R-Wis). "This is a glaring situation," Gillette said in an interview. "It is something that was never intended and I will ask the Senate to pass on it at the coming session." Gillette is chairman of the government operations committee and of its more widely known Permanent Investigations subcommittee. Gillette said he wants the Senate to rescind authority for government operations committee to investigate international affairs and give this solely to the Foreign Relations committee, of which Gillette is a member. Reason for Change Although he has tangled with McCarthy in the past, Gillette made no mention of the Wisconsin Senator in explaining why he sought the change. "International relationships are delicate now and will be for untold years," Gillette said. "The Senate has given its foreign relations committee authority in this field. We all know that careless actions or statements in this field can jeopardize our international status." Gillette's proposal followed by a day a remark by another Democrat, Sen. McCarran of Nevada, that the investigations subcommittee in its investigations of Communism "has stepped over into a field where it was not intended to function at all." However, McCarran in an interview said nothing about attempting to curb McCarthy's activities. He said on the contrary he thought the investigations subcommittee has "done good work" and emphasized there was nothing personal in his remarks. He and McCarthy often have exchanged complimentary remarks. The Nevada said, however, he thought the Senate Internal Security subcommittee, of which he is senior Democratic member, "can do all the work necessary" on the Senate side in investigating subversive activities. Not Primary Purpose McCarthy, in Miami, said yesterday.

Soviet Plan To Hit EDC Is Indicated

Washington, Jan. 2 (AP)—U. S. officials expressed hope today that the Berlin Foreign Ministers meeting actually will open Jan. 25, but they said the Russians still can stall the conference if they wish. Strong suspicions about Russia's tactics persist because one of Moscow's main purposes in the project is believed to be to delay French action on the proposed European Defense Community (EDC), and so to delay western plans for controlled rearmament of West Germany. Russia can forward this aim by keeping alive hopes of successful East-West negotiations, either promising conferences or actually holding them. The brighter the prospects of international peace by negotiation, the less protected presumably, Frenchmen would feel to accept EDC and thereby abandon their deep rooted opposition to any revival of German military strength. Agrees on Date Notes which the western powers handed the Soviet Foreign Office yesterday accepted Jan. 25 as the opening date for the Berlin meeting, agreed also to a Russian proposal that the place of the meeting be determined by Big Four officials in Germany and said that there is no point now in any further talk about an agenda for the conference since the ministers themselves will be meeting soon. Several possibilities of further delay are conceded: 1. The French government is to be reorganized in mid-January after the next presidential takes office. 2. A side issue must be selected for the conference. The western powers proposed the Allied control authority building, which the Russians do not like. There is some speculation that the Soviets may alternatively propose a former broadcasting headquarters which they control in West Berlin. That almost certainly would meet with ready western acceptance. But there also has been speculation that the Reds would propose alternating the sessions between East and West Berlin, among the four occupation sectors of the city. Despite difficulties such as the problem of uninhabited new neighborhoods by western correspondents, authorities here say such arrangements could be worked out. Would Reject Proposal If the Russians should unexpectedly insist that the meetings be held in East Berlin, the western forces, according to Western officials, would reject the proposal flatly. 3. Another possible cause of delay is the matter of subjects to be discussed. Again the key question is whether the Soviets would like to drag out the preliminaries to a conference for as many weeks as possible. They might try to haggle indefinitely. In previous note exchanges on both the western powers and the Soviet Government have in effect agreed that the future of Germany is a major topic of importance. Russia has served notice it will bring up its demand for recognition of Red China as a fifth big world power and the western governments have said that Russia can talk about anything it wants to.

Reds Blast POW Total By Indians

Panmunjom, Jan. 2 (AP)—The U.N. Command today gave the Indian Custodian Command a sweeping endorsement of its head count of Chinese prisoners of last Thursday—a count the Communists angrily protested. The U.N. Command said it regards "as a normal and necessary administrative action" the head count which gave 135 pro-Communist Chinese POWs their chance to return to the Reds. The formal U.N. statement said: "If this checking of the prisoner of war rosters affords some prisoners an opportunity to request repatriation, this is in conformity with United Nations Command policy that every effort should be made to ensure that every prisoner in the custody of the custodian force Indians should have every opportunity to make a free choice as to where he wishes to go." The statement diametrically opposed the stand of South Korean officials. (Continued on Page Ten)

U.S. Economic Outlook Given Optimistic Flavor

Washington, Jan. 2 (AP)—The New Year may not equal 1953's record setting surge, Secretary of Commerce Weeks said today, but the outlook is for one of the "better years" economic history. Weeks' optimistic forecast written into his year-end report, contrasted sharply with concern voiced by some Democrats like Sen. Douglas of Illinois, who said last week that the United States already is suffering a "real recession." It also was at variance with the opinion of a majority of some 300 economists who met here last week and agreed the country is in a mild business slump that they predicted would last through next year. The cabinet officer said the outlook is bright for a high overall level of jobs and business activity and "an abundance of newer and better products at attractive prices." "Our best days are yet to be," he declared. "The nation is more productive and more powerful than ever before." Weeks cautioned that "short run difficulties may arise," but he said these can be faced with "realistic optimism." Many economic adjustments already have been made, the Secretary said, and others will be dealt with as we move ahead. Should any severe economic fluctuations develop, he promised the Eisenhower administration will not be caught off guard, but "will take necessary and timely action to cope with the situation." "The administration will continue its policy of encouraging economic stability and growth and of preparing measures for prompt use wherever and whenever required," Weeks stated. Weeks gave his summary of economic developments in 1953: "During the first half of the year business activity was accelerating too fast to be maintained indefinitely; hence in the second half there has been some easing off from the production peaks reached earlier. "Most of the readjustment has been associated with the elimination of an exceptionally fast rate of inventory growth. Notwithstanding the setback in inventory accumulation, the national product in the final quarter of the year was above the closing period of 1952." Weeks report showed that new marks were chalked up last year in production, personal income, consumption and employment. The gross national product—the market value of all goods and services produced—totalled $67 billion dollars, a new record five per cent greater than in 1952. French Brace For Big Push By Red Rebels

Hanoi, Indochina, Jan. 2 (AP)—French Union troops deeply entrenched on the heavily fortified plain of Dien Bien Phu today tensely awaited an attack by the Communist-led Vietminh which may see the rebels hurling far superior strength into the battle. A highly qualified French military source said the Vietminh's "1st of Division"—No. 316—had been reinforced. A division usually contains 12,000 men. The strength of the defending force cannot be given for security reasons. Seldam, however, has the Vietminh ever attacked such a strong French Union position without outnumbering the defenders anywhere from six to ten times. The Vietminh, when they have attacked in the 8-year Indochina war, almost invariably has done so with a force of vast numerical superiority, hoping thereby to overwhelm government positions. No matter how big the attacking force may be at Dien Bien Phu, French commanders were confident that they could give the Vietminh a severe beating. He said a number of battle prospects there. Gen. Rene Cogny, French commander in northern Indochina, said "the attack could come at any moment." He added: "We expect the fighting to be hard and long. We will win." Hundreds of American-supplied Dakota transport planes, since the plain was captured on Nov. 20, have poured American-made guns and ammunition and French-Vietnamese troop reinforcements into Dien Bien Phu. Damages Payment Blocked by Judge Bridgeport, Jan. 2 (AP)—Judge John T. Appointing a new committee to reassess damages, Judge Cullinan said the first committee on public utility damages had acted in public belief in the possibility of pipeline accidents, a fear unsupported by evidence in the instant situation. Pope Calls TV Both Precious And Perilous

Vatican City, Jan. 2 (AP)—Pope Pius XII called television "both a precious and a dangerous instrument" today. He said it is "frightening to think that through the medium of television it is possible to introduce into the home the poison of materialism and hedonism that only too often appears on the (motion picture) screen." The Pope made his comments in a statement addressed to Italian Bishops on the eve of Italy's first regular TV broadcast. He said television was both dangerous and precious "because of the deep penetration it is destined to exert on the public and private life of the nation." Inaugural television programs from Milan, Rome and Turin will go on the air tomorrow for an estimated 15,000 Italian owners of television sets. Experimental programs have been broadcast regularly for two years. "We recognize fully this new conquest of science," the Pope said. "It is not difficult to understand the innumerable advantages of television and the many services it can provide man for his perfection." 17 Killed in Crush To Greet Hirohito Tokyo, Jan. 2 (AP)—Metropolitan police said tonight at least 17 persons were killed and 41 injured under the feet of a surging crowd as hundreds of thousands of Japanese flocked to the Imperial Palace to wish Emperor Hirohito a happy new year. Augusta, Ga., Jan. 2 (AP)—President Eisenhower completed completion of work on a series of messages to Congress, confers again today with administration advisers. The president scheduled another early morning session in his office at the Augusta National Golf Club. He started the New Year yesterday with a four and a half hour morning conference on the state of the air tomorrow for an estimated 15,000 Italian owners of television sets. Experimental programs have been broadcast regularly for two years. "We recognize fully this new conquest of science," the Pope said. Traffic Death Count In Nation Hits 136

There were 407 traffic deaths for a four-day New Year's weekend last year while the record for four days was 611 in 1951-52. A non-holiday death toll survey, from 6 p. m. Four Killed in State In Connecticut, the long New Year's weekend brought four traffic deaths and a fatal home accident. Three of the traffic deaths occurred on New Year's Day. Teen-age Rowdies Threaten Red Control over Poland

Vienna, Austria, Jan. 2 (AP)—Hundreds of teen-agers have been arrested in Poland in recent weeks in a drive to put down acts of hooliganism by roving gangs of young rowdies threatening Communist order. Polish newspapers reaching here report almost daily raids by police in cities like Wazaw, Krakow and Lublin and in smaller towns. Young rowdies are rounded up and sent to labor camps. Western diplomats in Vienna see the rowdism as an expression of restlessness of Polish youth with Communist restrictions and only indirectly as a form of anti-Communism. The newspapers say that Com-

Hal Boyle Old Diehard Element Sticks to Resolutions

New York (AP)—If the road to Hell is paved with good intentions, there is a fine new 6-lane super-highway today between here and Hell.

It is paved with the New Year's resolutions of perhaps 100 million Americans to lead better lives. Practically everybody makes these resolutions except women, small children and non-talking dogs—all of whom either are already perfect or don't know how to spell the word resolution.

The only other exceptions are a few scattered, old, diehard ascetics who are trying how to find a way to lead a worse life, rather than a better one.

If all the good resolutions that are made at this season were really kept, the sale of aspirin would fall to almost nothing, as would the divorce rate and the churches would be hanging out "standing room only" signs.

But, of course, most of these high resolves don't last. If each of these self-improvement artists broke a bone every time he broke one of his good resolutions, we'd have to tear down all our national forests to build crutches and splints.

The trouble with most personal reform programs is they set a Mt. Everest goal, where the average man finds the climb too high to breathe. Also, he gets lonely up there on his peak of purity.

Chairman of the House, Charles McNair, is going to give up smoking and drinking and frittering away money," this fellow writes in a memo to himself on New Year's Day.

"I'm going to quit picking on my kids, yapping at my wife, and telling the boss his faults," writes another.

So he goes rambling on until he has a list of a dozen or so resolutions. What is wrong with them? Only this: All his resolutions have to do with things he is going to quit doing or things he is going to give up. But he doesn't put down anything positive, he is going to do to take up the time he used to spend doing the wrong things.

The result? Before long he finds his new virtue of being as a three-seam Grade "B" movie on television. He becomes restless because he has thought of nothing constructive to do. Soon he lapses into his old-world habits.

A better approach to the problem of leading a better life is to make not a dozen negative resolutions, but a single constructive one—and stick to it. For example, you might make yourself this pledge:

"I hereby resolve to spend more time in bed in 1954.

Now this is a simple, healthy pledge that any man with fine instincts and reasonable determination can carry out. You might start out by spending five minutes more in bed, then increase it gradually until you are able to spend a whole day in bed.

This plan has many advantages. The longer you spend in bed the less time you will have to spend in busy and traffic jams, and the more time to think up nice things to say to the wife, the kids and the boss.

You will find that in bed it is more fun to chain-smoke than to chain-smoke. You will find you need fewer medicines. You will have to do fewer household chores. You can read all those books you always intended to.

It is a most bed and is safer from most kinds of accidents. It is also the best place to weather storms or floods, unless you are in a low-lying area, in which case it might be a good idea to assure you have a mattress that floats.

The more time you spend in bed the more money you save. You need fewer new suits, your shoes last longer. Your grocery bill

Wapping GOP Body Studies Enlarging of Court

Wapping, Jan. 2.—(Special)—Rep. Clayton Buckland is the head of a committee making a study of South Windsor's Town Court with an eye toward legislation which may eventually provide for a deputy judge and a deputy prosecutor, who will also serve as court clerk.

The committee, appointed by Republican Town Chairman Lloyd S. Grant, also includes Judge Homer Zibert, P. Lee Moore and E. Russell Trotman.

There is only one proponent of the court system, as authorized by the Legislature, which means that both men are on duty 23 weeks in a year. If either man is sick or out of town, a judge or prosecutor from another town is hired at the local court official's expense.

The town has always gained from the local court system. The present rate of $250 for the judge and $100 for the prosecutor is a considerable amount for the town. A lower salary for the court deputy officers would be suggested, under a plan now being studied by the committee. It is proposed that the deputy judge be appointed by the governor and the deputy prosecutor be appointed by the legislature.

Current receipts of the court are according to Superior Court records, between $2,000 and $2,500 per year, depending upon the number of arrests and convictions. The bulk of income is provided by fines in motor vehicle cases.

If the town enters an agreement with another town for a resident state policeman, now under consideration by the Board of Selectmen, it is anticipated the court will have more business than ever.

A study of the court systems in other towns is being made by Representative Buckland and his committee. The committee will make specific recommendations at a meeting of the Republican Town Committee and it is expected a bill will be drafted for presentation to the next session of the Legislature.

Emergency closing of schools due to winter storms will be announced on an early morning program on Stations WVIC and WROC according to Superintendent of Schools Merle B. Woodmansee. Parents of children in doubt about school sessions are urged to listen for the radio announcements or call the superintendent or the radio stations.

All schools in town will re-open Monday following the holiday vacation.

It's all right for you to think might, well of yourself, if you can prove it.

Dubaldo Music Center for Proper Instruction

How many children were given musical instruments for Christmas this year? Quite a number, and the next question is, "Where to get proper musical instruction?" The answer is easy: Dubaldo Music Center at 188 W. Middle Tpk., where Bruno Dubaldo, well known musician, has his headquarters. Mr. Dubaldo, who teaches piano for over 30 years and is also a well known and popular orchestra leader, is well qualified as a teacher.

The Dubaldo Music Center is open every day, Monday through Saturday, from 10 in the morning until 7 in the evening. For information about musical instruction, phone Mitchell 6-8205. The Dubaldo Music Center specializes in teaching piano, violin, guitar, mandolin and drums. Since his graduation from the Hartford School of Music, Mr. Dubaldo has become very well known as both a musician and a teacher.

For those children who are musically inclined yet have not fully made up their mind about the kind of instrument they wish to play, the Dubaldo Music Center has a plan that will save the parents a considerable sum of money.

RECORD CAR TOTAL

Greenwich, Jan. 2 (AP)—A record total of 14,058,942 motor vehicles passed through the Greenwich toll station on the Merritt Parkway in 1953, check disclosed today. This was 655,950 more than was recorded in 1952. Traffic was comparatively light yesterday with 23,502 vehicles being counted compared to 31,988 on Christmas and 32,991 on New Year's of 1953.
