Atty. Johr. D. LaBelle, Rubihow's law partner, and leader of an unsuccessful attempt two years ago to unseat Gryk, said today he will remain neutral in the fight. He is not listed on either slate. In his counter-charge today, Gryk asserted that the "Cone-Rubinow" faction has tried to persuade present Town Committee members to join their ranks.

He says:

In his counter-charge today, Charles Flaherty, about 65, was killed. His wife. Susan, 60, is on the danger list at Griffin Hospital, Derby, and Mrs. Susan Breault, 28, of Beacon Falls, rid-"It is significant to note that the Conc-Rubinow faction has tried herd to persuade many of the active members of the present
