Gozdz came to this country with his parents from Poland in 1911 when he was one year old, the family first settling in Tariffville and later in Simsbury. His father, a weaver, moved his family to Manchester in 1921 when he secured work at the Talcott Brothers mill. As Zigmund grew up, he too, worked around the mill, and for eight years was gardener and caretaker for all the Talcott properties.

Within the past few years, although still handicapped by his World War wounds, he dismantled five of the houses on Purnell Place which were removed to provide the large parking area now on that street. He used the lumber from these houses to build a Cape Cod house on Route 83 which he has caretaker for all the Talcott properties.
